ANYONE who would charge a soldier's widow more than the law allows him to prosecute a pension claim, is but little better than a thief.

CANDIDATES should make their announcements in the newspaper that reaches the greatest mass of people. The Advocate prints for $25.00 every week. The uniform price charged for announcement cards is $5.00 in advance.

OUR MEMBERS, editors and managers, have been very busy in putting out another issue of our paper with its last issue. If the editor of that paper would keep his mouth shut only those who know him most intimately would know what he has done. Every day he pushes his "baunted phis" forward and becomes the laughing stock of everybody—even of his guardians. The impatient or should keep to his kennel—he might get the rabies.

THE MONTH of May was a most pleasing one to this newspaper. Our subscription list shows as follows: Subscriptions renewed, 80; new subscribers, 37, making a total of 123 for the month, of this number 11 names were from this town and 6 from Wilespott. We thank our friends for their efforts in our behalf. In return we will continue to give the news truthfully and in first-class readable style. The Advocate is owned by no politicians or unprincipled nincompoops.

SECRET SOCIETY DOINGS.
Society 118-Bits of Interest to the Mass here of the Fraternity.

Secret societies in need of paraphernalia, flags, banners, uniforms, etc., should consult H. V. Mortimer, Jr., who represents one of the largest firms and importers, manufacturers and dealers in this country before purchasing elsewhere.

SAVING THE PENSIONS.
A Decision Which Stops a Leak of Millions.
WASHINGTON, May 29.—Probably the most important pension decision rendered from the office of the secretary of the interior to the commissioner of pensions was filed Saturday.

It is believed by those high in authority in the pension bureau that it will reduce the payment of pensions this year to $1,000,000,000. It involves the repeal of an order passed by General Nelson in 1901, which authorized the payment of pensions to the Assistant Secretary of War and a return to the language of the statute requiring the disability of the applicant from earning a support by means of his own hands.

The secretary has his decision upon the case of Charles T. Bennett, formerly a private in company E, 10th Maine, who was discharged in 1864 and was discharged June 18, 1865. Bennett filed his original application for a pension in 1891 and was granted the maximum rating of 100 per cent in July, 1893, alleging that while in the service and in line of duty at Bangor, N. C., about June 1, 1865, he was prostrated by a fever from which he never recovered and from which he has since suffered the loss of hearing, loss of sight and loss of speech. In 1893, Bennett filed a second application, and was granted the maximum rating of 100 per cent.

In deciding the case Secretary Smith says:

"Incapacity to perform manual labor, which is the foundation of the right to a pension under the act of June 8, 1875, does not require a different standard of proof from that which is required in cases where the disability is alleged to be the result of disease or injury sustained while in the service and in line of duty. The disability must be such as to prevent the applicant from earning a support by means of his own hands."

Under the provisions of the act of June 8, 1875, a pension is granted only to those who are disabled from earning a support by means of their own hands while in the service and in line of duty. It is believed that this decision will result in a saving of millions of dollars.

ALBANY, N. Y., May 31.—Water Main's collapse was wrecked on the Tyrone and Clearfield branches of the Pennsylvania railroad at Yal Station, about five miles from Tyrone. Five persons were killed and many injured. The train jumped the track when crossing a trestle over a ravine. A heavy engine, loaded with coal, and a passenger car were derailed. Forty persons were killed, including the engineer and conductor. The cause of the accident is being investigated.
