The aditorial saying that Mr. Biery had passes in event of his election is -uilly that it scarcely needs notice an is designed to catch railroad vot-Mr. Biery has not promised passes t anyons. If elected he will go to Harris burg and be the servant of the peopland not of one or two coal operator and bankers. Mr. Biery can be depended on to labor against all measure that are of a corporation or monopo-tic character and particularity again any all bills that might be introduced to legalize the Reading Railroad deal Mr. Bisry is pronounced in his view on this subject, while the Republication enudidate evades direct affirmativ answers on questions bearing on this all important matter to the people of the county and state. A vote for Biery is a vote for a man who can be depended on

Some one has said that the ADVOCATI is "agin" Ben Kuntz. Of course w are, when Ben Kunts was elected chief burgens of this town he promised the people almost a hundred and one things, and what has he done I Nothing! To enumerate singly would re quire too much space. Let the people of this town look around about them and see for themselves. In the great hose house question that is now a famous Ben is reported as saying that "he didn't care whether it would be "me didn't cars whether it would be built, for if it wasn't it would make Lebighton Republican next year and that's what I want." Again he said he Instrument want. Agains are not a didn't care if certain Republicans were down on him that he would get ten Democratic votes to every Republican against him. Ben will loose twenty Republican votes here that would Chinery Har. Tonic articles for sole. Chiner Chart of the sole of the sole of the sole of the sole of the Chinery Har. Tonic articles for sole.
