SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 12, 1801.

THE PERSISTENCY of Robert Kreider and voice his own opinions, has so ir pitated the incipient old ass and wor gied the dough boy of the Democrat Shat they fill a half column of vile adjectives in abuse of the young man. Robert Kreider is a young man and holds a responsible position with the Valley Company, so it is a safe conelusion that he stands better in the community that either or both of the above referred to popinjays.

A CORPORATION THAT vindictively pursuce men after they have once left their employ is unworthy and the state should revoke their charter. The pursuit of wealth and happiness is a constitutional and insleinable privilege that should not and must not be infringed upon either by corporation, private firm or individual. The laborer is worthy of his hire, and imic thinks that he is not being equitably remunerated for his labors in the employ of one party he has the right to quit and seek elsewhere for employment that will return him a satisfactory dividend, and the corporation, firm or individual who will interfere with the man in his effort to maintain his independenc and at the same time better his coud! tien is on a level only with the coward and tyrant and meriting only the contempt of honest, inwabiding citizens. The fullest freedom compatible with good government makes a thoroughly strong effort to win against the combined opposition of such men as Cassidy, ure is becoming very clearly defined. There is one safe thing, however, those people who want ballot reform, the meet, conscientious and intelligent weter, will vote and labor for the much needed panaces in our system of voting, and those who do not, and they stripes will proudly float from the new brick school house in Franklin townstal demagging and pharisee, of course will vote egainst the measure designed U. The fact that the Government has recently suppressed a pamphlate antitled, "Give us bread, Emporer, and that suicides through want are taking place with appalling frequency, shows that the position of the laboring classes is getting desperate. From these figures the intel. cautionesy notices in newspapers, are ligent voters in the county can very of little account, and that they may be state of affairs. There is no necessity mistake, as the law makes it an act of state of affairs. There is no necessity for argument, the figures tell the story. The people can't be longer deceived by blow and bluster—the opposition must pursue other methods or scorn go to pleces, as the aw makes it an act of the control of a respectable young man of Mauch Cut these figures out and keep them upon land so guarded is liable to pay not only the actual damages but also a penalty not exceeding $25. If, however, the owner wishes to avail himself of the provisions of the law he must make his sign-board comply with its requirements. There must be at least one sign-board, not less than a foot square to every fifty acres of land, upon the lot lines, upon the shores or banks of the lake, stream or pond, which it is intended to protect, or in a conspicuous place upon the grounds to be so protected. Any person who defaces or destroys such a sign board is guilty of a misdemeanor, and liable to a penalty of $25.
