Annual Democratic County Meeting.
The annual Democratic Meeting will be held at the Court House, in the Borough of Mauch Chunk, on Monday the 17th day of August, at 10 o'clock P. M., to fix the day for holding the Delegate Election in the several boroughs, townships and election districts and also the time for holding the County Convention and to transact other important business.

MICHAEL CASHDY,
Chairman Democratic County Committee.

"If the Commissioners would order that all job printing for the county should be done by contract, awarded from time to time to the lowest and best bidder, even the Lehigh Advocate might rise to the dignity of an average local newspaper, instead of advertising itself as a mere lackey and blow for George W. Esser, the Northampton official job printer, that he can command and helps him to swindle the county by certifying extortion prices as 'correct.'—M. C. Demore.

The above item we copy in full from the Mauch Chunk Democrat, and it goes to prove most conclusively what we have all along maintained, viz: that on account of George W. Esser refusing to have anything to do with the Rauch's in the way of giving patronage they are opposed to him body, soul and breeches. The animus of the item is plain—the Democrat wants pap and for a lack of it is suffering itself to degenerate into one of the most disgraceful and contemptible organs of the bosses that the Lehigh Valley has ever known. Disappointed in his political aspirations the editor has become a chronic growler of the worst sort, and has taken to abusing men who have the courage of their convictions. Our books are open to show that the prices we charge the county for printing are the same as we charge individuals, corporations or business firms and we emphatically pronounce the accusation in the above item as maliciously false and the writer a contemptible liar and blackguard of the worst sort. His political history is as spotted as a leopard and as deadly as the poison of a cobra, and we challenge refutation. During his residence here he has in one way or another been connected with all the low, mean and dirty tricks compassed in the party. Without moral stamina, and lacking the first elements of decency no one wonders at his present position as the puppet of one of the dirtiest political rings or combinations ever formed in Carbon county. It is because the editors of the CARBON ADVOCATE have the courage to kick against such a ring and expose some of their plans that the foul elements open their mouths and breath lies as black as their own political jagged. THIS PAPER OWNS ITSELF and is not to be dictated to by any one—some of the aspiring politicians in this neighborhood have learned this and a few more will shortly be taught the same lesson. From the 11th of June up to the present time the ADVOCATE drew $24.25 from the county for printing—this is certainly not very rich feed and on its face shows the hollowness of the ballyhoo of the Democrat and Record, two papers suffering from the same complaint—lack of pap. We have taken up more room in reply to the old political bumper than was our first intention, but in conclusion we desire to say that, if our record were as dirty and our presence as odious to decent and respectable people as is that of the incumbent old ass of the Democrat we would move elsewhere and live the balance of our life in obscurity.

TO MALLOY WE ONLY have this to say: You are the dirtiest blackguard, the meanest and most unscrupulous liar we have ever met; may the good Lord have mercy on your hardened soul. You need it—more, perhaps, than old Rauch, whose shoes would fit you most excellently well.

WHILE IN POTTSVILLE the other day we had the pleasure of meeting our young friend Harry G. Steels, of the Pottsville Republican—one of the brightest and brainiest newspaper men in the coal regions. Since he left Carbon county he has advanced rapidly in the newspaper field and is looked upon now as one of its brightest stars.

POLITICS ARE CERTAINLY becoming a very disagreeable affair in this county when a public officer can openly prostitute his office for the benefit of any man or set of men. The very latest, that comes on good authority, is that a director of the poor, is using the privileges of his office in behalf of the combination against George Esser. That is, he gives out orders for relief to those who signify a willingness to serve his purpose and those who have the manliness to object, must suffer. It is to be noted, the director should be impeached from office, for there was certainly never a more contemptible method of electioneering pursued in this county or elsewhere—a damnable course that should bring the direct consequences on the heads of those who are connected with it. It is this open prostitution of the will of the people that is rapidly threatening the overthrow of our free institutions. It should be stopped; it must be stopped, and the men at the head of the diabolical scheme should be exposed and held up to public contempt. Turn on the light!

"A LEHIGH COUNTY Judge last week rendered this decision which will, no doubt, interest many taxpayers: 'A taxpayer has a right under the law to work out his road taxes and the supervisors must give him a full opportunity to do so. But it is not for the taxpayer to say what kind of work he will do, nor to dictate the time and place when and where he will do it. Discretion in these matters is vested in the supervisors.'

