Nomination for Congress.

Dr. JOHN McCULLOCH, of Huntingdon county, as will be seen by the proceedings of the congressional conference, was placed in nomination on Tuesday last as the whig candidate for Congress from this district. He is a gentleman well and favorably known, of unblemished character, and will make a representative who will ably and faithfully attend to the interests of his constituents. Andy Parker can now hang his free trade fiddle on the willows of Patterson, as he will undoubtedly meet with a "glorious defeat."

The Union County Address.

We invite general attention to the Exposure on our first page, made by the old-fashioned democrats of Union county against the corrupt leaders who, when they cannot attain their ends by fair means, resort to foul, and bring to their aid money or whatever appliance is necessary. In many things this address will answer for Millin county, for here too trickery, bargain, intrigue, and the power of money were brought to operate on the delegate elections, and where that would not answer the polls were opened and shut so as to elect delegates of the right stamp. In Union it will be seen that men who have for years supported nominations made by the ruling clique, although frequently against their better judgment, have at length determined to take a bold and open stand against the combination, and in doing so acknowledge that the party needs a thorough purification, or it will soon fly into fragments from the corruption with which it is blended.

THE OLD GRAVE YARD.—We are pleased to see that the dilapidated stone wall formerly surrounding this time-honored spot, has given place in part to a beautiful iron railing, obtained from the proceeds of the ladies' fair held a year or two since. It is much to be regretted that sufficient funds cannot be obtained to complete this improvement on Water street, and if no other scheme can be devised, we hope that the Burgess and Town Council will lend a helping hand.

COLEMAN INKS.—Dr. Hale, of the Bee Hive Drug Store, has furnished us with a bottle of Harrison's Columbian Ink, which, from experience, we can recommend as a very superior article. It is free from sediment, of a beautiful color which improves by age, flows freely from the pen, and consequently assists the duller writer in putting his thoughts on paper. Try it.

GODBY'S LADY'S BOOK for October is already upon our table, filled with well-written contributions and a number of unusually fine engravings, among which are "Which is the Mother, the Fortune Teller, Happiness, Mountain Air and City Graces." In addition there are many other illustrations, such as patterns in embroidery, needlework, knitting, model cottages, &c.

Congressional Conference.

Pursuant to previous notice, the Conferees from the several counties of the 17th Congressional District met at Mowen's Hotel, in Lewistown, on Tuesday, 3d instant, and organized by electing ROBERT CAMPBELL of Centre, President, and A. K. M'CLURE of Juniata, Secretary.

