The Carbon Advocate

SATURDAY, AUGUST 8, 1901.

BASE BALL GOSSIP. A base ball league composed of all the towns which are in the habit of playing ball with each other in this section of the State should have been formed this summer.

People who delight in pleasure riding invariably hire their teams from David Eberhart's popular livery on North street. A building lot 33 foot front on 7th street, adjoining property of butcher Diehl, is for sale cheap. Apply to L. S. Koch.

A crossing over First street at David Kressner's is a public necessity, and should receive the attention of Council. Lookamback, Mauch Chunk, continues to lead in base balls, bats and sporting goods of all kinds at very low prices. Ulysses Hough, formerly of this town, now lives in Jersey City, where he holds a job with the Pennsylvania railroad company.

Frank Semmel, formerly of town, who is punning the Gilbert House, at Weatherly will put in steam heat. Frank is a hustler. Dr. Rabenold, the dentist, of Allentown, was not at his office, here, on Wednesday, owing to the death and burial of his aged father.

Buyers have the largest stock to select from in the line of wall paper, borders and decorations when they go to Owen Rehrig's on Second street. From the Bangor Observer we learn that William Waterbor, of this town, will again go into the merchant tailoring business in the above place.

Good job and book compositors desiring work in the large cities, will please address with reference as to ability and character, "The United Typotheta of America," Box 605, Cincinnati, O. The large show windows of Schwartz's furniture store attracted much attention Saturday, because Henry had then nicely "fixed" with bargains.

The Lehigh Land Company are improving the mineral spring on their property by proper drainage and protection. The water is claimed to have rare medicinal properties. An advertisement in a newspaper gets into a house and it talks to every member without making itself obtrusive or offensive. It works faithfully every day. It is the most active, the most persistent, most patient, most polite and most successful. Employ it.

The grass in the Park needs cutting in the worst way, and Council should see that it is done. In its present condition it is a disgrace to an intelligent community. Come out the grass.

John Hottenstein has bought the Hunsicker freight route and intends to work up a business by prompt and careful attention to business. He can do it. He has a good team to deliver goods quick and prompt and lowest prices.

SPICILY TOLL.

The News of a Lively Town Told in a Few Words by a Hunting Reporter. Read Hummel's new advertisement. 100 cigars for $1.00 at Deiferderfer's cigar store.

New potatoes are down to sixty cents a bushel. A flag will likely be placed on the new highway mill. Full line of Ingrain and Brussels carpets at Henry Schwartz's.

Dr. Danzer, of Hasleton, will be at the Exchange Hotel on Friday, 21st. For Sale—A single frame house on 4th street. Apply to G. W. Morthimer. Dr. J. O. Zern's new residence will be painted and decorated by C. A. Goth.

Charley Benner, of the north end, contemplates moving to East Mauch Chunk. The Opera House will be opened under the new management during October. Jackson Everett and Al Walp are late purchasers of building lots on Fourth street.

Frank Acker is building a large, roomy paint shop in the rear of his South street residence. Lehigh Fire Co., No. 1, of town, will elect new officers at their first meeting in September. The crossing at the alley, between Second and Third street, is in a bad condition and should be fixed.

The most attractive arrangement at the north end these days, is Fred Rex's peanut roaster. It's a daisy. Some thing not often seen is a triplet dahlia, but Dr. N. B. Reber had one this week—presented to him by a friend. A young child of Julius Komatukki swallowed a nail, Wednesday, Dr. Seiple was called in, and it was removed.

IN A FEW WORDS.

Lively Writer Tells the Story of The Appointments of a Week in and About Old Carbon. Nesquehoning has a church scandal.

Lansford is wild over progressive euchre parties. Up at Weatherly they must muzzle their dogs. Some of the index boards along our roads should be repainted.

The farmers all through the county are rejoicing over big crops. The Jeanesville foundry works night and day to fill orders. Coal Dale is having a rumpus over the appointment of a principal.

The bottom dropped out of potatoes and they sell at 60 and 70 cents per bushel. On Thursday the Sheriff sold the personal property of John G. Rex in New Mahoning.

Ed Henry, of Jeanesville, was badly gored by a vicious bull one night recently. He will recover. Up to date Lansford is still in darkness—perhaps this is why Jimmy malloy thinks he runs the town.

A wild Hungarian who flourishes a yard long dagger is a novelty for Sandy Run folks. Several attempts have been made to capture him but he eludes pursuit. Mayor Smith, of Weatherly, has established a regular court and hears cases in great style. The other day he had two females before him charged with malicious slander.

The gossips were fined and dismissed. John Trevena, a Nesquehoning miner, was killed Thursday evening last by the explosion of a blast. His body was picked up in small pieces. His death was a horrible one.

An exchange has the following: Five dollars reward will be paid for a remedy that will prove effectual in stopping the tongues of gossips, that are old enough and ugly enough to die, but don't know enough. A brute of a Hungarian shamefully beat his wife at Levison the other day, and then decamped with $450 that the poor woman helped to save.

