much the restoration of clerical intolerance, that no one can persuade himself it may be excluded from the Papal train.

Should the Pope neglect to prepare the way for his return, it will be a troubled one.

SPAIN.—It appears that Narvaez has taken ample vengeance on all the parties who were instrumental in tripping his heels. He has dismissed the King from his post as keeper of the palace, and imprisoned a priest and a monk as the instruments of the King's policy.

The new American Minister at the Court has formally presented himself, and, with much tact and skill disclaimed, in the name of his President, the doings of the party who proposed to seize upon Cuba.

ENGLAND.—The English press devote much space to the consideration of the Canadian annexation address, and its tone and temper is highly commended. The London Times says, that by whomsoever the documents is proposed or concocted, it reflects great credit on the tact, skill and adroitness of its authors.

In speaking of the possible assent of England to annexation of Canada to the United States, the Times says:—'Yet the conduct of the people will be directed by motives of prudence and interest alone—if they think they can do without Canada then, and then only will they give up Canada.

'But in surrendering Canada, they will take care not to surrender one jot of sea or land, the possession of which nearly and effectively concerns the maratime and commercial importance of Great Britain.

'They will not cede Nova Scotia—they will not cede Cape Breton—they will not cede those seaboards and harbors, which must ever command the mouth of the St. Lawrence, and protect the trade of the Atlantic.'

Money Matters, Trade, &c.

Delaware City Bank.

Extract from a letter to a gentleman of this county, dated

PHILADELPHIA, November 13, 1849.

I may here remark, that while your community is naturally very sensitive about Bank notes, in view of their past experience, still, being liable to the use of a paper currency, and the probability of its being of a mixed character, there are I conceive good reasons why that extreme sensitiveness should induce a decided preference on their part for Delaware City Bank notes, instead of a distrust of the same. I will state those reasons, knowing personally that they are facts, and you can for yourself judge if the conclusions are sound.

1st. The Capital Stock paid in is paid with money, no stockholder having asked a loan to pay up instalments with. The capital stock paid in is a bona fide investment of money for revenue, and is not held in any one case as a means for borrowing from the Bank. That capital stock is this day whole and unimpaired, and there is not this day in its assets a single bill receivable, that is not honestly believed to be entirely good.

2d. By the Charter the Directors are made liable to the public for the debts of the Bank in the event of the Bank becoming indebted beyond a fixed and very restricted limit, which liability has been incurred.

3d. The Directors, thus made personally liable, are largely interested in the stock; are not in want of loans from the Bank; are of good standing for moral character and as business men; and naturally will give their careful attention to the management of the Bank, because they own a large part of the stock, and besides would be personally liable in their private property, if they carelessly let the Bank become involved.

4th. The Directors alone decide on applications for loans, the officers not being authorised to make any; and with fair business qualifications and such motives for giving careful attention to her affairs, it is hardly likely that they will lose the cash capital stock, or so conduct her affairs as to become subject to the loss of their private property also.

Other reasons might be stated, but I conceive the above are sufficient. It is plain that the individual liability feature in the Charter, and the prompt publication of the Card by the stockholders, has not only established a well grounded confidence with the public wherever the signers of the Card are known, but it has also created a deeply seated secret hostility with parties connected with some of the weak Banks, that are now very widely extended, and exist only by the absence of any material call on them for coin. They live by the forbearance of the Brokers, and obtain the same only by paying for it. But Brokers are dangerous props to a weak Bank, and will abandon her when the blood is about gone, leaving the public to hold the empty carcass. The Delaware City Bank is in poor odor with a part of the Brokers, because she will not buy favors from them; but I think it may be fairly assumed by the public that whenever a Bank gets into partnership with a Broker to speculate on her own paper, there is reason to be cautious of her notes. The Delaware City Bank keeps funds at the Bank of the Northern Liberties to meet all her notes of $5 and upwards. If the law allowed our city Banks to take small notes also, they would be equally protected. At her counter all her circulation has been promptly redeemed with gold or silver on presentation; and with the exception of the visits of a certain Broker in this city, who has vainly hoped to embarrass her, there has not been at any time any run on her, or any manifestation of the slightest distrust. The Broker above referred to has on every visit been paid American half dollars promptly for all the notes he has presented; and the secret of his displeasure is the fact that the Bank refuses to give him large notes for the small notes he brings, but insists on his taking coin for such notes. It is a new feature to assail the standing of a Bank because she insists on paying specie, and yet her insisting on paying specie is the real cause for the insinuations against her, which have been so zealously disseminated by certain parties.

Broken and Doubtful Banks.

Walter Joy's Bank, at Buffalo, New York, has failed. The Pawtucket Bank, Rhode Island, it is said has also closed. The Union Bank, Dover, as well as other New Jersey Banks, seem to be in bad odor.

The best plan for all to pursue, who have not immediate use for their money, is to refuse all small notes issued by banks of other States.

