Exasperating Days.

Aren't there some times in your life when everything seems to go wrong ne matter how hard you try to have them go right? Those are the trying days when you want to blame all the trouble on the way you got out of bed in the morning or on other people instead of looking the matter squarely in the face and saying, "Issue or of my exasperating days, and if I can only keep my temper until night comes tomorrow with be different."

The trouble is when we feel ruffled

The trouble is when we feel ruffle The trouble is when we feel ruffled ourselves we samehow impart the feeling to others, and nine times out of ten we either get into a quarrol or do some ugly, horrid little thing that we wouldn't think of on other occasions. If you can on these bateful days, manage to think twice before you speak once it will save a lot of worry on the morrow. In fact, that is a wood rule to so be at all times, that is a wood rule to so be at all times. that is a good rule to go by at all times for of all the unruly, mischief making members the tongue is the most prom-ment.—Philadelphia Times.
