

Wood and Willow Ware.

In this line we are showing many things not usually found elsewhere.

- 2 Hoop Oak Stained Pails, 3 Hoop Oak Stained Pails, 2 Hoop Oak Stained Pails, 2 Hoop Oak Stained Pails.

These Wash Basins, 2 Hoop Oak Stained Pails, 2 Hoop Oak Stained Pails, 2 Hoop Oak Stained Pails.

Large, Medium and Small Cedar Tubs, Six different styles of Wash Basins.

Large variety of other Brooms, Dusters, Brushes, Stove Brushes, Window Brushes.

Large variety of other Brooms, Dusters, Brushes, Stove Brushes, Window Brushes.

J. T. NUSBAUM.

First Street, between Ross and First Streets, Lehighton, Pa.

The Carbon Advocate

SATURDAY, MARCH 26, 1902.

COURT WILL SETTLE IT.

Who Pays for First Street to be levelled by the Carbon Co.?

Sheriff Joseph S. Webb, of Mauch Chunk, Monday served writs of fieri facias on James Rex, Mrs. Annie Balliet and Stephen Kreiderweles.

During December of last year liens were filed on the properties of all those on First street who refused to pay a one-third share of the cost of macadamizing said thoroughfare.

The refusal of the property holders on First street to pay their share toward the improvement put the affairs of the borough in a strained condition.

The refusal of the property holders on First street to pay their share toward the improvement put the affairs of the borough in a strained condition.

The refusal of the property holders on First street to pay their share toward the improvement put the affairs of the borough in a strained condition.

The refusal of the property holders on First street to pay their share toward the improvement put the affairs of the borough in a strained condition.

The refusal of the property holders on First street to pay their share toward the improvement put the affairs of the borough in a strained condition.

The refusal of the property holders on First street to pay their share toward the improvement put the affairs of the borough in a strained condition.

The refusal of the property holders on First street to pay their share toward the improvement put the affairs of the borough in a strained condition.

The refusal of the property holders on First street to pay their share toward the improvement put the affairs of the borough in a strained condition.

The refusal of the property holders on First street to pay their share toward the improvement put the affairs of the borough in a strained condition.

The refusal of the property holders on First street to pay their share toward the improvement put the affairs of the borough in a strained condition.

The refusal of the property holders on First street to pay their share toward the improvement put the affairs of the borough in a strained condition.

The refusal of the property holders on First street to pay their share toward the improvement put the affairs of the borough in a strained condition.

The refusal of the property holders on First street to pay their share toward the improvement put the affairs of the borough in a strained condition.

The refusal of the property holders on First street to pay their share toward the improvement put the affairs of the borough in a strained condition.

The refusal of the property holders on First street to pay their share toward the improvement put the affairs of the borough in a strained condition.

The refusal of the property holders on First street to pay their share toward the improvement put the affairs of the borough in a strained condition.

The refusal of the property holders on First street to pay their share toward the improvement put the affairs of the borough in a strained condition.

The refusal of the property holders on First street to pay their share toward the improvement put the affairs of the borough in a strained condition.

The refusal of the property holders on First street to pay their share toward the improvement put the affairs of the borough in a strained condition.

The refusal of the property holders on First street to pay their share toward the improvement put the affairs of the borough in a strained condition.

OLD MOTHER CRUMD.

Bright and breezy December table the through lines.

Go to Miller's for an easy riding rig at low rates.

Mrs. John Eichen, of Lehighton, continues quite seriously ill.

Full line of Ingrain and broad cuttings at Henry Schwan's.

F. S. Koch, the tobacconist, and Dr. F. I. Smith have swapped horses.

A new and pretty line of cloaks at Book's very cheap.

Engineer Ben Bartolotta is out again after an illness of three weeks.

Now effects in jewelry at lowest prices at Book's.

Public Sale—on Saturday, 26th, on the premises First street, at seven o'clock p. m. Dr. F. I. Smith, will sell a lot of valuable household goods.

This is a new opportunity for bargains. The only place in Lehighton where you can see a fine line of Boys and Children's suits in all H. H. Peters.

