

The iron business in Lebanon county, says the Courier, is in a frightfully depressed condition. Neither of the five North Lebanon furnaces is now in operation; and the two splendid new furnaces which were recently erected at Cornwall, near the Ore Banks, will not be blown in. It is feared the blowing of them into operation might "have a bad effect on public opinion in England."

JAMES C. TAYLOR, of Atlantic, N. J., writes to the American Agriculturist as follows respecting the planting of Corn:—"I had the benefit of soaking corn in saltpetre, to plant, well tested last year, on a small piece of ground, planted late. I had not enough soaked to plant all the piece. Where it was not soaked, the black birds pulled about one-third; where it was soaked they seldom touched a hill. But what was most peculiar, there happened to be one row planted with dry corn between two rows that were soaked; and of the dry they took several hills clean, and, altogether, about one-third of the row, while they did not take more than one hill of the two saltpetre rows."

DROWNED.—We learn from the Bellefonte Whig, that Jacob Roush, a young man of eighteen years, was drowned in the Big Mashannon, a short distance above the saw mill of James Antes, on Friday afternoon last. He had been engaged in floating logs to the Mill, and for the purpose had constructed a small float or raft, upon which he was observed a short time before his disappearance. It is supposed that the logs of the raft parted and that he fell through, and thus got under it.

From the same paper, we learn that an interesting child, between five and six years of age, a daughter of Jacob Lilley, of that borough, was accidentally drowned in the mill-race of Wm. A. Thomas, on Saturday morning last. She had, it is supposed, attempted to cross the race on a foot bridge, and fell in.

A lawyer on his death bed, willed all his property to the Lunatic Asylum, saying as a reason for so doing that he wished his property to return to the liberal class of people who patronized him.

The Hon. Joseph Casey, who now so ably and efficiently represents the 13th District of this State in Congress, we regret to learn by a letter published in the Union Star, declines to be a candidate for re-election.

Job's question, in the 33d chapter 35th verse, "Can't thou lighten that which they may go and say unto thee here we are?" is no longer a problem. The telegraph lightning says a great deal more.

The iron for the Pittsburgh and Cleveland Railroad has been contracted for in England, and 2000 tons have been shipped. The iron will reach Cleveland by way of Quebec, and the work is to be pushed forward as rapidly as possible.

Mr. John Doyle, an Irishman, employed on the York and Harrisburg Railroad, was injured last week by the blowing up of a keg of powder, so seriously as to cause his death. He was removed to this borough on Saturday evening, where he lingered in great pain until yesterday morning, when he died.—Har. Int.

MELANCHOLY.—Miss Eliza McDowell, of Allegheny township, in this county, committed suicide, on Tuesday evening last, by cutting her throat with a penknife. She had been laboring under an attack of sickness for some months previous, and was no doubt mentally deranged when she done the unfortunate deed.—Blair Co. Whig.

ACCIDENT.—A serious, if not fatal accident happened to one of the Union Line cars, named Shaw on Monday last. The unfortunate man was standing beside his train of cars as the Express was descending, the baggage car of which jumped off the track when opposite him, catching him between the cars and injuring him so severely that but little hope is entertained of his recovery.—Hollidaysburg Standard.

The New Pavement which is being laid in the streets of New York is to cost four dollars and fifty cents per square yard. It has three several layers of sand and stones, the topstones being large granite blocks. A line of cobble stones will be laid between the granite blocks, so as to form a pavement for the horses to travel over, which is intended to obviate the complaint about horses slipping.

MILL BURN.—We are sorry to learn that the valuable Flouring Mill of Francis Gibson, Esq., situated on Sherman's creek, in Spring township, was totally consumed by fire on Thursday or Friday night last. The mill was in excellent repair, and was not insured. The cause of the fire is unknown to us.—Perry Freeman.

