The horrible railroad accident at Mauch Chunk, a station of the Lehigh Valley Railroad, which occurred October 10, 1888, and in which sixty-seven persons lost their lives, is recalled by a verdict of a jury in the case of Michael Walsh, of Pleasant Valley. Mr. Walsh was one of the thousands of victims who came to Mauch Chunk to participate in a celebration in honor of the great apostle of temperance, Father Matthew. He was one of the victims on the inflated train which was bearing the excursionists to their homes, and the long delayed verdict for the injuries he received and the inconvenience resulting therefrom will be but a trifling recompense. The verdict was for $550.
