There is in Detroit an equine thorough-red which is pronounced not only the handsomest, but one of the largest horses in existence. He is in truth a giant, and the veriest novico in horseflesh could not but view his size and beauty without a certain feeling of awe. This colosal animal is 5 years old and is 21 hands high, weighing 2,355 pounds. An ordi-nary sized man cuts but a small figure beside him. He is a dark chestnut in color, with superb mane and tail. He is owned by Richard Tregaskis, and can trot in four minutes. It seems a pity that there will be none of his progeny. He was imported from France by a Kontucky horse breeder, who paid $5,000 for him. When put in the stud the animal became a verifable field. He would kick and bits on the slightest provocation, and no one could do anything with him. He soon killed one attendant and a short time after an-obser man fell a victim to the vicious brute. The death of these two men caused the owner to change the animal into a gehling, and with good effect, his