H. H. Peters makes a specialty of boys and children's suits, largest assortment in Lehighton to select from.

Free! Free! Free! 3000 good street cars to be used in the construction of the Carbon County Electric Railway.

M. T. Thomas, of Allentown, has purchased the pool table in John Eichen's restaurant under the Opera House, and John has closed up shop.

Ladies and Misses Spring Jackets in the latest styles at the O. P. S. C. Hall, Mauch Chunk.

Mrs. Susan McCullough, a daughter of Mrs. James Garrahan, of Beaver Meadow, died at Providence, Rhode Island, last week.

Genie O. A. E. Sims are sold at Sonheim's Tallowing Hall, Mauch Chunk, at 8:00, 8:30, 9:00 and 9:30.

Saturday William Billman, of Summit Hill, and Miss Mary Soule, of Franklin township, were united in the golden bonds of wedlock by Rev. W. H. Strauss, of this city.

300 Styles of Boys' Suits double or single breasted from $2.00 up to $10.00, at the O. P. S. C. Hall, Mauch Chunk.

We are pleased to see Dr. J. G. Zern on the streets again attending to the duties of his profession, after a long and serious illness.

Joe Gumbert, of Fourth street, fell from the roof to the porch of Oliver Chans' dwelling the other day and escaped with slight injuries.

Confirmation sittings in regard to made to your order, at a saving of 30 cents at Sonheim's, O. P. S. C. Mauch Chunk.

Genial Bob Hitting the plumber, who has been running a big car on the back of his neck for some days, on Monday had his fingers badly lacerated while handling a water pipe.

Miss A. Graver, the popular milliner on First Street, has a new announcement to-day's ADVOCATE. Her assortment of millinery expert surpasses all previous displays.

For Sale—The undersigned has a number of dwellings and lots, situated in Lehighton and Jameson, which he can sell at very reasonable terms, also a few houses to rent to good tenants.

John Kresge will again move over to Lehigh avenue, his present dwelling will soon be torn down to make room for another building.

Erwin Dotter moved to Long Run Tuesday. Your letter for Packerton.

A new society to be known as the German Leihkrantz, or Singsong, has been organized in this place, the following have been elected officers.

The Palmer Base Ball Club will recognize for the coming season with the following players: Catcher, Wm. E. Shaffer; pitcher, Thom. Conover; Infield, Dolan, Joe, Herman; Outfield, 2nd base, Joe N. Bennett, s. s. Bert Klutz; 3rd base, Chas. Yohr, f. Ed. Kneib; c. f. George Sandherr, f. f. This club is composed of very reliable material, therefore their efforts should be appreciated by the patrons of our national sport.

Miss Ida Kern is seriously ill.

Harvey Pifer Sundayed with Lehighton friends.

William's shoe-making establishment is now located in Lary's barber shop.

Miss Mary Pifer visited Lehighton folks over Sunday.

IN A FEW WORDS.

A lively writer tells the story of the Burroughs of a Week in and About Old Lehigh.

13th loaded rail cars passed over the Lehigh Valley railroad east of Packer-ton on Monday. The tonnage on Tuesday was 22,000 tons.

Joseph Boyer, an Allentown tanner, is dead at 60 years.

Samuel Haelem, of Weatherly, has been discharged from the St. Luke's Hospital at Bethlehem, and will return home to-day.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Weiss, of East Mauch Chunk, visited their parents and friends here yesterday.

The Rev. A. A. Bresser, rector of St. John's Church, East Mauch Chunk, preached last evening at Grace Church, Next Sunday Bishop Bullion will make his annual visitation to the parish.

A class will be presented for confirmation—Allentown, Pa.

J. C. Hayden & Co. will enlarge their striping at Jamesville. A new steam shovel will shortly be placed in position. About 11,000 cubic yards of clay will be stripped monthly. A large force of men will be employed.

The colliers in and around Jamesville only work four days next week.

James Beutz, of Weatherly, employed in the machine shops is nursing a couple of smashed fingers.

H. H. Bensch, of the Mauch Chunk Democrat, has been appointed a member of the Democratic State Committee.

Engine 206 on the Jersey Central, George Horn, of East Mauch Chunk, on Tuesday night at Summit Hill, was home Thursday, and left the following morning for New York City, where he has a lucrative position in a large cigar manufactory.

