Notices of Advertisements.

Mr. S. Shelp, who lately taught a large class the art and mystery of writing a fair hand, has returned to town and will open another school in a few days. Ladies and gentlemen who desire to improve themselves in penmanship, will find this an excellent opportunity to do so, as can be testified by a number who have availed themselves of his system. He refers to the following ladies and gentlemen :- Mrs. Whitman, Miss M. W. Eager, Miss S. Harvey, E. Banks, Esq., James Burns, Esq., R. Rush Franks, Esq. Col. Wm. Butler, Capt. T. Franks, Rev. T. H. W. Monroe, Rev. James S. Woods, Messrs. W Lind, C. Heisler, E. Allen, G. Davis, W. Arbuckle, W. J. Brisbin, H. W. Junkin, G. W.

Welch's Circus, with some new features added, will exhibit at McVeytown on the 21st September, and at Lewistown on the 23d. A valuable Farm, situate on the Juniata river.

is offered for sale by the heirs.

Two Auditor's notices appear to-day.

V. B. PALMER, Esq., is our Agent in Philadelphia, from whom our terms for advertising, &c. can be ascertained. We prefer in all cases that arrangements be made through him or the agents of the parties here.

OUR TICKET.

The whig ticket nominated on Monday last, will commend itself to the support of every whig in Mifflin county, composed as it is of an array of men of unquestioned character and ability, against whom not a word of detraction can be truly ut-

ANDREW McFARLAND, the nominee for Assembly, is well known throughout the valley as an industrious farmer, well acquainted with political theories and familiar with all that relates to the wants and interests of Mifflin county. That he would make an attentive and impartial representative in the Legislature, "UNAWED BY INFLUENCE AND UNBRIBED BY GAIN," no one who knows the man can for a moment doubt. The estimation in which he is held, and his sterling integrity and fitness for the office, will secure him a vote that will tell the intriguers in the late locofoco convention that there is a point "whe forbearance ceases to be a virtue."

JOHN BALSBACH, our candidate for Prothonotary, is a resident of Newton Hamilton, where he enjoys the respect and good will of all classes. He is well qualified for the post, and having lately taken to himself a lady fair for a companion, has shown himself a much better citizen than his opponent, who still remains a perverse bachelor, insensible to the charms of ' Heaven's first best gift to man.' It would serve the locofoco candidate right if all the wives and daughters in Mifflin were to electioneer against him.

For County Surveyor, the convention selected WILLIAM LYTTLE, of Lewistown, for several years a teacher in the public schools of this place-a situation he has filled in a manner satisfactory to the Board of Directors, to parents, and, what is not often the case, the children. He has a good knowledge of surveying, both practical and theoretical, and as he would without doubt zealously labor wherever required, we commend him to the support of all who wish to reward merit. We do not think his opponent, Mr. Weekes, cares much about the matter, barring being beat, and as he would soon get over that, there will not be much lost should the voters of Millin decide with us that Mr. Lyttle ought to be the man.

Col. WILLIAM CUMMINS, the nominee for Commissioner, is a gentleman extensively known, having some years ago ably represented this county in the Legislature. His qualifications are undoubted, and being himself a heavy taxpayer, his election will ensure a faithful member of the Board of Commissioners.

John W. Shaw, Esq., was unanimously nominated for the post of Prosecuting Attorney. He is a quiet and unobtrusive young man, well read in law, who would no doubt do justice to all concerned.

AUGUSTUS M. INGRAM is a well educated farmer of Decatur, who would certainly make a competent Auditor and a reliable officer.

the Poor, a post he is fully qualified to fill. From Decatur and the river district no better man could be named than Augus-TINE WAKEFIELD. In Lewistown, George W. STEWART, the present efficient Overseer, is the candidate, and as the locofocos intend to make this district the point of contention, the shafts of malevolence will of course be let loose upon him. Mr. Stewart is a whig, and was last year elected as such, though the Democrat would now wish to make it appear that he is a native. There is no such organization here, and of those who formerly adhered to Nativeism, it is well known that a majority are locofocos.

Locofoco Resolutions.