THE BOWMAN FIGHT.

Decisions Analyzed in the Sets Already Reached by the Party.
Probably no church quarrel in history has brought about so much litigation in the civil courts as the Bowman and Anti-Bowman quarrel in the Evangelical denomination. In the last few months there have been no less than twenty-three decisions in many lawsuits on various phases of the quarrel. It appears from those that thus far the Bowman party have secured sixteen decisions, and the other side seven.

Following is a summary of the decisions thus far that have been in favor of the Bowman faction:
Chicago (Twelfth Street Church).—Injunction applied for by Anti-Bowmanites. Denied by Judge Horton.

Washington, Ill.—Application for injunction by Anti-Bowmanites. Denied by Judge Shaw.

Forreston, Ill.—Application for injunction by Bowmanites. Granted by Judge Cartright.

Roberts, Ill.—Injunction obtained by Anti-Bowmanites. On motion by Bowmanites to dissolve the injunction, Judge Bennett, of Bloomington, ordered that the injunction be vacated and both sides use the church as before.

Chicago, Thirty-fifth Street Church.—Judge Horton granted injunction restraining Anti-Bowmanites from depositing Bowman trustee.

Kankakee, Ill.—Thirteen Bowmanites indicted for preventing Bishop Dubs from speaking in church. Acquitted in a jury trial.

Aurora, Ill.—Injunction granted on application of Bowmanites.

St. Paul, Minn.—Four cases, the first and third being begun by Anti-Bowmanites and the second and fourth by Bowmanites. The injunctions applied for by the Anti-Bowmanites were denied, while those asked by the Bowmanites were granted. These cases were based on the validity of the trial of Bishop Escher.

Other Creek, Iowa.—Preliminary injunction obtained by Bowmanites made perpetual by Judge Preston, and Bishop Bowman's trial declared null and void.

Sioux City, Iowa.—Injunction applied for by Bowmanites granted and made perpetual by Judge Ladd.

Stanton, Iowa.—Perpetual injunction granted against Anti-Bowmanites.

Beaver Crossing, Neb.—Injunction obtained by Anti-Bowmanites was dissolved on final hearing and the Anti-Bowmanite conference declared illegal.

Belleveue, Kan.—Injunction granted against Anti-Bowmanites.

In the following cases the Antis were successful:
Naperville, Ill.—Temporary injunction granted to Anti-Bowmanites.

Geneseo, Ill.—Temporary injunction granted to Anti-Bowmanites.

Ottawa, Ill.—Temporary injunction granted to Anti-Bowmanites.

Bangor, Pa.—Injunction granted to Anti-Bowmanites by Judge Schuyler. Case appealed to Supreme Court.

Reading, Pa.—St. Matthew's Chapel.—Injunction granted to Anti-Bowmanites by Judge Ermentrout.

Hagerstown, Md.—Bowmanite preacher compelled to vacate parsonage.

Cleveland, O.—Evangelical Association publishers enjoined from paying the salaries of Bishops Escher and Bowman.

Nearly all the suits have been over the possession of churches by the rival preachers of the two factions, and many of them are still in the course of litigation in the higher courts. There are, besides, many cases in Iowa, Oregon, and elsewhere which have not yet been decided in the lower or higher courts. It is a record of litigation that has seldom been equaled, and new cases are constantly being brought. In many instances the lawyers, fees and costs have been nearly if not fully equal to the whole amount of church property involved. Both sides are constantly raising money for legal expenses, and the fight is apparently more bitter than ever. When the rival conferences meet in October—that of the anti-Bowmanites in Philadelphia, and that of the Bowmanites in Indianapolis—a new crop of lawsuits is promised as a result of their action!

Chas. Longkammer Dead.
About nine o'clock Sunday morning last Charles Longkammer, for many years a foreman in the Lehigh Valley shops, Packerton, died at his home in that place, after an illness of about three weeks, resultant from a bullet wound in the left arm, near the shoulder, received in the battle of Fair Oaks, Va., on June 1st, 1862. Mr. L. was a member of Company G, 81st Regt., Pa. Vol. The wound was a bad one—shattering the bone and causing much trouble. The bone became diseased and mortification set in which was followed by blood poisoning and death.

