Some strong testimonials in favor of Crowell's Patent Thermometer Churn are published in another column. The right to make and vend these articles has been purchased by A. FELIX & Co., Lewistown.

The Brigade Inspector gives notice of the military election to be held in June. Old Dr. Jacob Townsend has appointed Mr. Allen agent for the sale of his Saraparilla.

Persons writing to the Postmaster at Lewistown on their own business, ought always to pay the postage, as he is not entitled to the franking privilege.

By letters and papers from St. Louis, we learn that JAMES BEARD, of Newton Hamilton, Millin county, in a temporary fit of insanity, jumped from the third story window of the Hotel for Invalids, on the 4th instant, and was injured to such an extent that he died soon afterwards.

Mr. Vincent's Singing Geography Class gave an exhibition at the Town Hall on Thursday evening. A large audience was in attendance, who were highly gratified with the progress the children had made and the manner in which they acquitted themselves.

Our friends of the Millintown Register and Sentinel propose an editorial conference of their brethren of the press in this congressional district, to be held in Lewistown, on Friday, the 6th of June next.

The Sentinel and Register have both been improved in manner and matter, and reflect credit on the proprietors. May their shadows never grow less.

A. J. JONES, Esq., has been appointed Postmaster at Harrisburg, in the place of I. G. McKinley, removed.

T. T. WORTH, Esq., our successor in the Lebanon Courier establishment, has been appointed Postmaster at Lebanon, in the place of John G. Shaveley, removed.

We are sorry that the "necessities of war" should demand the removal of our old friend McKinley from the Harrisburg office, for, although a bitter partisan, Mac is a clever fellow, and as the administration has balanced accounts with the fraternity by raising one printer up and putting the other down, we suppose all hands must grin and bear it.

Our "Mayor," alias Chief Burgess, has received an invitation from the Mayor of Memphis, Tennessee, to aid in sending delegates to a Railroad Convention to be held in that place on the 4th of July next.

IMPORTANT FROM CANADA. MONTREAL, May 15. An exciting debate came off in the Assembly yesterday, on the question of the address on the rebellion losses.

From the New York Courier of the 11th. Great Riot, Bloodshed and Loss of Life.

Our city last night was the scene of transactions more disgraceful in their origin, more outrageous in their incidents, and more bloody in their results than any we have ever before called on to record.

The writer of this reached the ground at half past seven o'clock, and found the whole area in Astor Place in front of the house occupied by a dense crowd, a large number of whom immediately in front of the main door were shouting and endeavoring to force an entrance.

Outside, meantime, a play of far different kind was enacted. The crowd in attendance increased rapidly and constantly. Astor Place was densely crowded from the house to Broadway, and both these streets were filled with an immense multitude of people.

Mr. Putnam, a Policeman from the Seventh Ward, being stationed in the rear of the crowd, near Mr. Langdon's house, was severely wounded in the first charge.

Several of the military were very seriously injured by stones thrown by the rioters, and Mr. Barber, of the First Ward Police, had his head very severely wounded in the same way.

Three attempts were made to set fire to the building by persons inside—mainly we believe under the floor of the parquette. They were all discovered, however, and at once extinguished.

At 2 o'clock the mayor issued a Proclamation in which, after deploring the loss of life, he declares that the peace of the city must and shall be maintained at all hazards.

THE MEETING IN THE PARK.—A notice was posted up in several parts of the city, calling a meeting in the Park, at 6 o'clock, on Friday, in relation to the affair of Thursday night, and at that hour there had probably collected some two or three thousand persons.

The noise of the firing went like an electric shock through the vast multitude congregated in the adjoining streets. Every one seemed astounded—all were intensely excited—and all who had taken part in, or sympathized with, the rioters, were exasperated to the highest pitch.

store, corner of Eighth street. This added fuel to the flame. Many of the rioters seized stones in Broadway—where the pavements had been torn up to make a sewer—and rushed through Astor Place, and presently another volley of musketry told of their reception.

Another man, whose name we could not learn, was shot directly through the heart. We were told his name was Jones, and that he lived in Ninth street—but of this we are not sure.

Mr. Lincoln, a mechanic, residing in Walker street, was shot through the groin and taken to his residence. He will undoubtedly die.

Another person, whose name we did not learn, was shot directly through the neck, and can scarcely recover.

Several of the military were very seriously injured by stones thrown by the rioters, and Mr. Barber, of the First Ward Police, had his head very severely wounded in the same way.

At Cincinnati, on the 14th, the cholera was apparently abating. So also at Louisville.

Two suspicious and fatal cases recently occurred at Charleston, Va., on the Great Kanawha. Four deaths by Cholera have occurred at Chicago.

Snake Hunting.—The St. Francisville (La.) Chronicle says:—For about a week past, some few of our citizens have enjoyed themselves in shooting snakes, in the back water near our town.

groans and yells were vociferated, but when notice was given by the Recorder that the military would undoubtedly fire upon them, unless they instantly dispersed, they immediately ceased acts of violence.

Several military companies are still out, but all in peace and quietness, and no further disturbances apprehended.

The theatre is still in the possession of the Police, and the streets are thoroughly occupied by the military.

To all whom it may concern. Mr. Editor: Will you be kind enough to permit the members of the Martha Washington Temperance Society to enquire, through your columns, what has become of the proceeds of the "Fair," which they held about six years ago.

REPLY TO THE ABOVE. The money spoken of, as is shown by the statement below, was invested in the building erected by the Lewistown Guards, &c., as an armory, which building would have been the property of the Martha Washington Temperance Society, had an original claim, held under the mechanics' lien law, been discharged.

Statement by the Martha Washington Temperance Society, of Lewistown, of the proceeds of the Fair, held 22nd February, 1844.

Reply to S. P. Townsend's "TRICKS OF QUACKS." A young man by the name of S. P. Townsend is sending out circulars, and selling such quack "Tricks of Quacks" "Caution Extra," &c., which are nothing but deception and falsehood.

Before S. P. Townsend was born! This fact alone is enough to satisfy the public that S. P. Townsend's statements are false, and not to be trusted. He will falsify in one thing he will in another.