Conscious that their proceedings needed some extra propping, the Convention which nominated, and the meeting that ratified the ticket of Ross, Dull & Co., passed strong resolutions in favor of supporting regular nominations. The idea is certainly a very good one, and to men fairly dealt with, it would perhaps have some weight; but the important question arises whether those nominations were made fairly and honestly? Mr. Gibboney, we are informed, was for years solicited by influential locofocos to suffer his name to be used as a candidate for the Legislature, but until last year declined. He was then nominated, elected, and served the party with as much zeal as the most ultra could have desired. Such being the case, was he not entitled to a re-nomination, especially as the principle was settled by the reelection of Hugh M'Kee, Esq., that a representative should have two terms, unless satisfactory cause could be shown for a contrary course?

Had Mr. Gibboney been fairly dealt with by the wire-workers, no opposition of moment, and least of all a secret one, would have been made. As is frequently the case, votes might have been given to certain persons with a view of bringing them forward as candidates at a future day, and possibly it was in such a light that Mr. G's friends viewed the apparently triffing efforts made in favor of John Ross, for with the exception of those cognizant of the schemes concocted behind the curtain, not one in a hundred seemed to entertain a doubt of Mr. Gibboney's renomination. Why he was not re-nominated has not yet been explained, and we presume will not be !

Having succeeded in their efforts to get rid of the one who was entitled to their support, the attention of the leaders is of course next turned to the ways and means of electing the nominee, and the first step is to get up a cry to stick to the party! Hence the passage of the resolutions referred to above, which bear so strong an affinity to each other that there can be no doubt of their emanating from the same pen, and hence also the Democrat's constant recurrence to the same subject .-Stick to the party-that's the cry now; stick to it, right or wrong. Though censured and insulted, though scorned and derided, perhaps laughed at for credulously trusting to professions and promises never intended to be fulfilled, the first salvo offered is to stick to the party by sustaining regular nominations, no matter how irregularly made!

It now remains to be seen whether the democracy" of Mifflin county will continue to submit to the dictation which has so often heretofore led them into absurd inconsistencies on the subjects of the tariff, on banks, one term principles, &c., and at times to support men who were by no means their choice or worthy of their suffrages-all too effected by the cry that is again raised of sticking to the party. They have seen that no regard is paid to usages at times strongly advocated as necessary, but that if certain ends are to be reached, they are regardless as to the means used to effect them. These are truths-not very palatable, perhaps, but truths nevertheless-and we can only add that if, under such circumstances, the rank and file ratify the doings of their leaders, they will show themselves worthy of becoming pack-horses to the new firm of Ross, Dull & Co. for all time to come.

The Valley Spirit thinks if Mr. Banks adopted our advice to prosecute the locofoco editors for libel, it would be on the principle that the greater the truth the greater the libel. Not at all. Were we to affirm the reverse of that uttered by a few of the locofoco journals, the principle might be applied to us, but to fawning, sycophantic soft-soaping never.

Some portions of the whig ticket, the Democrat alleges, is not qualified, and then roundly asserts that every one of its candidates is! Perhaps our neighbor can satisfy some locofocos who are curious in such matters by informing them what JAMES M. BROWN will unquestionably Thomas Stroup has for Commissioner

The Pennsylvanian, formerly a textbook of locofocoism, as was evidenced from the fact that one-half of all the political matter contained in the country papers was but a reprint of its columns, is now receiving kicks from all quarters. The Democrat, after copying some editorial correspondence, appends the following dig at the ribs of the "talented Forney" and Pennsylvania's favorite son:

"All of which is no doubt meant to say, that if Mr. Buchanan is not nominated, Messrs. For ney & Co. will play Van Buren on the democracy of Pennsylvania. The Pennsylvanian is growing altogether too dictatorial. We have been through the State some, and we are perfectly satisfied that the old veteran of Michigan is the choice of the mass of the people, who feel that he was defrauded out of an election in 1848. and whose confidence in his integrity and patri otism remains unchanged. The democracy of Pennsylvania can settle these matters for them-selves, without the aid of any of Mr. Buchanan's adjutants to prescribe the way.

This promises to turn out a most interesting melee, in which we whigs can take the position held by the old gentleman when his wife and a bear had a regular rough and tumble fight-he didn't care which whipped; but still we cannot but consider it a shame that, after having flattered Buchanan for years with hopes of the Presidency, they should now turn round and kick him into the grave of oblivion without even a decent interment.

