CATAWAGUA WINE.

An Easy Victory Over the Jeannette Aggression.

A large crowd witnessed the first game of base ball of the season at Catawaga on Saturday afternoon.

The occasion with a few selections. The early part of the contest was very exciting but towards the end the crowd became discontented.

Our popular young townsmen, Will Oberst and Frankman looked just as beautiful Saturday while on a pleasurable excursion to Pine Run.

Trinity Lutheran and Zion's Reformed churches are the only ones of our six places of worship that have held.

Frank Weiland has just finished decorating several rooms in Charles Weiler's residence on north Second street.

Will Hoffer, John Hummel and Samuel Gilliam are the only ones of our six places of worship that have held.

Dr. J. B. Danzer, the well-known eye, ear and nose specialist, of Hazleton, Pa., has been in town.

David Roberts' team—like Henry Nicholas'—is very bright. The young fellow who wants to make a lasting impression on his sweetheart always hires teams from the Jovial Jock.

On the 15th of May it will be just ten years that Rev. J. H. Kuder has been the pastor of the large congregation of Trinity Lutheran church.

The girl who didn't have an Easter bonnet found just as many admirers as the girl who had one.

Ed. Christian has just finished building the back annex to Trinity Lutheran church, of this city, and also a new dwelling house at East Main street.

Did you see the magnificent line of fine gold watches at E. H. Hohl's, Mauch Chunk, Pa.?

Twenty engines marked "Chicago Northside Rapid Transit Company" billed for Chicago, and to be used on that city's underground railway.

The attention of owners of horses and cattle is directed to the advertisement of Dr. J. A. Hans, veterinary surgeon, who has his office at East Main street, in this city.

Don't miss the opportunity. Got E. H. Hohl's latest reduced prices on watches.

O. A. Wuest, an employee in Fred Horcher's bottling establishment on Broadway, last Friday night, was severely injured.

It is a fact, Luckenbach, Mauch Chunk, is showing new and pretty things in fine watches and jewelry.

The Christian Endeavor Society composed with the Presbyterian church, Weatherly, held their second anniversary and commemorative meeting Wednesday evening.