The following Conferees presented their credentials, and took their seats:
Centre—Robert Campbell, Edward C. Humes, Samuel R. Patton.
Millin—J. F. Cottrell, John Kerr, John A. Sterrett.
Huntingdon—James Clark, William Moore, John N. Swope.
Blair—Alexander M'Kamey, Philip Breidenbaugh, Jacob S. Nicodemus.
Juniata—John M. Pumroy, Dr. G. I. Cuddy, A. K. M'Clure.
On motion, the Conference adjourned to meet again at 1 o'clock.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Conference met pursuant to adjournment. Mr. Pumroy moved that the Conference proceed to nominate candidates. Adopted.
Mr. Cottrell nominated Gen. Wm. H. Irwin, of Millin.
Mr. Nicodemus nominated Dr. Alexander M'Kamey, of Blair.
Mr. M'Kamey nominated Dr. John McCulloch, of Huntingdon.
Dr. M'Kamey peremptorily declined being considered a candidate for nomination, and his name, after some discussion, was withdrawn.
On motion, the nominations were closed, and the Conference proceeded to ballot.
Messrs. Humes, Patton, Clark, Moore, Swope, M'Kamey, Breidenbaugh, Nicodemus, Pumroy, Cuddy, M'Clure and Campbell—12, voted for DR. JOHN McCULLOCH, of Huntingdon.
Messrs. Cottrell, Kerr and Sterrett—3, voted for Gen. Wm. H. IRWIN, of Millin.
Dr. McCulloch, of Huntingdon county, having a majority of the whole vote, was declared duly nominated as the whig candidate for Congress; and on motion, the nomination was unanimously concurred in.
Messrs. Clark, Moore and Swope were appointed a committee to inform Dr. McCulloch of his nomination, and request his acceptance of it.
The following resolutions were then submitted and unanimously adopted:
Resolved, That while we deeply deplore the great national bereavement that has befallen us in the death of Gen. ZACHARY TAYLOR, late President of the United States, we can look with confidence upon his successor, MILLARD FILLMORE, and feel assured that his sagacious statesmanship, purity of purpose, and unwavering adherence to Whig principles will ensure us an administration that we can cordially approve.
Resolved, That the administration of Wm. F. JOHNSON meets our unqualified approbation; that his untiring efforts to bring our tax-ridden Old Commonwealth back to her ancient prosperity, by taking effective measures to reduce our State debt, and secure adequate protection to domestic industry, must commend him to every true-hearted Pennsylvanian.
Resolved, That Hon. SAMUEL CALVIN has faithfully represented the Iron District, and that we recognize in him a true Whig, and a reliable Representative.
Resolved, That Dr. JOHN McCULLOCH, of Huntingdon county, is entitled to the cordial and unanimous support of the Whigs of this district, and that we will leave no honorable means untried to secure his election by a triumphant majority.
Resolved, That these proceedings be signed by the officers and published in the Whig papers of the District.
ROBERT CAMPBELL, President.
A. K. M'CLURE, Secretary.

The following letter, addressed to the editor of the Gazette, speaks the sentiments of a good Whig, and will find a ready response throughout the entire district. Gen. IRWIN having submitted his name to the action of the conferees, so far from feeling dissatisfied at the result, returns thanks for the partiality manifested for him in Millin county, and is now ready to do battle in favor of Dr. McCulloch against the great gun of free trade in this district, Andy Parker, or any other locofoco who may be nominated.

LEWISTOWN, Sept. 5th, 1850.
Mr. Frysinger—I embrace the first opportunity to declare, in the most public manner, my entire satisfaction with the action of the Whig Conference Convention of this Congressional District. Dr. JOHN McCULLOCH, the whig nominee, is a gentleman of excellent sense, sound political opinions, and great personal popularity, and I have no doubt that his triumphant election will vindicate the wisdom of the choice of the convention. Unanimity and activity will ensure our success. Our candidate is an avowed and uncompromising friend of a Protective Tariff, the one great measure to which Pennsylvania looks for safety and prosperity, and the real, the only issue between the Whig and the so-called Democratic Party is, Free Trade or Protection to American Industry. Let this issue be fairly and powerfully presented to the people—let them remember that they are choosing, not only a representative of themselves in the National Legislature, but the representative there of one great principle, and the result will not be doubtful.

Permit me, Mr. Editor, to tender to the whigs of Millin county my heartfelt thanks for the distinguished mark of their confidence and esteem which the unbroken vote of their conferees gave to me in convention. It was exceedingly gratifying to me to receive this indication of the attachment of my native county, and it has increased (if that be possible) my devotion to the success of the principles of the whig party. Defeated for the nomination, yet in no wise dishonored, I retire from the contest cheerfully and without complaint. My successful friend has my kindest feelings, and shall have, with a hearty good will, whatever aid my humble abilities can give to secure his election.
Very respectfully yours,
W. H. IRWIN.

CENTRE COUNTY.—The Whigs of Centre county, on the 28th ult., nominated Wm. R. Harrison for Assembly; Philip B. Waddle for Commissioner; David Whitmer for Auditor, and W. G. Waring for Surveyor.
The Democrat has made some very logical discoveries in reference to the whig congressional nomination, by which it would make it appear that the whig leaders of Millin control the five counties composing this district. Our neighbor's vision, we presume, was bounded by some very green grass when he penned that article.