A popular young man in town to-day from the country seat of a pleasant visit to relatives here. He will reside till April 1st, when he will enter in the employ of John T. Klotz, at Brodheadville.

Amatus Wagner, teacher of George's school, reports the whole number of attendances during the month—mids 13, female 13, total 26. The per cent of attendance during the month was 90 per cent.

George M. Henry, accompanied by Miss Alice Green, were at Allentown on Saturday for the purpose of having the latter's teeth extracted. The dentist was Mr. Balshaw.

C. W. Helm, traveling salesman for the firm of Bittner, Hunsicker & Co., of Allentown, made his regular trip through this section on Monday last.

Stanley Boyer, of this city, is present visiting in this section. The grand of his father, Andrew Boyer.

Levi Boyer, of near this place, informs us that he has a parrot that has a tail, when it is spread out, ten feet in length. Last summer one of his tail feathers was extracted just for beauty, and when measured, it was found to be five feet in length. This is a fact, anybody can see the bird by calling upon Mr. Boyer.

On Saturday evening last a delightful party of Millport visited our genial landlord, Mr. John Eckhart; they all had a jolly time, and kept it up to quarter to twelve. The party consisted of the following: Messrs. E. H. Mooney, Moses Boyer, Wesley McPherson, Wilson Wagner, Dr. J. Conroy, and John Strohl, Misses Cora Blass, Lillie Scott, Lillie Strohl, Mrs. Dr. Loran and Mrs. Ephraim Strohl.

Paul Herless, who is living between this place and Millport, reports that he has trapped during the season the following: 27 skunks, 1 opossum, 2 rabbits, 6 weasels, 2 muskrat, 1 groundhog, 6 white mice, 3 chipmunk, 1 yellow, 1 pheasant, 1 turtle and 1 house cat. Paul is acknowledged one of the champion trappers in our district. If anybody can beat him he would like to hear of the fact. Every one, Paul, you will get there by and by.

A delightful party, a very delightful party, in honor of Miss Lizzie Hill, one of Lehighton's accomplished young ladies, was held at the home of Tighman Hill, on Second street, Saturday evening.

The usual pleasant games and amusements were indulged in until a late hour when a defensible report was made in a very tempting and appetizing manner.

Among those present were: Grace Hill, Mrs. Lillian W. Hill, Mrs. M. J. Hill, Mrs. O. Hill, Mrs. M. Hill, Mrs. S. Hill, Mrs. T. Hill, Mrs. U. Hill, Mrs. V. Hill, Mrs. W. Hill, Mrs. X. Hill, Mrs. Y. Hill, Mrs. Z. Hill.

BASE BALL GOSPEL.

Local Base Ball Matters are Beginning to Fall on Some Folks.

Base ball is receiving considerable attention in this city and a club may possibly soon be organized. If some good man would take hold of the matter there would be no trouble. Some names mentioned are G. H. M. Stocker, T. W. Claus, John Kutz, Griff, Mank and Bob Chambers. Who will be the first to make a bid?

Mauch Chunk has a Public Building.

By the bill which provides for the creation of public buildings in towns where the post office receipts have exceeded $500 and in cities where they have exceeded $1000, Mauch Chunk is one of the places that will be thus favored as Statesman, Mauch Chunk and Doylestown.

It cost him $67.

Abraham Wolf, of Mahoning street, is the teacher of Butler's School in New Mahoning. The other day he inflicted corporal punishment on a child of Charles Haupt and Monday evening the matter was brought up in court. The case was argued by the goodly weighed the evidence and Abraham settled by winning $67.

John Brubaker, of Lehighton, a workman on engine No. 18, on the Great Road, had both legs cut off near that place on Saturday afternoon. While walking over the train the doors of the car opened and he dropped down under the train. He was on engine No. 18, which was pulling east from breaker No. 9. He is a single man, aged about 30 years.

There will be a meeting of the members of the Carbon County Democratic Committee at the office of the Chairman, James H. Brown, on Saturday, March 29th, 1902, for the purpose of electing a delegate to State Convention in place of Lehighton, deceased.

PEOPLE ON THE GO.

