t to the Chily Country In the World Wheen Poundlings Are Debarred From the MARION CHURES, PA Workhouse -Their Care Intrusted to the Religion and Wealthy-

There is only one country in the world where orphun children and foundlings are debarred from admission to the work-house. It is in Asserta, which maintains THE VALLEY HOUSE, where or phan children and foundings are debarred from admission to the work-house. It is in Austria, which maintains that to place the stigral of parperian upon the poor little things is to handing them later on in the race for life and bread, and thus to less in their chance of one becaming self supporting and self respecting citizens. That their reasoning is just is shown by the results, whereas in Paris London and Berlin the majority of children born in work houses enturn years afterward to die there. In Vienna it is a most numeral accurrence for a bounding or an orphant beyendent upon petities chartry to be come in old age a charge upon the committy.

During the early youth of their wards the duties of these orphan parents are confined to visiting them at unexpected times and to beging the people with whom they beard up to the risark by showing them that the children have powerful protectors. Upon the official parent devolves the responsibility of deciding the special calling in life for which the young sters show themest aptitude, the only stipulation made by the municipal authorities being that the boys should be takeds some skilled labor or prefersion calculated in give them later on a charces of being able to support a eife and family and to lay by provision for old age. When these lakego out into the world, it is to their official parents that they turn for a charcer, and if evil days come to them they appeal to their official protectors for help.

It is an incalculation because the for a boy who is just starting out in life to have a man of position to stand by him and to speak to the world in his favor, nor is there anything in connection between the two to raffic the independence of the younger, for when once inunched in life the eider stands to him simply in the relation of an old and tried friend, whose advice he may follow or not as he pleases.
