The Juniata Company, Capt. KELLY, fifteen in number, arrived at Vera Cruz on the 9th April, and left on the 11th for Mazatlan, via city of Mexico. All the company were in good health and spirits.

The Blair County Whig has passed into the hands of Messrs. GEO. RAYMOND and WM. T. WILSON. Deserving success, they will we hope receive a liberal patronage, in more than the mere name, from the phalanx of whigs who last fall placed Blair among the banner counties of Pennsylvania.

TAXES.—The $300 exemption law repeals all previous acts relative to property subject to levy and sale, provides for the retention of that amount in all cases except warrants for the collection of taxes—from which it is inferred that hereafter all property is subject to levy and sale for taxes.

The BAKERS, who lately delighted our citizens with their charming voices, were recently entertained by President Taylor at the Executive Mansion in Washington.

THE SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN.—This valuable Journal is now publishing the prize essay on the Patent Laws, by Edmund Maher, Esq., of Washington City, for which the proprietors paid $100, making the present an excellent time for subscribing. Terms $2 per annum. Address, Munn & Co., New York,

HORN'S RAILROAD GAZETTE continues to furnish weekly a large amount of useful information to travellers, and ought to be taken by all public houses. Published weekly at $2 per annum, by S. Horn, New York.

PENNSYLVANIA CULTIVATOR FOR APRIL.—This excellent work continues to give many valuable articles relative to agriculture, Mechanism, Iron, and Coal, and is by far the best work of the kind ever published in this State. It ought to be liberally patronized. Foster & Co. publishers, Harrisburg. Terms $1 per annum.

Mrs. Mary H. Griswold, daughter of Mrs. Hardcastle of New York, who sailed about a year since for the Gaboon mission, on the Western Coast of Africa, died at that station on the 31st of January last, of a malignant fever.

A large meeting was held at Philadelphia on Wednsday evening to aid in raising subscriptions for the Central Railroad.

The setting of the posts for the Magnetic Telegraph between Hollidaysburg and Bedford, was completed last week.

MAPLE SUGAR.—The Green Mountain Freeman estimates the amount manufactured in Vermont at about five millions of pounds.

The Secretary of the Commonwealth, advertises for a loan of $400,000 to the Commonwealth, to be applied to avoiding the Inclined Plane near Philadelphia.

Dr. Warren took from the stomach of an Irish girl at the Massachusetts general hospital, by means of an incision, a tape worm forty-one feet and eleven inches in length; the sufferer was under the ifluence of ether.

DUEL.—A duel was fought at Old Point yesterday between J. P. Jones (a passed midshipman in the navy) and Dr. Jas. Hope, (a nephew of Commodore Barron.) Both were severely, if not mortally, wounded.—Norfolk Argus, April 27.

HARRISBURG GAMBLERS.—The Ledger's correspondent at Harrisburg states, that true bills having been found against the gamblers Green, Robbins, Stehley and Foltz, these gentlemen suddenly were among the missing, leaving however, effects sufficient to indemnify their sureties to the amount of $600 each.

A rencontre took place in Baltimore on Wednesday, between Mr. John Busk, Esq., a man about sixty years of age, and Dr. Charles Bestor. There was spitting in the face, striking with umbrellas, &c., and finally the latter drew a pistol and shot Mr. Busk in the lip. No other injury was occasioned.

The directors of the Philadelphia and Havre de Grace Steam Towing company have made a reduction of one dollar per boat in the charge for towing from Havre de Grace to Philadelphia, to take effect on the 1st of May.

The New York Courier of Saturday has the following singular statement.

SALE OF OFFICES.—The recent discovery of a large defalcation in the office of Marshal, has led to other discoveries equally astounding. It now appears from an affidavit of Mr. Moore, made in the Court of Chancery, that immediately upon the receipt of his appointment, he disposed of his office for the sum of $16,000 and $175 per month! Mr. Moore, in justification of himself for this most unjustifiable proceeding alleges that the practice is common, and that his two predecessors in like manner sold their offices to the same person—the Deputy Marshal!

This will doubtless lead to further investigations into the manner in which offices have been disposed of under the VAN BUREN, TYLER and POLK dynasties.

