JONATHAN KISTLER, of this city, who was honored with the nomination for sheriff at Monday's Democratic convention, is a man with hosts of friends all over the county and with little effort will poll a big vote.

THE NEW YORK WORLD has advanced the following reasons why a Congressman or Senator should not have vested in him the power of making or recommending the appointment of certain person or persons, to office under the goverment. We second the motion. Give every individual the same oppor

(1.) Because it is none of their business. Appointment to office is an excutive not a legislative function. (2.) Because office-brokerage by Conessman absorbs time and energy which should be given to preparation for and a proper discharge of their duties as Senators or Representatives the people in the most important legislative body in the world.

(3.) Because the custom leads to nep tism and favortism, which are abborrent in a republic, and tends to the demoralization both of politics and the public service. Mere office-brokers climb into Congress and clerks are not amenable to discipline when protected by powerful "influence."
