MEMBERS or the Grand Army of the Republic are looking forward with eagerness to the coming national on campment which will be held at Washington in September. It is expected that it will be the greatest reunion of veterans held since the close of the war. It is thought that 100,000 people war. It is thought that 100,000 people | Pah will visit Washington, many of whom have not been there since the war, and at least 60,000 of those will be buttle worn veterans who will fall into line and march past the grand stand and be reviewed by the president. The spectacle will probably almost match n interest the grand review of the armies of the union which was held in the national capital at the close of the rebellion. The posts in Pennsylvania are making preparations to have this ented in a manner worthy of its part in the great struggle.

THE CARBON ADVOCATE all along pre dicted that harmonious unity would come out of Democratic discord. There as nothing whatever to be gained by factional fighting and the rank and Ginley file forced the leaders to a unity that has all the indications of perfect harmony.