Mr. Gibboney, the Democrat, and the Whigs.
The Democrat of yesterday has the following paragraph, which we copy for the purpose of making some comments:
"The sincerity of our neighbor's sympathies for Mr. Gibboney might have been made somewhat more apparent, had himself or his party manifested the same interest in his election when he was a candidate, that they now do for him, because he did not get the nomination this year. Mr. Gibboney fully appreciates your designs, and will evince it by giving his support to the Democratic ticket. When he asks for sympathy he will look in another quarter for it."
Now we beg leave to say that the Gazette has offered no sympathies to Mr. Gibboney, and never intended to do so; but on the contrary we have all along said, and still say, that in the Legislature Mr. G. was ultra enough for the most ultra locofoco, and supported a number of the most violent partizan measures, no matter how unjust to the whigs—yet with all these recommendations to party favor, he was insultingly thrown aside, without explanation, and as many good locofocos believe without cause. It is to this censure on him and his conduct—for such it truly is—and the trickery by which it was effected, that we have drawn public attention, and we shall continue to do so until the wire-walkers, who, under false pretences, procured a majority of delegates favorable to John Ross, make known through their organ why Mr. Gibboney was so summarily rejected from a nomination to which, by the usages of the party, he was clearly entitled. Thus far, as we have heretofore shown, the Democrat has had no response to the charges alleged against the unfairness of Ross' nomination, but has had an abundance of advice to the cheated to STICK TO THE PARTY, because it alleges its candidates "are not men who change their politics as they would their stockings, but firm, honest, reliable democrats, ever ready to do their whole duty as men and citizens,"—see yesterday's Democrat—which being interpreted into plain English, means, we suppose, that Mr. Gibboney did not fill these requisitions and that John Ross did! Or, if it don't mean that, why was the former not renominated? Why was not the same courtesy extended to him that there was to Hugh McKee and every other locofoco member within our recollection except Major Wilson, who was made to walk the plank under the one term plea? If the Democrat can explain this matter it will much oblige us, and probably Mr. Gibboney, as well as a number of the "democracy" who cannot understand all the ground and lofty tumbling, (rivaling anything that will be performed in Robinson & Eldred's or Welch's Circus,) practiced by their leaders within the last seven or eight years.

As for Mr. Gibboney appreciating our designs, asking for sympathy in another quarter when he needs any, and giving "his support to the democratic ticket," he can do as he pleases without incurring our censure or flattery. For aught we care, he may lick the hand that smote him—return thanks for having dragged him into public life, and then sent him back under an implied censure—slip on a collar labelled Ross, Dull & Co., and help to place in office one who don't change his politics as he would his stockings, but a firm, honest, reliable Democrat like John Ross! He can do all this, and we have no fault to find. But having been brought forward for re-nomination, and swindled out of a second term by the political tricksters who have not even the face to deny the act, it is within the compass of "our business" to hold it up to the people of this county, and instead of going on a wild-goose chase in search of the "philosophers' stone," as recommended by the Democrat, we shall keep throwing stones at more tangible matters at least once a week from now until the October election. In the meantime let those whom the shoes fit wear them.

WANTED! WANTED!

The newspapers, says the Chambersburg Whig, are advertising for the following rare curiosities, which they won't get, viz:—a measure which the loco party has advocated unwaveringly for ten consecutive years—a pledge which they have honestly redeemed—a Locofoco Legislature that never chartered a Bank—a candidate for office who never deceived his constituents—a Locofoco executive who cared more for the prosperity of the country than for the ascendancy of his party—a Locofoco convention at which there was no villainy practised, and last, though, not least, a sample of that party's consistency.

Madam Rumor hath it that Parker is not over-anxious to take the field for Congress against Dr. McCulloch, and wouldn't have much objection to yield the honor of a defeat to somebody else. We suspect that his pocket bled pretty freely two years ago, and that he finds being a free trade candidate for Congress in this district nets a good deal of expense and little honor.

