THE INAUGURATION.

Cleveland Again Assumes the Reins of Government

A MONSTER STREET PARADE

Inaugural Address of the New Chief Magistrate.

Following the inauguration of Cleveland, the city was again the center of attention. The parade was a grand affair, with thousands of people lining the streets. The new chief magistrate, Grover Cleveland, was greeted with enthusiasm by the citizens.

At 10 o'clock, the parade started from the City Hall. It was a magnificent display of the city's resources, with bands, floats, and a large contingent of the National Guard.

The parade lasted for several hours, and the streets were filled with the sound of music and the sight of a large crowd. Cleveland, in his inaugural address, spoke of the challenges ahead and the need for unity.

His address was well received, and the crowd cheered as he spoke. Cleveland's inauguration marked a new chapter in the city's history.

The parade was a testament to the city's spirit and the confidence of its citizens in their new leader. It was a day of celebration and hope for the future.

Cleveland's inauguration was a historic event, and the parade was a fitting tribute to the occasion. The city was once again the center of the nation's attention.

DOING LOTS OF GOOD.

Ask Mr. C. Henry and Martin Dubois, of East Manah Chuk, who saved them a clean coat $150 dollars each on a Piano. Ask Mr. Chas. Armstrong, on a Piano Organ, who saved him $60, on a Piano Organ. Oh! I am getting there with both feet, yet high price agents, come down to honest prices. Phillips has not seen fit to accept my proposition yet, namely: One Hundred Dollars for every new organ he sold that he did not make $20, if he gives me ten dollars for every one I will show he made from $20 to $50 dollars. He claims to be satisfied with $5 profit, that sounds nice, but why don't he carry out what he advocates. I am also headquarters for Sewing Machines. I sell the White Cottage at $25.00 White & Domestic at $20.00 Wheeler & Wilson at $20.00 Davis and Standard at $20.00 A Handsome High Art at $20.00 Draw Oak at $20.00 Do Springs just half what you pay elsewhere.