The decent people in that community should organize a vigilance committee and take care of such brutes. "He drank too much whiskey," is the cause assigned by an up the county coroner's jury, for the death of a Beaver Meadow Hungarian who was found lying in the brush alongside the road where he had gone to sleep off a drunk. Some of the whiskey they sell up that way is enough to kill anybody let alone a Hungarian.

It is safe for you to assume that the individual who is always eager to tell you a bit of scandal about somebody else is always just as eager to tell somebody else a bit of scandal about you. There is a good deal of truth in the old saying, that "a dog that will bring a bone, will take a bone."

Hugh McGarvey, of Beaver Meadow, who has been holding the position as messenger in the State Department at Harrisburg since last January, has been promoted to a clerkship in the same department. The position of messenger was vacant by the promotion of Mr. McGarvey has been filled by a colored man by the name of Banks, a resident of Philadelphia.

PEOPLE ON THE GO.

Ed Peters, of Slatington, was in town Monday. Miss Stella Plummer is sojourning with Easton folks.

Al Kutz, of Allentown, circled in town Wednesday. Joseph Hill and family, of New York, are guests of Tobias Buss. Mrs. Emma Gilbert, of Philadelphia, is visiting Mrs. W. A. Peters.

Mrs. C. O. Schirer, of Second street, is visiting her parents at White Hall. Mrs. H. V. Morthimer, Jr., spent Sunday with her parents at Bethlehem. Mrs. Annie Sweeney is home from a pleasant sojourn at Lake Winola.

H. C. Friel and wife, of Mauch Chunk, were visitors in town Tuesday. Miss Laura Masters, of Bangor, Pa., is visiting relatives and friends in town. Miss Lizzie Arner, of Mauch Chunk, spent Saturday with Miss Kate Arner.

Rev. C. E. Bartholomew, of Crossons, was a well-known visitor in town this week. Dr. E. A. Gearhart, of Kresgeville, gave us a pleasant call on Thursday afternoon. Mrs. W. H. Nusbaum, is visiting relatives and friends at Dingman's Ferry, Pike county.

A. K. Miller and wife, accompanied by Miss Emma Hunsicker, spent last Sunday at Coney Island. Landlord Bittner, of the Mansion House, Lansford, was a well-known visitor in town Saturday. Miss Sallie Raudenbush, of First street, is visiting friends at Allentown, Easton and Perth Amboy.

County Treasurer Mulharen, T. J. Nusbaum and Mr. Soally, of Lansford, witnessed Freehold—Lehigh game Saturday. Les Stiles and wife, of Packerton, were in town, calling on friends, Monday evening. Miss Martha Best, of Walnutport, is visiting her sister, Mrs. James Werk, on Fourth street.

George R. Beers, of Weatherly, was in town for a few hours on Monday and dropped in to see us. Wallace Sowell, of Hopewille, Pa., was in town Tuesday attending the funeral of a relative. Thomas A. Watkins, one of Nesquehoning's most popular citizens, gave us a pleasant call on Monday.

Miss Brannix, of Philadelphia, and Miss Kolley are visiting Miss Mary and Ella Eberhart, on North street. Tobias Buss returned on Monday from a visit of a week to friends in New York, Brooklyn and parts of Jersey. Mrs. L. M. Beldier, of Bryn Mawr, is sojourning with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Nusbaum on First street.

Frank P. Hill and wife, of First street, were in attendance over Sunday at the funeral of Mrs. John Hill, in Germansville, Lehigh county. Deceased was aged 92 years. Malien Nothstein, the blacksmith, of New Mahoning, gave us a call on Friday and renewed his subscription to the Advocate. Mr. Nothstein has the reputation of being the most rapid horse-shoer in this section; recently he put on 58 shoes in one day.

An Old Mauch Chunker Killed. From last week's Dover, Index we get the following concerning the death of an old Mauch Chunk printer: "A despatch was received in Dover by Station Agent Carrell at an early hour on Thursday, 30th ult., that a man named George Clark was found dead in a culvert on the D. L. & W. R. R., near Delaware station, and to enquire at the Index about him.

NEWSY WEISSPORT.

The Deings of a Lively Town Briefly Chronicled in Short Snap-Shot Order by the Stroiler and Chom. Harvey Zeigfus is on the sick list. He has quincy.

Mrs. Gusie Fenner, of Philadelphia, is visiting relatives here. The Barang barber shop is under going needed improvements. Mayor Daniel Graver was out of town this week on business.

A letter is in the post-office for Paul Meekes. He can have it if he calls and asks for it. Miss Jennie Seager, of Kresgeville, spent last week very pleasantly with relatives and friends in town.

The Evangelical (anti-Bowman) Sunday school had an attendance last Sunday of 176. The collection was $2.02. Squire Austin Boyer left this week on a trip to Saylor's Lake and other places. He may be gone a week or two.

Frank Fatzinger is putting in his vacation at Kresge's shoe store where he is hustling at the repair of injured boots and shoes. B. J. Kuntz, Daniel Graver, Henry Christman and Jake Kintz, made up a good-looking quartette to Frank Seiberling's last Sunday.

