Going at the speed of 10 knots, with quite strong winds, the Formidable found no difficulty in towing the balloon with nearly 200 feet of line. To finally demonstrate this fact the balloon was made fast to a torpedo boat that towed it with perfect case with 200 feet of ropo for two hours, in which time 21 miles were made.

This is as far as captive balloon experiments on board ship have been carried. There are many uses for balloons at sea if templated suicide. Then M.
