BY THE STEAMER HIBERNIA. PRUSSIA.—A telegraphic despatch received from Berlin, via Cologne, announces that the Austrian cabinet had made a formal protest against the convocation of a German parliament at Erfurt, and that in the despatch containing the protest the Austrian government alluded to the probability of armed interference by Austria in the affairs of Germany.

A letter from Berlin, to the Morning Chronicle, says: "At the end of October, Prince Schwartzburg, in a despatch to the Prussian government, pointed out the dangers that were likely to arise from the convocation of this Parliament, insisting on the revolutionary tendencies to which it would give birth, and on the reaction that would be felt, not only in the Austrian States, but in Prussia likewise."

On the 30th October, Prussia replied that she had duly weighed all those considerations, but that more elevated and pressing motives urged her to persevere in the plan. As regards real dangers, she would know how to meet them. Austria has now gone a step farther, and has formally protested against the convocation of the Parliament. If I am well informed, and I have reason to believe that I am, the last despatch addressed by Prince Schwartzburg to the Prussian government, insinuates that even should the case require it, Austria will not hesitate to have recourse to an armed intervention. Behold us once more on the eve of a serious conflict.

A Cabinet Council was held the day before yesterday. The council first adopted the Election Law of the Parliament. Each State will introduce such modifications as its organization may require. The Cabinet Council was then occupied with the reply to the Austrian note. The ministry adopted a most important resolution.

A despatch, in reply to that of Prince Schwartzburg, has already been sent to Count Bismarck, the Prussian Envoy at Vienna. Prussia, in this document, maintains, with energy, her right to carry out the limited federation—a right formerly guaranteed. To the Austrian's despatch of armed interference, Prussia replies that "she awaits it."

Accounts from Berlin of the 24th ult., state that after a debate of several days, the upper chamber had declined to return to the old constitution. They divided no less than sixteen times, eight of which were by name.

The Cologne Gazette announces, in a telegraphic message from Berlin, that the King has signed the law for the election of representatives to the German parliament, to be assembled at Erfurt.

FRANCE.—Parliamentary Disputes.—The personal quarrels of the members of the legislative assembly terminated in more than half a dozen duels, and have occupied the chief attention of the Parisians during the week. M. Pierre Bonaparte has figured in as many as three or four of these encounters. None of the contests have ended fatally, but they have increased to such a degree that the government threatens to stop them by very stringent laws.

ATTEMPT TO ABROGATE UNIVERSAL SUFFRAGE.—The modus operandi of modifying the constitution is still the increasing subject of discussion. It is now suggested to change the legislative assembly into a constituent body, by the addition of 150 members, and this new body to be invested with the power of electing the President; of extending the term of his office to such a period as may avoid the necessity of a frequent appeal to universal suffrage.

THE AUSTRIAN AND PRUSSIAN DIFFICULTY.—Considerable alarm has prevailed during the week, in consequence of the increasing unsatisfactory state of the relations between Austria and Prussia.

TRERKY.—From Constantinople the news only confirms the previous pacific course of events. It is confidently stated that the British fleet has received orders to withdraw from the Dardanelles, and that it is indeed by this time at Malta.

Nothing further has transpired respecting the whereabouts of the Polish and Hungarian fugitives.

The Russian Ambassador, M. Titoff, has once more been admitted to an interview with the Grand Vizier, and diplomatic relations may be presumed to be renewed between Russia and the Porte.

The Russian minister was excessively annoyed by the presence of the British fleet in the Dardanelles, which he declared a violation of the treaty, and has, it is said, refused to enter into negotiation until the English shall have quitted the Straits.

The Vienna correspondent of the Daily News, writing on the 21st ult., says, "Letters of the 10th from Constantinople mention fresh subjects of dispute between Russia and Turkey, in consequence of the energy with which the united diplomacy of England and France has followed up its victory on the refugee question. It is said that the Porte is also determined, at the expiration of the stipulated term, to withdraw those concessions in favor of Russian commerce, over other nations, which at present exist."

