Brooklyn is becoming quite a town for parks, and the taxpayers have never been known in recent years to object to having their money spent for such purhaving their mansy spent for such pur-poses. There was a great outery thirty-five years ago, when the laying out of Prospect park was suggested, but no-body now worries because the project was carried through. The city made a very profitable bargain in buying the 518 1-6 acres contained in that park and paying only 43,918,378,70 for them. Since then the city has corrected 25,348,898,83

Another important point is to avoid too wide a column or the eye is strained.

the only way to heutralize the tendency to such strain is to turn the head from side to side, after the manner of short-sighted people.