Deceased was born in Wittelsbach, Koenigsberg, Prussia, Germany, on the 24th of June 1836. He came to America when 18 years of age and ever since has lived in this neighborhood. Interment was made in the Lehighton cemetery on Tuesday afternoon and was largely attended by relatives, friends and John D. Bertolotto Post, 484, G. A. R. of which he was a member. Rev. J. H. Kuder officiated.

A Man Kicks His Hat.
1. When he bows to a lady or an elderly gentleman.
2. When he is with a lady who knows any person, even if the other is a total stranger to him.
3. When he salutes a gentleman who is in the company of ladies.
4. When he is in the company of an older gentleman who bows to a lady.
5. When he is with a lady and meets a gentleman whom he knows.
6. When he offers any civility to a lady who is a stranger to him.
7. When he is with a lady after speaking to her, or after walking or driving with her, etc.
In the elevator, where there are ladies, men may keep on their hats with perfect propriety. None out of every ten do, with good and sufficient reason. Elevators are draughty places and to public conveniences, though within doors. Are the hats when a lady enters is becoming courteous, but this is very different from standing with the hat off while an elevator mounts to the thirteenth floor. A hat when not on the head is in the way in an elevator. It is embarrassing to the occupant to feel that they may unwittingly spoil a good hat by an unwary turn that knocks it in or makes havoc with the nap.—[The Correct Thing.

Restoring the Complexion.

Frequenter of the popular afternoon papers are remarking the extraordinary pains pretty girls who pour the antidote levermore use at to direct the impart of the ruddy cheeks or white rose and skin. It appears that some one has assured them that the warm, fragrant steam arising from the steaming leaves is most beneficial for softening and purifying the complexion. True, the heated vapor does bring a deep pink flush and causes disordered locks to curl tender like about fair foreheads, but these transient well-earned and laboring under a previous error when they imagine that this treatment beautifies the skin. It is harmful in the extreme, and unless the suffusion is immediately followed by a brisk towelling a chapped and roughened complexion will be the result. All through the orange growing country, where that exquisite fruit is eaten from the time its rind shows the faintest gilding, girls always peel the oranges at arm's length, being fully convinced, because some negro nursery maid told them so, that the pungent oil springing from the skin will leave a freckle wherever it touches.

YOUR SILVER DOLLAR.

How to Tell Whether It is Good or a Counterfeit.
The Treasury Department is worried by more than one first class counterfeit, if the statement of a Department clerk who is now visiting at his home in this city is true. Said he last night: "The new $2 silver certificate counterfeit is so dangerous only like the original bill that the entire issue may be called in as the best way out of the difficulty. The counterfeiters which cause the Treasury officials the most uneasiness are bogus bills; counterfeit coins ordinarily do not cause much trouble because the work is rarely well done, and the queer coin are quite easily detected and suppressed. But there is one bogus dollar in circulation that is so nearly like the genuine that it is causing considerable alarm. Thomas Carvallo, the Treasury expert who is said to be the best judge of money in the world, recently was sent to Birmingham, Ala., to testify as an expert in a counterfeiting case. In explaining to the jury the secret marks which the genuine silver dollar bears he said: 'The designer of the standard silver dollar, Mr. Morgan, stamped the initial of his name in two places on the coin. All genuine standard silver dollars bear one minute letter "M" stamped on the neck of the Goddess of Liberty just at the point where the longest lock of hair crosses the neck line, and another on the reverse side of the coin, on the left half of the loop of ribbon tied about the wreath.'

"Drawing from his pocket a handful of coins he left the witness stand and walked over to the jury box. 'If you will look at these dollars very carefully,' said he, 'you will observe the marks to which I have alluded.' He then distributed the dollars among the jurors and asked them to examine the coins. After studying awhile all but three of the jurors were able to make out the minute "M's." Then expert Carvallo smilingly volunteered to point out the secret initials to the three gentlemen whose eyes were not acute enough to detect them. Taking the three coins in his hand he glanced at them casually. A puzzled look overspread his features; he closely scrutinized the dollars, walking over to the window to get the benefit of a clearer light. Then he turned to the jury, and said: 'Gentlemen, these coins will illustrate the point I was attempting to impress upon you. They are counterfeit.' Just before entering the courtroom Mr. Carvallo stepped into a grocery and had a $20 bill changed into one to get enough dollars to pass among the jurors. Three of those coins were bogus.'—[Chicago Mail.