Obituary Notice. Departed this life in October last, at his father's, in Brown township, Kishacoquillas Valley, after a short illness, JOHN, son of George Ellis—a worthy young man, only son of fond parents, who were flattered by the fine promise of their cherished son, who had just arrived at manhood.

There were several very commendable points in his character and example worth remembering by other young men, and in common with all who knew him well, we share in the regret occasioned by his death. This a wise and right-minded man, who was ever ready to oblige, and who was ever ready to comfort the bereaved, who long will bewail their son, though they mourn not without the hope that it is his gain.

Died, at San Francisco, California, on Monday, October 15th, 1849, of chronic Dysentery, Col. JAS. A. BANKS, son of E. Banks, Esq. of this place, aged 26 years, 1 month and 6 days.

The funeral of the deceased was attended by the members of the Order of Odd Fellows, of which he was a member, and the members of the Bar, residing in San Francisco. The following resolutions were adopted by Kishacoquillas Lodge, No. 184, I. O. O. F., on Friday evening last.

Resolved, That we sympathize with the officers and members of Kishacoquillas Lodge No. 184, in the loss they have sustained by the death of Bro. JAS. A. BANKS, one of its members, and with the Order, in the loss of an esteemed Brother.

Resolved, That although his enterprising spirit, led him to seek his home in a distant territory, just springing into a member of this great Republic, yet we have every reason to hope that there were Brothers present, who watched at his dying bed, and accompanied his body to its final resting place, on the shores of the Pacific.

Resolved, That we condole with the parents and friends of the deceased in this afflictive dispensation of Divine Providence.

Resolved, That we will wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days.

Resolved, That these resolutions be published, and a copy sent to the parents of the deceased, and to Kishacoquillas Lodge No. 184.

JOHN HAMILTON, G. W. STEWART, JAMES PIERCE, Committee.

JACOB ORT, Granville tp., December 15, 1849.—3t.

Sarsaparilla!

None of your sour, fermenting stuff. Well, whose is it! Why, it is not Old Dr. Jacob Townsend's. Then whose else! Why, it is not Dr. S. P. Townsend's. (Whose upon earth is it then? I will tell you: it is that which is made in strict accordance with the U. States Pharmacopoeia laid down by the Medical Faculty. There is more Sarsaparilla in one quart of this than in four quarts of either of the Townsends'. Every Physician in the United States knows how it is manufactured, and to them we refer for the genuineness of the above compound Syrup of Sarsaparilla. It is for sale by the pint, quart, gallon, or any amount desired.

Prepared and sold at GREEN'S Medical Depot, No. 11, Lewistown, Pa.

A FEW pieces, Turkin Satin Du Chen, 28 inches wide, selling at only $1.25 per yard. Call and see. oct. 20. NUSBAUM, BROTHERS.

FRESH WINTER GOODS.

WE have just largely increased our already extensive stock of WINTER GOODS, and the Philadelphia houses are reducing their stocks previous to the close of the year, we have been enabled to make purchases very low, and are now prepared to offer our friends

GOOD BARGAINS. Our stock of English and French BROAD CLOTHS, plain and fancy CASSIMERES, SATINETS, JEANS, &c., is very large and desirable, and will be sold as low as any other establishment in town. We offer Cashmeres, French Merinoes, Lustrés, Mous. de Laines, Prints, long and square SHAWLS, of every description; French Collars, Gloves, Hosiery, &c., at greatly reduced prices.

We sell, for instance, handsome black cotton Stockings at 6 1/2 cents per pair. Mouseline de Laines at 1 1/2 cts. per yard. Handsome Cashmeres at 25 cts. per yard, &c. We now sell boy's boots at $1.00 per pair, such as some great concerns are selling at $1.25. Men's heavy boots at $1.50, and Ladies' and Children's shoes in proportion. In fact everything in our line is now full and extensive, and although not so good as pulling as some of our neighbors, we will say to those friends that patronize us that they shall not lose thereby. We think that we buy our goods as well as any other concern and will sell them as low (quality considered), and although we do not boast of selling as many as half the town, we think we sell more than the great concern that does.

WATSON & JACOB. Lewistown, Dec. 1, 1849.
