and respectability performing daily labor; and they do not wish to see the slaves of some wealthy planter or owner brought there, and put in competition with their labor, side by side. It is from the very fact that Labor is respectable, that we wish to keep it so by excluding Slavery from our State.'

ECONONY .-- The amount of money deposited in the Savings Bank of Great Britain is over £21,000,000 sterling, or more than one hundred millions of dollars ! This is an enormous amount of money, and is the savings of many who have labored hard, and by pursuing a habit of strict economy they have succeeded in maintaining themselves handsomely, and laid up a compe-tency for old age. The question then arises, what is true economy? In the exercise of economy it is essential to have good judgment—a cor-rect notion of matters and things. Every indi-vidual has in the course of a life time to purchase a large amount of goods, even if for his or her own support, merely. It will, in the course of years, amount to a considerable sum. Then the way to practice economy in this respect is to buy for CASH, as it is very dangerous to go in debt, particularly with the storekeepers. Buy for CASH, and buy always GOOD GOODS, and at the lowest prices; and to enable the public to get goods of every grade and quality, at the lowest possible prices that they can be sold over the cost of manufacturing, C. L. JONES is conducting a large establishment on the CASH SYSTEM, and his business has now grown to such an enormous extent that he buys nearly all his goods directly of the importers and manufacturers for cash, and sells them at the smallest considerable profits, and in this way he is enabled to sell his goods at least TWENTY PER CENT. lower than all other merchants. Let any one make a calcula-tion of the amount of goods they would probably buy in one year, and they will find that 20 per cent. or one-fifth of the amount would be a considerable item. Let this run on for some Brushes of every style. years, and they will have a sum saved in amount no little consequence.

It is now admitted by all other merchants, as well as by the public generally, that C. L. JONES has the largest and best selected stock of goods ever shown before in Lewistown, and that he can undoubtedly buy goods cheaper than any other merchant—his business being so large and purchasing in such immense quantities.

Country persons visiting Lewistown to purchase goods for CASH will Soon be convinced of the foregoing facts, by calling at the Celebrated New Cheap Cash Store of C. L. JONES, and in proortion to the population of this country with Great Britain, the amount of savings might be quite equal, and probably greatly exceed the estimate made

Mason's Challenge Blacking Has induced numerous unprincipled persons to attempt an imitation of his Box LABEL, varying it slightly to evade the law, but at the same time designed to impose upon the universal confidence of consumers, in favor of Mason's Blacking; and as the counterfeit bears no resemblance to the original, except in the label, and has none of its good properties, Country Merchants, when ordering blacking,
