The watchman of the railroad bridge at Petersburg, was killed on Tuesday last, by the locomotive, and another man is said to have been killed on the same day, at Duncannon. Both these men were on the track, one of them we believe asleep, and the other perhaps not sober. It is really astonishing that any one should be so foolhardy as to make a railroad, with trains passing up or down every few hours, a place for taking a nap.

The last of the series of compromise measures, being the bill for the suppression of the slave trade in the District of Columbia, passed the Senate finally on Monday by the decisive vote of 33 to 19. When it was under consideration in the Senate on Thursday last, Mr. Seward of New York, offered an amendment abolishing Slavery in the District, which was rejected by a vote of yeas 5 nays 45! The Senators who voted in the affirmative, were Messrs. Chase of Ohio, Dodge of Wis., Hale of N. H. Seward of New York, and Upham of Vermont.

ADDRESS of the Whig State Central Committee, to the Freemen of Pennsylvania.

FELLOW CITIZENS: The Election is approachng, and we all have an important duty to per-orm. To discharge that duty fully, faithfully, and successfully, should be made a high object with every good citizen. The offices of Canal Commissioner, Auditor General, and Surveyor General, the last two recently made elective, are all dependent on the popular voice. The control of the public works, the regulation of the land office, and the supervision of the finan-ces of the State, are matters of grave oncern to the people. It becomes their interest as well as their duty to elect honest and intelligent mea. The policy of dividing the canal board in its political character, so that the interests of all may be fairly represented and honestly guarded, must be of vious to every reflecting tax-paying citizen. The propriety too of surrounding the head of the State Administration with able advisers of the same political sentiment, must be equally appa-The Whig Convention which assembled at Philadelphia in June last, placed in nomination for these offices, gentlemen of the highest character for ability and integrity. We know them to be eminently worthy men. We believe their election would be honorable to our party, and of service to the State; therefore we sincerely recommend them to your earnest support.

The election of Members of the Legislature ossesses unusual interest, from the fact that at their next session they are to apportion the State for the Congressional representation, and to elect a United States Senator to serve for a period of six years, from the fourth of March next. experience of last winter has taught us that in rder to secure a fair and honest Apportionment Bill, it is necessary to have a Whig majority in The importance of having anthe Legislature. other voice in the Senste, to speak for the interests of Pennsylvania, cannot be overrated. It s important also to uphold and sustain our State Executive, in the line of policy he has adopted, policy which is largely increasing the revenues of the State, providing for the reduction of the ublic debt, and making productive our unfinshed improvements. A wise system of measures, which is rapidly redeeming the Commonwealth from the low condition in which the corruption and misrule of former administrations ad plunged her.

The election of Members of Congress is also of the utmost consequence. The interests of HAMS & SIDES, our State depend on the election of good men. The great body of the people of Pennsylvania demand a change of the tariff. They are told that it is inexpedient. For four years they have been struggling against legislation which closes heir coal mines and their workshops -which prers the foreign capitalist in their own market. giving bread to foreign labor which is required or the support of their own. The fires of our 200 Iron works have gone out, the hands of 20,-000 laborers are idle. Every branch of industry, Agricultural, Mining, Mechanical, and Manufacturing is suffering. A change is required, such a change as will better develope the resources of the State, and more prefitably employ the labor of our people. We want men who are orthodox on this subject. Men, too, of firmness of courage, and of high intelligence, on whose wisdom, moderation, and patriotism, we and difficulty can rely in periods of danger and difficulty. Men regarding the interests of their constituents, and at the same time looking to the integrity, harmony, and stability of the Union.

Our opponents are already in the field. They have published their manifesto, proclaiming their virtues, and our infirmities, in the true spirit of the pharisee. They talk of Galphins, of frauds and of speculations with which they are most familiar, abusing with good set phrase and rounded period every department of the Nation-Administration. The highest standard of democratic merit is avowed to be an observance f the usages, an attendance upon the caucuses nd a stern adherence to nominations by the This constitutes the ceremonial of eir political worship, never to be abandoned, matter what pledges have been violated, or what public interests are to be sacrificed.

We contend for the entire freedom of opinion nd action. Opinion should be free as air, and s intelligent as education can make it. Men not born blind, or with collars on their necks. We want good order, just daws and the honest ministration of business

Our opponents talk of honest agents and low salaries, while their candidates wore for increased pay and higher emoluments. Who have had ntrol of the public works for the last 12 years? Who have audited the public accounts, forgeting law and propriety? Who have used the public works for personal and party purpose? What Canal Commissioners have gambled for ones with the people's money, rewarding poliical emissacies, or in openly corrupting the ballot box. The Williamsport Convention made startling disclosures. We stand in the light of Democratic revelation. On their own oathsthemselves being judges-they are condemned. While we have profound reason to mourn the loss of our distinguished chief, the President of the United States, summoned hence at an alarming crisis in our national affairs, we are yet pernitted to rejoice that his mantle of office has fallen on the shoulders of one so able and so worthy to wear it. Never in the history of the country have our foreign relations been more ably, more successfully, or more gloriously maintained than during this administration, and never in the history of our State have the interets of the Commonwealth been more carefully guarded or her honor more nobly defended. Let us then rally around and support them-

t us maintain the principless we profess. To ould succeed, we must go to work. We must ganize thoroughly, efficiently, and immediatein every district, county, ward, and town-P. lish it wherever it can be done, and sustain it when established. It is the great moral lever which moves the world. The widest dissemination of correct principles, and the highest inculcation of sound political doctrine, should be encouraged in every possible way. cess of the Whig party is based on the intelligence of the people.

The past is full of encouragement, and the future is full of hope. Let the same spirit which moved us in 1840 and 1848 move us now, and we shall triumph. Let our faith be a living faith, and victory is certain.

HENRY M. FULLER, Chairman.

Syracuse, N. Y., Sept. 14.—The Convention, composed of Barnburners and Hunkers, which has been in session here some days, nominated Horatio Seymour for Governor, and Sandford E.