Black Figures of Tallowing Road Crossing and Going.

Ed. Jones was at Mauch Chunk on Tuesday.

Sheriff Webb, of the County Seat, was in town to-day serving jury notices.

Al Fuhro and wife have returned to Phoenixville after a pleasant visit here.

Mrs. Samuel Schneck and daughter Helen of Allentown are visiting Samuel Graver on north First street.

Mr. Cook, the pleasant and agreeable manager of Rex's Bon Marche, Mauch Chunk, was in town Monday, for a few hours.

Misses Katie R. Kemmerer and Rosa Gilbert returned, Sunday, from a pleasant visit to friends in West Penn, Schuylkill county.

Mrs. Alex Arney is sojourning with friends at Beranton.

Mrs. Grant Goss, of north First street, is visiting relatives and friends at Lebanon, Pa.

Miss Laura Bata, of Allentown, returned home Tuesday after a pleasant visit to relatives here.

Miss. Gertie Cunningham, of Allentown, is visiting Charles Weiss, on Second street.

Wentale Sunkin, who lives in a long in the Arion Court Band, was at home last Saturday.

Harry E. Deatinger, of Pottsville, was home Tuesday, and left the following morning for New York City, where he has a lucrative position in a large cigar manufactory.

A popular young man in town to-day from the country seat of a pleasant visit to relatives here. He will reside till April 1st, when he will enter in the employ of John T. Klotz, at Brodheadville.

Amatus Wagner, teacher of George's school, reports the whole number of attendances during the month—mids 13, female 13, total 26. The per cent of attendance during the month was 90 per cent.

George M. Henry, accompanied by Miss Alice Green, were at Allentown on Saturday for the purpose of having the latter's teeth extracted. The dentist was Mr. Balshaw.

C. W. Helm, traveling salesman for the firm of Bittner, Hunsicker & Co., of Allentown, made his regular trip through this section on Monday last.

Stanley Boyer, of this city, is present visiting in this section. The grand of his father, Andrew Boyer.

Levi Boyer, of near this place, informs us that he has a parrot that has a tail, when it is spread out, ten feet in length. Last summer one of his tail feathers was extracted just for beauty, and when measured, it was found to be five feet in length. This is a fact, anybody can see the bird by calling upon Mr. Boyer.

On Saturday evening last a delightful party of Millport visited our genial landlord, Mr. John Eckhart; they all had a jolly time, and kept it up to quarter to twelve. The party consisted of the following: Messrs. E. H. Mooney, Moses Boyer, Wesley McPherson, Wilson Wagner, Dr. J. Conroy, and John Strohl, Misses Cora Blass, Lillie Scott, Lillie Strohl, Mrs. Dr. Loran and Mrs. Ephraim Strohl.

Paul Herless, who is living between this place and Millport, reports that he has trapped during the season the following: 27 skunks, 1 opossum, 2 rabbits, 6 weasels, 2 muskrat, 1 groundhog, 6 white mice, 3 chipmunk, 1 yellow, 1 pheasant, 1 turtle and 1 house cat. Paul is acknowledged one of the champion trappers in our district. If anybody can beat him he would like to hear of the fact. Every one, Paul, you will get there by and by.

A delightful party, a very delightful party, in honor of Miss Lizzie Hill, one of Lehighton's accomplished young ladies, was held at the home of Tighman Hill, on Second street, Saturday evening.

The usual pleasant games and amusements were indulged in until a late hour when a defensible report was made in a very tempting and appetizing manner.

Among those present were: Grace Hill, Mrs. Lillian W. Hill, Mrs. M. J. Hill, Mrs. O. Hill, Mrs. M. Hill, Mrs. S. Hill, Mrs. T. Hill, Mrs. U. Hill, Mrs. V. Hill, Mrs. W. Hill, Mrs. X. Hill, Mrs. Y. Hill, Mrs. Z. Hill.

BASE BALL GOSPEL.

Local Base Ball Matters are Beginning to Fall on Some Folks.

Base ball is receiving considerable attention in this city and a club may possibly soon be organized. If some good man would take hold of the matter there would be no trouble. Some names mentioned are G. H. M. Stocker, T. W. Claus, John Kutz, Griff, Mank and Bob Chambers. Who will be the first to make a bid?

