While digging in the cemetery one day recently Frank Rosier, the barber, discovered a stone two by six inches and a half high, through which a root of a shrub had grown. Mr. Rosier was showing this freak of nature to his friends the other day and all his pronouncements it quite a curiosity.

Pinned Jewelry, latest designs, at E. H. Hohl's, Mauch Chunk.

The editor had the pleasure of making a watermelon one night recently being held under the auspices of the Lehighton Lodge, E. of L. F. The melon was very small, scarcely two inches round, yet it was sweet tasted and juicy. Mr. Rosier had raised sixteen melons all told. They are at least so far as we know, the only melons ever raised in Lehighton.