AN IMPUDENT CLAIM.—Mr. C. Glen Peebles it appears, has been removed from a clerkship in the War Department. It seems that the chief clerk intimated to him the propriety of resigning. He forthwith addressed a letter to the Secretary of War in which he set forth the novel and extravagant claim, that he is entitled to his office for life. He says: "I claim, legally, to hold a life estate in my appointment, it being a permanent one, or for so long as the office exists—removable only for good cause." And he even goes so far in his pretensions, as to insist, that "if there should be no material to employ him upon then he could not, rightfully, be removed."

On receipt of this letter, the Secretary of War replied in the following laconic note.

"Replying to your letter of this date, I have to state, that your service as a clerk are no longer required in this Department. Your obedient servant,

G. W. CRAWFORD, Sec'y of War.

STRAWBERRIES.—Our markets abound in the most delicious strawberries and blackberries. The crop of both promises to be very fine. We saw a few days age a quart of the finest, largest and most delicious and fragrant strawberries, which were raised on a lot in the rear of the city, which a few months ago was an unredeemed swamp —N. O. Delta, 17th April.

The following letter from a friend at Washington was received too late for last week's paper. We shall be pleased to hear from "Chapultepec" often.

Correspondence of the Gazette.

WASHINGTON, April 25, 1849.

MR. EDITOR—It is so customary these times for papers to have their correspondents in Washington, that I do not perceive any valid reason why the organ of the indomitable Whigs of little Mifflin should be behind the age, and therefore I take the liberty of giving your readers an inkling, now and then, of what a looker on sees and hears from time to time in this metropolis of politics and power.

The Administration is slowly progressing in the great work of reform, and, I think, is laying a sure foundation for the time to come. The Cabinet is composed, as you know, of men of the most undoubted abilities, and to this add industry, perseverance, and an ardent desire to promote the best interests of the whole country, and you have a correct idea of the men Gen. Taylor has chosen to assist him in the functions of government, for this great and growing nation. Many politicians will no doubt find fault with the tardy movements of the appointing power, but they must remember that Rome was not built in a day, and a greater work than building Rome is now progressing in the body politic of this Republic. General Taylor has pledged himself not to be the President of a party, and therefore cannot do as did the elder and younger Hickory, indiscriminately slaughter all who happen to differ with him in opinion. We have evidence enough for us to be convinced that his friends will in due time have their claims considered, and that such changes will be made as the interests of the country demand. The books are now being posted, and you may expect a settlement made with very many of the hands now employed, about the first of May. If is said that Mr. Clayton, Second Auditor of the Treasury, who fills the place of one John M. McCalla, has recommended for removal several of the gentlemen, who sit in their offices, smoking segars and reading "Dumas' last" for three hours a day, and then dress for a promenade to the Capitol grounds. This is as it should be. The business in some of the offices is now three and four years behind the time, and men are obliged to wait until it suits the convenience of these worthies, before their accounts are even put in way of settlement. I was told by a Clerk yesterday, that the business of his office was twelve years behind when his duties commenced, a short time since. I say turn them out, and appoint men who will discharge their duties faithfully and promptly. Mr. Meredith has issued a circular to the chiefs of the different Bureaus in his department requiring a list of all persons employed therein, the time of their appointment, what their duties, who are incompetent, who in arrears, &c., which has created some excitement among them, and caused a general spurring up of the lazy ones. The Post Office Department is doing the work of reform with neatness and despatch. Judge Collamer and his efficient aid, Col. Warren, are winning for themselves golden opinions in all sections of the country. Father Ritchie whines like a whipped spaniel, but 'twill not avail—the Augean Stable must be cleansed, and in no Department is there more necessity for a thorough clearing out than the Post Office. There are but few office seekers here at present, many having gone home to bide their time, and patiently await the moving of the waters. Thousands will be disappointed in the distribution of offices, but of course will yield to the necessity that prevents one office from being given to a hundred applicants. The Philadelphia appointments are not yet made, and there seems to be quite a competition for the Collector's office. The applicants are all good men, and it is difficult to make a selection.

A magnificent sword was presented to the President yesterday, by a deputation from Virginia, on behalf of the State. The ceremonies were very interesting, and you will see a full account of the speeches, &c. in the papers of to day. The levees at the White House are thronged, and every visiter leaves delighted with the reception he receives from the People's man. Mrs. Taylor has been in delicate health, and the honors of the ladies' department are done by Mrs. Bliss in a style at once elegant and prepossessing.

I may give you a more definite idea of life in Washington at some future time.

Yours, &c, CHAPULTEPEC.