Mauch Chunk has a Public Building.

By the bill which provides for the creation of public buildings in towns where the post office receipts have exceeded $500 and in cities where they have exceeded $1000, Mauch Chunk is one of the places that will be thus favored as Statesman, Mauch Chunk and Doylestown.

It cost him $67.

Abraham Wolf, of Mahoning street, is the teacher of Butler's School in New Mahoning. The other day he inflicted corporal punishment on a child of Charles Haupt and Monday evening the matter was brought up in court. The case was argued by the goodly weighed the evidence and Abraham settled by winning $67.

John Brubaker, of Lehighton, a workman on engine No. 18, on the Great Road, had both legs cut off near that place on Saturday afternoon. While walking over the train the doors of the car opened and he dropped down under the train. He was on engine No. 18, which was pulling east from breaker No. 9. He is a single man, aged about 30 years.

LITTLE GAS.

A Lively Community Briefly Sketched by a Single Paragraph.

Frank Wagner, of this place, was visiting relatives and friends at Philadelphia last week.

One more month and then the public schools in our township will close a six month term.

William Henry, of Danville, on Sunday last gave Miss Diana Rankle, of this place, a splendid gift.

If every man was as big as he feels, there wouldn't be standing room in this country.

George A. Henry, formerly of this place, now of Danville, was accompanied by Alfred Henry, were visiting in this section over Sunday.

The professional thief is sometimes called a bird-of-prey, and yet he's only a robbing.

Mrs. Samuel George, of this place, was visiting relatives and friends at Catawissa and Bethlehem during last week.

Theodore Pitye, who was the chief number of attendances during the month—mids 13, female 13, total 26. The per cent of attendance during the month was 90 per cent.

George M. Henry, accompanied by Miss Alice Green, were at Allentown on Saturday for the purpose of having the latter's teeth extracted. The dentist was Mr. Balshaw.

C. W. Helm, traveling salesman for the firm of Bittner, Hunsicker & Co., of Allentown, made his regular trip through this section on Monday last.

Stanley Boyer, of this city, is present visiting in this section. The grand of his father, Andrew Boyer.

Levi Boyer, of near this place, informs us that he has a parrot that has a tail, when it is spread out, ten feet in length. Last summer one of his tail feathers was extracted just for beauty, and when measured, it was found to be five feet in length. This is a fact, anybody can see the bird by calling upon Mr. Boyer.

On Saturday evening last a delightful party of Millport visited our genial landlord, Mr. John Eckhart; they all had a jolly time, and kept it up to quarter to twelve. The party consisted of the following: Messrs. E. H. Mooney, Moses Boyer, Wesley McPherson, Wilson Wagner, Dr. J. Conroy, and John Strohl, Misses Cora Blass, Lillie Scott, Lillie Strohl, Mrs. Dr. Loran and Mrs. Ephraim Strohl.

Paul Herless, who is living between this place and Millport, reports that he has trapped during the season the following: 27 skunks, 1 opossum, 2 rabbits, 6 weasels, 2 muskrat, 1 groundhog, 6 white mice, 3 chipmunk, 1 yellow, 1 pheasant, 1 turtle and 1 house cat. Paul is acknowledged one of the champion trappers in our district. If anybody can beat him he would like to hear of the fact. Every one, Paul, you will get there by and by.

A delightful party, a very delightful party, in honor of Miss Lizzie Hill, one of Lehighton's accomplished young ladies, was held at the home of Tighman Hill, on Second street, Saturday evening.

The usual pleasant games and amusements were indulged in until a late hour when a defensible report was made in a very tempting and appetizing manner.

Among those present were: Grace Hill, Mrs. Lillian W. Hill, Mrs. M. J. Hill, Mrs. O. Hill, Mrs. M. Hill, Mrs. S. Hill, Mrs. T. Hill, Mrs. U. Hill, Mrs. V. Hill, Mrs. W. Hill, Mrs. X. Hill, Mrs. Y. Hill, Mrs. Z. Hill.

BASE BALL GOSPEL.

Local Base Ball Matters are Beginning to Fall on Some Folks.