ERRAND BANKS, the Democratic candidate, has every qualification, and will make a valuable officer. He is a just, high minded, honorable man, and entitled to the respect and confidence of his fellow citizens. He is a tariff man. Not wedded to the tariff of 1846, but in favor of a tariff that will protect labor and encourage industry.—Hollidaysburg Standard.

We have no objection to the laudations extraordinary in the first part of the Standard's article, but the statement that Mr. Banks is in favor of a tariff that will protect labor and encourage industry is considerably over a mile from the truth, unless it is intended to mean that he is in favor of a tariff like that of '46, which protects British labor and British industry in preference to our own. So far from being a tariff man, we think Mr. Banks was an advocate of low duties when the locofocos of this county professed to be better tariff men than the whigs. He endorses the Baltimore Platform in full, slavery, low duties and all, as did the convention which nominated him, and we dare say is ready to go for DIRECT TAXATION AND ABOLITION OF ALL DUTIES whenever a National Convention will lay that down as "democracy."

The late election in Virginia for members of the Convention to amend the Constitution, has resulted in the return of a large majority of "Reformers," and there will probably be a thorough revision of the present Constitution. At least we hope so. We have for years heard a good deal about Virginia "Republicanism," but there is very little of it to be found in their present State Constitution.

NEW JUDGE.—Hon. GEORGE SMYSER having resigned the post of Associate Judge of the several Courts of Adams county, Gov. Johnson has appointed as his successor, SAMUEL R. RUSSELL, Esq., of Gettysburg, a brother of Wm. Russell, Esq., of this place. The Star says the appointment is universally conceded to be an excellent one, Judge RUSSELL being possessed of every requisite for a competent, judicious and faithful discharge of the duties of the station.

The Whigs of the 23d district, met at Warren on the 23d ult., and nominated JOHN H. WALKER, Esq., of Erie, as their candidate for Congress. Mr. Walker is now the Senator from Erie in the State Senate, of which body he is one of the most able and distinguished members.

JOHN SNODGRASS, Esq., of Westmoreland county, of Portage Railroad memory, has been nominated as the Locofoco candidate for Congress in the district composed of Bedford, Westmoreland and Cambria. The nomination has created quite a hub-bub in the district.

Joseph Higgins, late a member of the Legislature from Blair county, has announced himself as a volunteer candidate for the Senate, and William T. Wilson, formerly a resident of Lewistown, offers to run as a candidate for Register and Recorder in opposition to the regular nominee. The Standard man always said that Higgins was of the mulish order, and we begin to suspect that his opinion was right. Wilson, we fear, has listened to evil counsel, and he may yet live to regret having taken it, as least of all there any excuse for one to turn disorganizer who but lately edited a whig paper in which the support of regular nominations was strongly advocated.

The Hon. THOMAS M. T. MCKENNAN has sent to the President the following letter resigning the office of Secretary of the Interior, upon which he so lately entered.

WASHINGTON, Pa., Aug. 26, 1850.
MY DEAR SIR:—I respectfully tender to you my resignation of the Department of the Interior, to which you did me the honor of calling me.

This determination has not been reached without the most serious and anxious deliberation. A conscientiousness of my peculiar nervous temperament, which too readily responds to causes of excitement and depression, would have prompted me, in the first place, to decline the offer; but the kind manner of the appointment, accompanied by the good wishes of the Cabinet, and backed by the pressing urgency of friends, made so strong an impression upon me as to leave me no alternative but to accept. A brief experience of the arduous labors and onerous responsibilities of the position, in connection with considerations of a private and domestic nature, which press upon me with great force, has brought me to the conclusion that a due observance of duty to my family and myself require my withdrawal.

