Dear Sir—Naturally energetic I found is hard to be the victim of fell disease. I was terribly troubled with my stomach, my food would break up sour after a sting—would make up sour after a sting—would make up every night with a burning, sour distressed feeling there, that made my Hie almost unbearable. I doctored with physicians and took many so-called cures but none helped me; seeing in the newspapers of the wonderful cures performed by Br. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, of Kondout, N. V., I determined to try it; after using it a little while relief came and before I had the factor of the wonderful was entirely cured. Just think of its transper, from a sick man—ENTIRELY CURED.

Before using Favorite Panedy.

Mariette showed her teeth in the herrible joy of a secured vengeance. The rain fell heavily suitable, the windows shook, Little by little drunkenness overcame Little by little drunkenness overcame these ribald beings who jested with the sacred mysteries of death. Then Mariette began to sing a song composed by Charles for Mina, mockingly begging him not to very.

As Charles heard the words of the song chanted in her pitiless voice, his heart best fast, something rose in his throat, his voice failed and his head fell heavily forward upon the table. His sudden movement overturned the skull, Charles Burcourt was one of the most intropid habitness of the Charlesia Renge and La Grande Channiero; in fact of all those choreographic establishments which the Decographic establishments
