The Carbon Advocate SATURDAY JANUARY 9, 1902.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Graver happily celebrate their Golden Wedding.

The old Graver homestead in south Lehighton was the scene of a happy, never-to-be-forgotten event last Sunday, the occasion of the fiftieth anniversary celebration of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Graver.

These present on the occasion were Rev. E. A. Bauer, Rev. A. Alvin Fisher and wife, Rev. Abraham Bartholomew and wife, Mayor R. J. Kuntz and wife, Daniel Graver and wife, Wm. Rox and wife, Samuel Gilliam and wife, Samuel Seltzer, wife and daughter, Miss Emma, Josiah Metzler and wife, Andrew Graver and wife, Lewis Wehr and wife, T. D. Thomas and wife, Clinton Herdt and wife, A. J. Graver, L. F. Graver and wife, Charles Daxander and wife, Mrs. Kate Lauchner, Miss Little, Richard, Miss Fietta Kemmer and the Misses Beck.

During the afternoon a sumptuous repast was served to the guests who enjoyed the appetizing viands as was evident from the way in which they lingered over the banquet which crowned under the weight of good things from the culinary department of the old home-stead, always famous for its hospitality.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Graver were presented with the following anniversary gifts from members of the family only silver tea service, Miss Alvina Graver, silver fruit dish and cake stand, Mrs. Lewis Wehr, china dinner set, Mrs. T. D. Thomas, plush rocker, Mrs. Samuel Seltzer, plush rocker, Henry Graver, plush rocker, Mrs. Graver, plush rocker.

Underwear Factory in Southington. J. Pink Thompson has offered to put up an underwear knitting mill at Southington. His proposition is that he will put in a plant valued at $3,500 - the home parties to furnish a building and advance him $250. On his part he will give security for the $250, and pledges himself to show, after the mill is properly started, that a net profit of 12 per cent. on $5,000 can be made from the business. Thompson built our mill.

Something New in Relation to Knives. Every housekeeper knows only too well the difficulty of obtaining a serviceable, successful knife. In fact, the bread is the least newly baked - still warm and soft - the ordinary bread knife will not cut the bread to the fact, the ordinary knife is a failure, and will not cut bread successfully until the bread begins to dry out or become stale.

The Christy brand knife will slice the warmest and also the coldest, this slice as bread can ever be cut. It does the work smoothly and neatly and easily. It is the only knife that is made and satisfactory bread knife in the market.
