BLAINE HAS MADE HIS LAST DENIAL. The Cincinnati Enquirer printed Sunday morning the following despatch from its Washington correspon dent which, in alew of the warm social relations between Mr. Blains and Mr. John R. steLsan, may be considered wignificant:

significant:

Washington, May 21.—The convention to be held in Minnonpolia on the 7th day of next June will nominate James G. Hiaine for the office of President of the United States.

This information is given in advance because the mission of the Enquirer is to print the news. It is not based on street goessip or curristone conference. It is a living, indisputable fact.

Ever since the name of Blaine has been connected with this numination, it ratification required only his assent, Up to within forty-sight hours ago this was withheld. It is no longer withheld. The situation has reached the crists. Mr. Blaine has apoken to this extent "I will do nothing to prevent my nomination. I have made my inst denial."

And I can say likewise, that if nominated, Mr. Binine will make the cace. He realizes that the Republican party will peed its best effort to win the election.