James Silfies who lived in Weissport last year, and was connected with the Garment Cutting Factory at Lehigh, died in Texas last week where he was buried. Nesquehoning people evidently know a good thing when they see it. They have ordered fifty gallons of ice cream from Chas. Nusbaum, to be furnished Friday night for a grand festival.

The nicest assortment of jewelry and silverware in the county can be seen at Nusbaum's store; all the new and pretty novelties at the very lowest prices. Seager received 2400 watermelons on Wednesday. Oscar is a hustler from way back. Of the number over a half car were sold in one night at Mauch Chunk.

Levi Horn is the owner of a hog that is said to have swallowed a large snake one day recently while running in the woods. The size of the snake varies with the time of day. The new Evangelical (Bowman) Sunday school assembled for the first time in School Hall on last Sunday with an attendance of sixty-one. The following officers were made: Superintendent, G. H. Laury; assistant superintendent and secretary, Dr. P. A. Andrews; treasurer, M. A. Laury. The indications are that the school will grow rapidly.

Prof. Minnich has been re-elected principal of our public schools at a salary of $60 per month, and Miss Eva Dechant, of Catawissa, has been elected teacher of the primary school at $40 per month. Miss Dechant taught last year at East Mauch Chunk, and is said to be an excellent teacher. The schools will open for an eight months term on August 24. At the regular monthly meeting of the borough fathers on last Monday it was decided that the borough will take six or more fire plugs if the Carbon County Improvement Company gives the town a water system. There, we knew it would come; the members of council represent too much enterprise to refuse such an offer as the Improvement Company extended. Of the one hundred signers necessary about seventy have been subscribed for already, and it shouldn't take an hour's work to get the balance. Come, let us hustle this business through before winter so that we have some protection in case of fire.

A New Plan. The citizens of Mauch Chunk township need pay no road taxes. The roads of the township, some thirty miles, are kept in repairs by the Lehigh Coal & Navigation Company, it bearing the entire expense. This has been the custom for six years. The township elects two supervisors who hire a force of men, go over the roads make what-ever repairs are necessary and the Company foots the bills, even to the supervisors' wages for every working day in the year. The Company saves several hundred dollars per annum by the plan. Formerly, irresponsible supervisors would use up the entire amount of a ten mill tax and have the township in debt besides.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is a powerful medicine. It is carefully prepared from Sarsaparilla, Dandelion, Mandrake, Dock, Pipsissewa, Juniper Berries, and other well-known and valuable vegetable remedies, by a peculiar combination, proportion and process, giving to Hood's Sarsaparilla a power not possessed by other medicines. It affords remarkable cures where other preparations fail.

FROM MAUCH CHUNK.

The County Capital Spectacularly Splendidly Celebrated by a Special Correspondent. Personal and Otherwise. George Esser was on a business trip to White Haven, Wednesday.

Jimmy malloy was in Mauch Chunk, Wednesday, getting ammunition for his telephone. An enthusiastic temperance meeting was held in Oak Hall, Sunday evening by the St. Aloysius Society. The assembly was addressed by Rev. Father Danca.

Some how or other the report was put in circulation that the county was to build a new bridge, with the result that Commissioner's Clerk Lawlor had a couple of dozen bridge builders to take care of during the week. Thomas McWilliams, of East Mauch Chunk, a brakeman on a freight train on the Nesquehoning branch, Central Railroad of New Jersey, fell off his train Thursday afternoon as it was coming from Tamaqua, and met with serious injury. McWilliams was putting on a brake, standing on the end of the car. The chain broke and he was hurled out on the north track sustaining internal injuries.

From the White Haven Journal we learn this of Miss Esther Arner who is visiting in that place: "On Wednesday evening a surprise party was given to Miss Esther Arner, of East Mauch Chunk, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Yundt. The evening was agreeably spent in playing games. At 10:30 the guests partook of delightful refreshments served by Mrs. Yundt. Those present were Misses Sallie Tuttle, Carrie Ray, Laura Bucklelow, Pearl Feist, Mattie Scott, and Messrs. Lee Koons, Frank Bucklelow, Bradley Koons and Edwin Scott."

The reception and banquet given by Walnutah Castle, No. 251, K. G. E., of the 2nd ward, on Thursday evening 30th ult., was one of the most pleasurable and successful affairs of the season. At about 8:30 the Mauch Chunk Orchestra, under the leadership of Prof. Frank Kaufman, made its appearance and rendered a choice selection; a vocal selection, entitled "Men of Thought," was then rendered by the Lutheran choir after which P. C., J. W. Smith in a few well chosen remarks cordially welcomed the guests of the evening, and introduced District Grand Chief H. Y. Morthimer, Jr., who in a short address explained the objects, principles and growth of the order; a vocal selection, entitled "Flag of Heroes," was beautifully rendered by the choir and was followed by a selection by the orchestra, after which an adjournment was made to the large hall on the second floor where a sumptuous repast awaited the invited guests and to which all did full justice, after which the members and their guests once more assembled in the large room on the first floor, where the delightful music of the orchestra, they indulged in tripping the light fantastic toe until the "wee sma hours ament the twal." All who had the pleasure of being present greatly enjoyed themselves and voted the affair the greatest social success ever held in the second ward.
