THE GAZETTE. Post Office Robberies! As we expected, most of the recent Post Office deprivations can be traced home to the loco loco ranks, just as was the Susquehanna Bank swindle. The new administration has been foully abused for the small number of removals it has made...

Correspondence of the Gazette. BALTIMORE, Dec. 25, 1849. Mr. Editor:—Sundry engagements which demanded attention since my arrival in this city have thus far prevented me from indulging much in my favorite employment, writing; but, to-day, finding myself relieved of all the arduous duties of business, I resolved to devote an hour to furnishing you with a few etchings from the "Monumental City."

With a cotemporary we hope that in all cases of mail deprivations the politics of the thief may be published. The loco loco press has been endeavoring to cast suspicion on the new appointments, and the public want to know when robberies are committed, whether the offenders are loco-focos or whigs. If the latter, let all the punishment and odium be visited upon them that they merit.

Warfare on the Administration. In their anxiety to censure Gen. Taylor's administration the loco-foco papers resort to every species of misrepresentation that can be dreamt of, in order to deceive their readers—some of whom may perhaps be simple enough to swallow all that is said, no matter how absurd, as veritable gospel.

Pickpockets, recently, have been committing numerous deprivations, in the way of relieving strangers of their pocketbooks, and a considerable amount of money has thus changed hands. Not only have these scamps perpetrated robberies in the street, at auction rooms, and at hotels, but absolutely in the house of God.

AMERICAN COMMERCE.—During the year ending June 30th, 1849, the value of the imports into the United States was $147,857,439; exports $145,755,820. Of the latter, $132,666,955 were domestic exports. It will be perceived that the excess of imports over exports amounted to $2,101,619.