In thus dissolving my official association with you, permit me to say, that I cherish a confident reliance upon the patriotism, capability, and worth of every member of the Administration, and a hopeful assurance of its success. To this end no effort of mine, in my retirement, shall at any time be wanting.
May I not also assure you of my grateful appreciation of the kindness extended to me by you and your official associates.
With respectful and sincere regard, I am yours, faithfully,
THOMAS M. T. MCKENNAN.
His EX. MILLARD FILLMORE,
President of the United States.

Great Floods.
The heavy rains of Sunday last caused the streams in the eastern and southern counties of this State to rise to an unusual height, and more damage was sustained than by the great flood in July. In Lancaster, York, Berks, Schuylkill, Montgomery, Philadelphia, &c., mills, houses, bridges, fences, timber and lumber were carried off in every direction, and in some instances attended with the loss of life. At Fairmount, the Schuylkill was three feet higher than in July, and prevented the machinery from working; it also submerged a portion of the gas works, leaving the city for several hours in almost total darkness. We subjoin some telegraphic despatches:

ALLENTOWN, Pa., Sept. 3.—The freshet has been most disastrous along the Lehigh. The water rose six feet in a few hours, being higher than the greatest in July last. The loss cannot be estimated at present. All along the shores small buildings and property of various kinds have been swept away, farms inundated, &c. The losses to several of the sufferers will be ruinous. It will take some weeks to repair the damage to the canals. The waters are now (3 o'clock, P. M.) receding, and the greatest danger is over.

POTTSVILLE, Pa., Sept. 3.—Several of the coal mines are inundated, and the damage throughout the region is immense. From what I can learn here it will take fully a week to repair the damage on the Reading Railroad, and it is doubtful whether the Schuylkill Canal will be able to get any more coal through this season. Several of the large dams are carried away. Between thirty and forty houses were swept away from Tamaqua. Sixteen lives were lost at Schall's forge, above Fort Clinton, fourteen at Jones' forge, and several between Mount Carbon and Schuylkill Haven.

READING, Pa., Sept. 2, 1850.—11 P. M.—About daylight the water commenced rising, and is rising to this moment. It is some four or five feet higher than ever known before. The whole of the western and southern parts of the town are under water to Third street. The destruction of property is immense. Boats have been employed in rescuing people all day. The bridge known as the Harrisburg bridge is entirely swept away; the first span went at 9 o'clock, and the others in the course of the morning. The Lancaster bridge is also entirely gone. Several large bridges have come down the river, and it is supposed none remain. One brick house with seven persons in it, with the water at the second story window, was suddenly crushed together and fell—all lost. A woman, floating down the river on a log, was saved by a boat. Twelve hundred hogs, the property of Mr. Bushong, distiller, have been scattered and drowned. Houses in large numbers have been swept away, and others are filled to the second story. Immense quantities of lumber, wood, &c., swept away. The gas works are full of water, also nine rolling mills on the river.

In Schuylkill county, the loss is estimated at one million of dollars, and the loss from Schuylkill county to Philadelphia cannot be much less.

FOREIGN NEWS.
JENNY LIND, the celebrated Swedish Nightingale, arrived in New York on Sunday, by the steamer Atlantic. Her arrival created a great sensation in the city. She is to give her first concert on Wednesday evening next—tickets $3.

The political news from Europe by the Atlantic is not important.

LATER.—The Hibernia arrived at Halifax on Wednesday with news from Europe to the 24th. The crops in Ireland are very abundant. There is but little potato rot. In France matters looked rather stormy. The President had been turned out of a ballroom at Brissou, and the room had to be cleared at the point of the bayonet. The Holsteiners had dislodged the Danish outposts at Kropp, and their whole army had left Rensburg, and advanced in the direction of the Danish position. In Germany affairs are becoming more and more complicated. Several heavy failures are reported at Hamburg. Cotton had slightly advanced on speculation, but flour and grain continue low.

IMPORTANT DECISION.—We see it stated that the Supreme Court of this State has decided that an Administrator to an estate, who fails in a suit instituted by himself, is personally liable for the costs. This is a decision which it is important should be generally known.
