

Mr. CALHOUN'S REPLY TO MR. BENTON.—The Charleston papers of the 17th contain an elaborate reply from Mr. CALHOUN to the charges made against him by Mr. BENTON in the speech delivered at long since by the latter at Jefferson city.—The reply is as characteristic as the attack.

Mr. CALHOUN takes up the several charges as specified by his adversary and makes a vigorous retort, not sparing words of great bitterness. It will be remembered that one of the most emphatic points dwelt upon by BENTON was the allegation that Mr. CALHOUN, when member of Mr. MONROE's cabinet, gave a written opinion in favour of the constitutionality of the restriction of slavery by Congress from territories belonging to the United States. The occasion, as alleged, for the giving of this opinion was the passage of the Missouri Compromise bill in 1820.—

The charge was supported by a draft of a letter in Mr. MONROE's hand writing and the testimony of Mr. ADAMS's diary—but going to show that President MONROE requested the opinions of the members of his cabinet in writing, upon the question referred to, and that they were unanimous upon the constitutional point.

This Mr. CALHOUN denies, and cites the "proofs" adduced by Mr. BENTON as strengthenning and sustining the very opposite. Mr. CALHOUN reviews his course in regard to the annexation of Texas and vindicates every part of it. The selection of the House resolution, he believes, was necessary to ensure the annexation—a belief in which he declares himself supported by Mr. DONALDSON, then Minister to Texas. A considerable portion of the reply is devoted to the reiteration of his constitutional views as to the organization of the General Government, which he insists, has the States for its constituents and not individuals.

BE UNPREJUDICED. Let no foolish persons be so prejudiced against you by any medical man, or any other, let us use immediately on pain of being flogged—no matter where it may be, whether on the head or feet, whether it be in the back or abdomen, whether arising from external or internal cause, use the Brandreth's Pills, and rely upon it, that the pain will be restored to health as soon as nature has received sufficient assistance from their effect.

The quantity of impure humors discharged from the body by the action of the Brandreth's Pills, is replaced in the course of a few hours with new and pure blood, by the digestion of a moderate meal. By purging the body with this medicine the whole mass of blood becomes entirely purified and regenerated.

That the blood is the life of the body, I presume is undisputed, therefore if she can't get rid of the Stomach Disease, if disease be in the blood, we should abstract the disease only, not the blood. It is the impurity which must be removed by purgation to secure our health, in allstes of the weather, in all situations, and in all climates. The blood, like a good spirit, is always trying to benefit the body by its struggles to expel impurities. But it is not capable to effect its own purification at all times: to do this it must often have assistance. When the blood is loaded with impurities, especially in this climate, the consequences may be fatal, provided the blood is not purified at once, and this is sure to be effected if Brandreth's Pills are used.

Purchase the genuine medicine of the above named Dr. Brandreth, at Mrs. HARRY McNeely's, 100 Market Street, Huntingdon; Moore & Slope, Alexander & N. Crosswell, Petersburgh; Hartman, Smith & Co., Manchur; T. M. Owens, Birmingham.

PHILADELPHIA, July 25, 1849.

In the Dens of Wild Beasts.

His performances differ from all others, not only in the skill and grace which he displays in his exercises with the

TERRIFIC GROUPE OF

but in the matchless and almost superhuman command with which he exacts the obedience of these fiercest and most remorseless tenants of the desert, the forest, and the jungle. MR. PIERCE MAY HAVE MANY IMITATORS, but HE HAS NO EQUALS!

The list embraces all the finest Living Specimens of

that the great experience, enterprise, and resources of the proprietors have enabled them to bring together in one LARGE AND SPLENDID COLLECTION. A full description of the Animals contained in the Exhibition, will be found in the Bills at the principal Hotels, previous to the arrival of the company.
