Ex-Secretary Foster Discouraged.
Chryshand, Oct. 26.—Ex-Secretary Foster and and indicated the filler going and the filler going in the sub-special bank shielals have been sent to the United States and India by the Japanese government to know the guild by his creditors. Thave been doing sverything in my power to assist the amagness of my various interests to estile up matters with as little less to my creditors as possible, but this action on the part of the creditors. And the creditors mean surphing by this soul. I have done nothing sither fishousest or dishonorable. The rais of my business blooks to Mr. Harkness was some fide, and the sale of the Russian saliers to the United States and India by the Japanese government to know the part of the creditors. The will probably be a matter of surprise to the general repost to learn that the petitical was first worn exclusively by mon. In the reign of King Henry VII the dress of the English was so fand the inventory of Henry V appears a "petitical of real damask, with open has some first the petitical was first worn exclusively by mon.