The editor of the Juniata Register. who knows a great deal more about Mr. Banks than anybody else, though almost a stranger to that gentleman, says the locofoco ticket " will most undoubtedly be elected by an increased majority" in this county !!! The same knowing editor, in his last paper, calls Henry W. Snyder, the whig candidate for Auditor General, an "old granny." Were he a lawyer, like Mr. Banks, we suppose his opinion of Mr. Snyder's merits would rise in proportion, but as the latter is only a well-educated farmer, and the son of old Simon Snyder, he's an "old granny."

We are requested to say that the Democrat's statement of the vote on instructions to the Congressional Conferces is incorrect. The vote on the tally-list stood 19 to 6, and two of the latter were not opponents of Gen. Irwin, but voted against instructing the Conferees because opposed to such a course.

The ticket nominated by the locofocos is designated up the river as " Ross, DULL & Co." Thereby hangs a tale !

HUNTINGDON COUNTY .- The Whigs of Huntingdon county met in county convention on Wednesday of last week and placed in nomination the following county ticket: Assembly-Wm. B. Smith, of Jackson tp.

Sheriff-Wm. B. Zeigler, of Huntingdon Commissioner—Benjamin Leas, of Shirley. County Surveyor—William Christy, of Porter. Pros. At .- J. Sewell Stewart, of Huntingdon. Auditor-Kenzie L. Green, of Clay.

James Clark, John Huyette, and Dr. D. Diller were appointed Congressional Conferees, with instructions to support Dr. John M'Culloch for Congress.

Hays Hamilton, John Wattson, and Peter Kessler were appointed Senatorial Conferees, and instructed to support A. K. Cornyn, Esq., for Senator.

Hon. JESSE MILLER, editor of the Keystone, died at his residence in Harrisburg on Tuesday last, of congestive fever. Mr. Miller was an ardent politician, and has filled various political stations. Under the administration of the late Gov. Shunk he held the office of Secretary of the Commonwealth, having previously served as a member of the Board of Canal Commissioners, member of Congress, Auditor of U. S. Treasury, and in various other capacities.

THON. JOHN SNYDER, late of Union county, died at his residence in that county on Friday last. Mr. S. was the eldest son of the late Gov. Snyder, and half-brother IRWIN of Henry W. Snyder, Esq., the Whig candidate for Auditor General.

The Camp Meeting on Mr. Dunmire's place closed yesterday morning. With the exception of some wet days, it passed off agreeably, and so far as we can learn without any disturbance.

Four hundred tents were up on the Shrewsbury camp ground, York county, on Sunday last, and an immense number persons in attendance.

Armagh, John M'Dowell. William Ramsey On motion, Major WM. RAMSEY was ap pointed chairman, and R. Rush FRANKS and GEO. W. M'BRIDE, appointed Secretaries.

Nominations for the different offices were ther made, and after a full interchange of opinion, the following ticket was agreed upon:

ASSEMBLY. ANDREW M'FARLAND, of Armagh township. PROTHONOTARY. JOHN BALSBACH, of Newton Hamilton. COUNTY SURVEYOR. WILLIAM LYTTLE, of Lewistown.

COMMISSIONER. WILLIAM CUMMINS, of Armagh township. AUDITOR. AUGUSTUS M. INGRAM, of Decatur township.

PROSECUTING ATTORNEY, JOHN W. SHAW, of Lewistown.

Brown, Armagh, Union and Menno JAMES M. BROWN, of Armagh, 3 years. Decatur, Derry, Granville, Oliver, Bratton, Wayne Newton Hamilton and McVeutown.

DIRECTORS OF THE POOR,

AUGUSTINE WAKEFIELD, of Oliver, 2 years.

Borough of Lewistown, GEORGE W. STEWART, 1 year. The subjoined resolutions were then offered, read and adopted:

Resolved. That while this convention deplores he unlooked for event which deprived a nation of the brave and accomplished connection with the gallant soldiers under his command, upheld our flag against fearful odds on the plains of Mexico, and of a President whose only aim was the good of his country yet, as Whigs, we can rejoice that the mantle has fallen upon a statesman as eminent as Mil-EARD FILLMORE. Of undoubted patriotism, of unquestioned purity of purpose, and irreproach-able in private and public life, we can confide in his administration as embodying all that a Whig can ask or wish for.

