If there is any truth whatever in the appended paragraph, it might be a very good thing to put it into practise in this county, and perhaps it would have the tendency to break up the practice of sending, patty, nonsensical cases to court at the expresse of the county; "A Northampton county jury on Tuesday rendered a novel verdiet.

The stantest and most despicable thing a man can do is to refuse to take his paper out of the post office. If you don't want a newspaper after your time has expired write and tell the publisher so and he'll stop it, providing it is paid for up to date. Be manly, it is no disgrace to discontinus a paper and you have no need to be adamed of it. Some have no need to be adamsed of it. Some of you follows who don't do it. Iry this and see if you won't feel more manly afterwards.
