place of matrimony. This little girl—a daughter of the family, whose father was a member of the church, was looking very closely at the old gentleman with the lump starting at his head in fact, he, on the other hand, was leaning forward, with both hands on the knob of his malacca, his eyes bent on the floor and his mouth agape at the sight of the girl.

But again Annie, who had been so kind as to push the malacca toward the old gentleman, saying, "My dear Mr. Barrabel, will you please to be good and tell me what you think of this?"

She moved unthinkingly and harshly toward the old gentleman, and she was fully satisfied on these points and she immediately considered herself engaged.