Base ball is receiving considerable attention in this city and a club may possibly soon be organized. If some good man would take hold of the matter there would be no trouble. Some names mentioned are G. H. M. Stocker, T. W. Claus, John Kutz, Griff, Mank and Bob Chambers. Who will be the first to make a bid?

Mauch Chunk has a Public Building.

By the bill which provides for the creation of public buildings in towns where the post office receipts have exceeded $500 and in cities where they have exceeded $1000, Mauch Chunk is one of the places that will be thus favored as Statesman, Mauch Chunk and Doylestown.

It cost him $67.

Abraham Wolf, of Mahoning street, is the teacher of Butler's School in New Mahoning. The other day he inflicted corporal punishment on a child of Charles Haupt and Monday evening the matter was brought up in court. The case was argued by the goodly weighed the evidence and Abraham settled by winning $67.

John Brubaker, of Lehighton, a workman on engine No. 18, on the Great Road, had both legs cut off near that place on Saturday afternoon. While walking over the train the doors of the car opened and he dropped down under the train. He was on engine No. 18, which was pulling east from breaker No. 9. He is a single man, aged about 30 years.

NEWSY WEISSPORT.

The Editor of a Local Newspaper writes to the Editor of the Carbon County Advocate.

Miss's family is in a very happy mood.

Joseph Hahn, of Pottsville, will soon become a Union Hill resident.

Business is very quiet—the short work at the terminus stagnating everything.

Miss Mary Levan, of Mauch Chunk, is sojourning with relatives and friends on Carbon Hill.

Reformation, the East Weissport show man, has had the interior of his store remodelled.

The estate of the late Mary Miner, deceased, will be sold on Saturday, April 2nd, by the executor, Austin Boyer.

Notice—5000 fence posts for sale. Also lot of fire wood at a low figure. See George H. Enzian, Weissport. Orders can be left at his office.

Don't Arise! all smiles when we looked in on him today, and no wonder, for he has one of the finest suits in the town on. In two or three towns for that matter, since A. Goth has repeated and repeated it.

For Rent—Bauer's Hill, East Weissport. Well-fenced, all conveniences, lighted with electricity. Open evenings—Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, Saturday. Terms reasonable apply to O. J. Snager.

We regret very much to note the death of Miss Blanche, the eleven year old daughter of Mr. & Mrs. A. Heist, of Union Hill, who died Tuesday evening at seven o'clock after an illness of some time with typhoid fever.

Public Sale—On the premises in Franklin, on the 25th, various harness and farming implements, property of the late George Lapp, deceased. P. J. Kehler, administrator, will sell at public sale on one time Sheriff of Lehigh County, will be at the Port Allen House, Thursday of each week to attend to all parties desiring his professional services. The doctor formerly had a branch office at Lehighton and had a good business in tanning of hides and skins.

Mrs. P. A. Seif, of Union Hill, is on a visit to Danville friends.

Miss Lillie Graver has returned to Williamsport after a pleasant visit here.

George Rock, of Lehighton, is doing a flourishing business in this neighborhood in tanning of hides and skins.

The funeral of Blanche, daughter of A. Heist, will take place on Saturday afternoon, April 1st. Rev. J. Heist will officiate.

Minnie, the sixteen year old daughter of Constantine Heppner, formerly of Lehighton, died on Wednesday afternoon after an illness of some weeks with diphtheria. This is the first death in the family within a period less than two months. The family have the sympathy of the whole neighborhood in their bereavement.

A very delightful party, in honor of Miss Lizzie Hill, one of Lehighton's accomplished young ladies, was held at the home of Tighman Hill, on Second street, Saturday evening.

The usual pleasant games and amusements were indulged in until a late hour when a defensible report was made in a very tempting and appetizing manner.

Among those present were: Grace Hill, Mrs. Lillian W. Hill, Mrs. M. J. Hill, Mrs. O. Hill, Mrs. M. Hill, Mrs. S. Hill, Mrs. T. Hill, Mrs. U. Hill, Mrs. V. Hill, Mrs. W. Hill, Mrs. X. Hill, Mrs. Y. Hill, Mrs. Z. Hill.

BASE BALL GOSPEL.