MRS. SHANN ON TRIAL

The Alleged Poisoner of Her Son Faces a Jury

OTHER CHARGES AGAINST HER

It is Alleged by Dams Rector that she was Responsible for the Death of her Husband and the Attempted Poisoning of her Daughter-in-Law

There is a Mrs. M. C. Shann, wife of C. Shann, the Prisoner woman who is accused of having poisoned John F. Shann, her 25-year-old son, to recover about $10,000, the amount of three insurance policies on his life, which policies have been paid by the insurance companies after an investigation into the cause of his death.

The coroner's inquest, which followed shortly after the death of her husband, developed the fact that he had been slowly done to death; that he died of mercury poisoning.

Price watches, silver and gold for E. H. Hohl, 2nd St. No. 1, Lehighton, Pa.

MISS MATTIE SPARKS

She had been to gradually gain vitality and strength, but she had been so long in the hospital that she had lost her appetite and she had become emaciated.