THE PERFECTION OF MACHINERY.—A gigantic steam hammer, the largest ever made in England, and weighing six tons, is being manufactured in Liverpool for an establishment in New York. The machinery by which it will be worked is brought to such perfection, that a thick bar of iron can be sundered by one blow of the hammer, or an egg placed in a wine glass can be clipped at the top, without breaking the glass.

Another Steamboat Disaster—Thirty to Forty Lives Lost.

On the 21st of April, the steamboat Anthony Wayne stopped at Sandusky, with 10 steerage and 20 cabin passengers. She took from the train 34 passengers, which, including her crew of 20, made in all 54 souls on board. On Sunday morning, when nearly opposite Vermillion, both boilers blew up, making a complete wreck of the boat, and hurrying from thirty-five to forty human souls into eternity!

HARRISBURG, May 1.—P. M. Our borough was thrown into great excitement this afternoon, by the cry of "Fire." First, the Exchange or Masonic Hall, in Walnut street, next to Prince's Hotel, was discovered to be on fire. The firemen were soon on the spot, and in the course of an hour, succeeded in subduing the flames.

A man named William Paxson, was killed this morning, on the railroad, near Middletown, in attempting to detach a car, while the train was in motion. He fell between the cars, and the train passed over his body, killing him instantly.

The Rev. Peter McEnally, of the Baltimore Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, died very suddenly on the 18th ult., near Philadelphia, Pa., on the mountain. He had alighted from his carriage to adjust something that was wrong, and complained of a stitch in his side, remarking that in a few moments he would be a dead man, when he almost instantly expired.

SINGULAR ENACTING OF THE CRUCIFIXION.—A Berlin paper states that there is in Russia a place called Anerdale, where a most singular custom exists. Every ten years the awful scenes of the crucifixion are enacted by the villagers. Some are dressed to represent soldiers and Jews, some as Pharisees, and many men, women and children stand around as a crowd of spectators, while on the three crosses are nailed figures in wax, and at the feet kneel women who represent the Marys. The whole scene is gone through with in all the details, and lasts all day. This very singular performance, which has been kept up since the middle ages, is announced to take place again in the month of June of this year, and strangers are invited to witness it.

SAFES

C. J. GAYLER'S SALAMANDER SAFES, Warranted Fire & Thief Proof, AND FREE FROM DAMPNESS.

THESE SAFES possess every qualification to render them proof against the action of fire or thieves, and of sufficient strength to endure a fall from any story of a burning building. They are made of wrought iron, being kneed, riveted and welded together, and lined with a perfect non-conducting fire proof mineral composition, no wood being used in their construction as in the majority of safes sold by other makers. The doors of Gayler's Safes are secured with his THIEF DETECTOR and ANTI-GUNPOWDER LOCK, which precludes the possibility of picking or blowing them open with gunpowder. Over TWO HUNDRED of these Safes have been exposed in accidental fire to the most intense heat, in many instances remaining in the burning ruins for several days, and at no time have they ever been known to fail in preserving their contents.

The public are invited to call at the BRANCH DEPOT, No. 10 EXCHANGE PLACE, PHILADELPHIA, near Dock street, and examine the numerous testimonials in favor of Gayler's Safes, also the large assortment on hand for sale at manufacturers' prices, by JOHN L. PIPER, Agent.

A NEW MEDICINE! BROWN'S ESSENCE OF JAMAICA GINGER. A VERY valuable preparation for persons recovering from fever, or other diseases, a few drops imparting to the stomach a glow and vigor equal to a glassful of brandy, or other stimulants, without any of the debilitating effects which are sure to follow the use of liquor of any kind; and it is therefore especially applicable to children and females. To the aged it will prove a great comfort; to the dyspeptic, and to those who are predisposed to gout and rheumatic affections, it gives great relief; and to the inebriate, who wishes to reform, but whose stomach is constantly craving the noxious liquor, it is invaluable—giving tone to the digestive organs, and strength to resist temptation, and is consequently a great agent in the cause of temperance. For sale by J. B. MITCHELL. Lewistown, March 22, 1850.