Resolved, That the administration of Governor Johnston meets with a hearty response at the hands of the people. He has done much to re-trieve the fair fame of the Executive chair from the stigmas attached to it by the misdeeds of rulers elected by locofoco votes-has made a good beginning in reducing the State debt, and had all the measures recommended by him been adopted by the Legislature, a fair prospect would have opened for the gradual extinguishment of the State liabilities.

Resolved, That while we have no words of $37\frac{1}{2}$ cents a copy. abuse to utter against Ephraim Banks or his associates on the locofoco State ticket, the language of their own party papers is sufficient to condemn one of them as unfit for the office for which he was nominated, and as men are generally judged by the company they keep, we think our candidates, Dungan, Snyder, and Henderson. are vastly preferable to Morison, Banks, and Brawley.

Resolved, That Samuel Calvin, our present representative in Congress, has proved himself an able advocate of our interests—an attentive member-and a true Whig; and that we deeply regret his determination to decline a re-nom

Resolved, That we pledge ourselves to give a long pull, a strong pull, and a pull altogether, to the ticket this day nominated without bargain, intrigue or under specious pleas, but by delegates elected without pledges of any kind, who, after due deliberation, have chosen men as candidates whose lives and conduct commend them to the favorable consideration of the people. Resolved, That L. T. Wattson, John Kerr, and

J. F. Cottrell, Esqrs., be and are hereby appointed conferees to represent Mifflin county in the Congressional Conferee Meeting to be held at M'Veytown on Tuesday, 27th instant, (should that day be concurred in by Blair, Centre, and Huntingdon counties,) or such day as may be mutually agreed upon-with instructions to port the nomination of Gen. WILLIAM H.

SAMUEL HAMAN, of M'Veytown, was named as Senatorial Delegate to the Whig State Convention, and Joseph R. Smith, of Lewistown, Representative.*

The following gentlemen were appointed a standing County Committe for the ensuing year: C. Hoover, Esq., West Ward, Lewistown. John Davis, East Ward, Charles Caughlin, Newton Hamilton. John W. Hart, Wayne. John Walters, M'Veytown. Charles Bratton, Bratton. Geo. H. Galbraith, Oliver. John Ruble, Granville. Samuel Graham, Derry. T. G. Sterrett, Decatur. James M. Lashell, Menno Isaac Stirk, Union.

William Brothers, Brown

Robert M. Kinsloe, Armagh.

*As Chairman of the County Committee we may remark that the appointment of Delegates to the State Convention was not contemplated in the call issued for a county convention. The usual course has always been to call a county meeting for that special purpose when the candidates likely to appear before the State Convention were known. We have no objection to either of the gentlemen named, but as the convention which made these nominations failed to cessary to hold a county meeting for that purpose.

Congress .- None of the important bills which were passed in the Senate have been acted on in the House, and some entertain a belief that the abolitionists of the North and the ultra slavery men of the Southa most strange union-will combine to defeat them. We trust, however, that there are liberal-minded men enough in Congress who can look at public measures in the light a patriot and statesman would view them, and act for the good of our common country. He who expects to have everything his own way in this land of "free thought," can hardly be called a good citizen, because from the nature of our institutions and diversity of interests, there must always be a concession from one portion to the other on any question affecting the north, south, or west. In this light we feel confident the people view the bills so

In the equestrian department, one of the leading, and from their novelty the most striking feature, are the wonderful exploits of the Wild Rider, EATON STONE. This extraordinary equestrian, of whose skill and daring vo-umes have been written wherever he has performed, ap-pears in two distinct acts of horsemanship, in neither of which does he use saddle or bridle on his superb steeds, though they are both as wild and apparently untameable as when first lassoed by him on the Pampas of South America. Their leaps are truly terrific, and it is impossible to describe the sensations of the beholder as he watches the motions of horse and rider, which are in perfect unison, and which convey to the mind a strong picture of the