Counterfeit $10 notes on the LANCASTER BANK are in circulation. They are dated January 1st or 2d (could not distinguish which) 1844, letter B, signed Christ. Tackmar, Cashier, James Evans, President. Vignette, a naked female sitting with a staff in her right hand, her face turned left, no spots visible on the eye, a spread eagle on her left side, (the right of the vignette,) resting on a shield; a ship, all sails set, on her right, badly engraved; the hull or bottom of the ship looks like a floating saw log, square at both ends. Double medallion heads on the right end of the bills, also badly executed. The other figures on the bill are said to be good. The bills are not described in any of the last Detectors.

TO THE LADIES.

C. L. JONES respectfully informs the ladies that he made a large purchase of Cashmeres when last in the city, at greatly reduced prices, and is now able to sell a genuine article of Cashmere at the extremely low price of 25 cts. per yard, equal to any to be had at 50 cts. at other places. Call soon, as they are selling like hot cakes.—Also, a splendid assortment of sack Flannels and many other new goods just received and arriving at the celebrated new cheap cash store.

FOR SALE.

The Lewistown Hotel.

THE owner of this well and favorably known Hotel offers it at Private Sale. It is situate in Lewistown, Pa., N. W. corner of Main and Market streets. The main building is 65 feet by 45, three stories with a basement, with a kitchen and range of rooms extending back. There is attached to it an Ice House, Smoke House, Carriage House, and large Stables; in short, no expense has been spared to fit it for an extensive business.

We hazard nothing in saying that its location, for a permanent business, is as desirable as any stand in the central part of the State. Lewistown has been and still must be a point of departure for the Northern and North-western travel on the Pennsylvania Canal and Pennsylvania Railroad. Since the opening of the latter this transient travel has greatly increased; this added to the fact that this house always has enjoyed a large share of permanent country custom makes it at once a safe and desirable investment.

TERMS will be made to suit purchasers Apply to GEORGE W. ELDER, Esq., Lewistown, Pa., or to the subscriber.

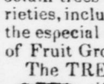
CENTRE NURSERY,

Boalsburg, Centre Co. Pa.

GARDENERS and orchardists who desire to plant only the very best kinds of hardy fruits, are respectfully informed that they can obtain trees here of all the most estimable varieties, including all those which have received the especial sanction of the American Congress of Fruit Growers. (N. Y., Oct. 1848.)



The TREES offered this season are of beautiful appearance, extra size, (excepting a few new rare sorts) and from the elevated locality in which the Nursery is established, have all the essential advantages of hardiness and early maturity, for which trees grown at the north have been deservedly preferred.

The advantages possessed here are being improved to the utmost, with the view of making this Nursery, in merit, second to none in the State. Every tree is indelibly marked and warranted correct. They will be delivered in Lewistown or at intermediate places at the low catalogue prices, and warranted sound on delivery. If to be shipped, they will be well packed for the purpose at a moderate charge.

It is advised that orders be sent direct to the Nursery, in preference to purchasing illy assorted trees, from often irresponsible dealers, at high prices. Such orders, if received in time, have the first attention.

Season for fall planting, October 20.

A choice collection of the most admired ornamental plants, vines, evergreens, &c. has been added to the Nursery Catalogues, sent to all post paid applicants.

LEWISTOWN MILLS.

THE subscriber has taken the Lewistown Mills, and wishes to buy a large quantity of

for which he will pay the CASH, IN PAR FUNDS, as high as the market will afford, according to its quality. Any person having good Wheat will do well to call and show a sample of it, as he thinks he can afford to give more than any other person in the place, the mill being situated on the creek, where flour can be loaded out of the mill into boats, and all expense of hauling, storing, and shipping saved; besides, the flour is in better order, as the barrels are not injured by hauling and handling. If wheat brings a better price than it will afford to grind, he has the same chance of shipping it as any other, as the mill is the most convenient storehouse in the place, and saves a great deal of time and labor in hoisting by water power. OR, HE WILL RECEIVE ON STORAGE, and forward to Philadelphia or Baltimore, and give the following receipt:

"Received, Lewistown Mills, of A. B., —Wheat, to be kept in store till the first of August unless disposed of sooner."

When the receipt is given the quality of the wheat will be mentioned in it, so as to prevent any trouble when the owner comes to sell. Any person storing, having four hundred bushels and upwards, and desires it, it will be kept in a garner by itself. Any person taking a receipt, and not selling before, or giving notice to keep it, till after the first of August, it will be carried out to their credit at the market price on that day. If shipped, or sold to any person that does not get it ground in the mill, two cents per bushel storage will be charged. If they give notice, and keep it over after the first of August, the storage will be ONE-HALF cent per month, afterwards. The grain will be clear from high water.

The subscriber will keep

Plaster, Fish, Salt and Groceries

of all kinds, which will be sold low for cash to Farmers, by the quantity.

☞FLOUR, MIDDLINGS, and all kinds of Grain and Feed, will be constantly kept on hand, and sold low for cash.
