Millin County Agricultural Exhibition and Fair.

Contrary to general expectation, the exhibition and fair of the Millin County Agricultural Society, held on Tuesday and Wednesday last, became a scene of unusual attraction.

State Agricultural Fair.

The number of strangers that visited Harrisburg last week is said to be without a parallel, and indicates that there is at least a general interest manifested by all classes in the latest improvement in implements, in stock, in the various products of the soil, as well as other matters of utility and ornament.

The exhibition of horses was very superior, both of bloods and cross-breeds, and did great credit to the zeal and attention which our farmers have manifested in the improvement of this noble animal.

The bull-pen attracted much attention. Durlham, Devonshire, and other breeds, were fully represented by their descendants in our own State, and it was allowed by all that they had no more deteriorated by transplantation to our soil, than those who had taken so much pains to foster and protect them.

Among the feathered tribe on exhibition, were numerous specimens of the Shanghai breed, the largest fowl of which we have any knowledge. These were exhibited by Andrew M. Spangler, of Lancaster county.

Among the articles at the Fair from this county were, cases of various birds by J. Thomas; a case of splendid artificial flowers by Wm. Mitchell, of Dry Valley, the work of his daughter, for which a premium was awarded; a model of a patented invention for setting up ten pins, by Thomas E. Shull; a patent machine for chopping grain, by J. D. Owens.

A large number of pickpockets were on the ground, and among the persons robbed was Wm. Furey, Treasurer of Centre county, who lost about $1000 in cash and $1300 in school drafts, as he was getting out of the cars. Two noted thieves have been arrested at Philadelphia, charged with the crime, but the money has thus far not been recovered.

A correspondent of the Ledger notices some other matters as follows: A very large number of threshing machines are on exhibition, and several horse power machines. Of the latter, Pelton's Trippe-gear power appeared to be the favorite.

Mr. Pelton is quite a young man, but he no doubt possesses considerable mechanical genius. As valuable as his power machine is, he has not been able to obtain a patent for it. He belongs to Lancaster county. E. Whitman, of Baltimore county, Md., exhibits a large number of thrashing machines and farming tools, some of which possess much merit.

Jesse Roberts, of Norristown, exhibits his patent grain and seed fan, said to possess many advantages. J. Bamborough shows his fanning mills, which obtained the premium of the Lancaster county fair in 1848. It is able to clean from 100 to 120 bushels per hour.

J. Montgomery, of Lancaster, shows his improved Rockaway fan; H. W. Smith, of Lancaster county, shows his improved patent drill, which is recommended for its strength, durability, and simplicity. G. Robinson, of Franklin county, shows Mumma's patent corn sheller, which obtained the silver medal at the Maryland State Fair, held in Baltimore, 1850. William Crousdale, exhibits his patent seed drill, and broadcast sower.

The ploughing match being over, the premiums on stock, &c. were awarded. The premium for the best Durham bull over three years old, was awarded to James Gowen, of Philadelphia; Henry Sherbourne's fine stallion "J. K. Polk," took the prize, as did also the fine French Merino sheep, of A. L. Bingham, of Vermont. McCormick's celebrated Reaping Machine was again successful. A premium was also awarded to the double plough of Messrs. Prouty & Barnett, of Philadelphia, and indeed their whole display of implements was most attractive, and it was thought by many would claim the premium as the largest display, but that after careful investigation, was awarded to E. Whitman, of Baltimore.

The awards of premiums being concluded, the Society repaired to the Capitol for the purpose of listening to the annual address to be delivered by the Hon. Andrew Stevenson. Here the crowd was as dense and compact as could well be conceived. Every available position was occupied, and we were glad to observe a large portion of ladies present. The address of Mr. Stevenson was a truly able and eloquent one.

The articles from this county are noticed by the several committees as follows:

To Mrs. Jameson, Miss Mitchell, and Miss Avers, of Lewistown, for a large case of artificial flowers in great variety. $5 00.

Five cases stuffed birds, J. Thomas, Lewistown, a fine display and well prepared and mounted. Premium $5 00.

Sausage stuffer, A. B. Long, Lewistown. We think it a good article.—Diploma. Sausage stuffer, W. Mitchell, Lewistown, apparently very useful. Model of a bee hive, James Robb, Lewistown, Diploma.

Ten pin alley, Thomas E. Shull. The model possesses novelty and ingenuity. A Diploma of merit was awarded to A. Thompson, Reedsville, Millin county, Pa., for a drilling machine.

Considerable sensation has been produced in this country by the publication of letters from France, which represent Kossuth, the celebrated Hungarian, as anything but what he was supposed to be. The writers say that his conduct on board the frigate Mississippi, as well as of his followers, has been imprudent in the highest degree, and they also allege that he never intended to make the United States his home, further than to collect funds, &c., to create disturbances in Europe.

These statements want vouching, and must of course be received with allowance. In connection with this subject, it is rumored that the Austrian charge has demanded his passports, to be furnished whenever Kossuth arrives in this country.

Bucks county has elected a Whig Sheriff for the first time in more than twenty years. His majority is only 87 votes, yet the largest received by any Sheriff of that county within that period, with a single exception. This is a little remarkable, to say the least.

The Juniata county papers contain a long list of unsettled suits on the docket of the Court of Common Pleas, and notice is given to the parties to appear on or before the first day of December term to show cause, &c. A similar rule might do some good in this county.

SHIP DESTROYED BY A WHALE.—Capt. Deblors, of the whale ship Ann Alexander, arrived at New York in the Cherokee, and reports that on the 20th of August last, when in lat. 5 50 S., lon. 102 W., while in pursuit of whales, two of his boats that were out in pursuit were attacked by a large sperm whale, and completely demolished. The captain promptly ordered out a third boat, and proceeded to the assistance of the men, who were thrown into the sea by the destruction of their boats. He succeeded in rescuing all of them, and reached his ship in safety. But the whale becoming more frantic with rage, immediately directed his course for the ship, and struck her abreast of her foremast, injuring her so badly that she instantly filled. All hands took to the boats on the 22d, and were subsequently picked up by the ship Nantucket, Captain Gibbs, of Nantucket, and arrived at Payta, Sept. 15, whence the Captain took passage for New York, on his way home. This is certainly an extraordinary instance of the capabilities of the whale, and we believe the like has occurred but once before, which happened in the case of a Nantucket ship years ago.

A WILL CASE, involving much property, was on trial several days last week, in Philadelphia, and occasioned much interest. The devisee was an old man of 83, and when he died, left his property to an illegitimate son, by a will made two years before his death. His nephews, as heirs at law, disputed the will, on the ground that he was of unsound mind, and after forty witnesses were examined, some of whom deposed that he was eccentric, and others that he believed in witchcraft; the Judge charged generally in favor of the will, and the jury took but five minutes to decide the same way.

CALIFORNIA GOLD.—The amount of gold exported from California to the 15th September of the present year was $60,010,920; and the steamer Oregon which left San Francisco on the 1st October had on board about $2,200,000—making the total export to that date about $62,230,000. How much of this has gone to Europe?

The Boston Atlas states that for the defence of that port, and the supply of the United States steamer and other vessels stationed there, or built, or to be built in that quarter of the country, we are told that there are deposited at the Navy Yard, at Charlestown, not less than seven hundred cannon.

There was a grand procession and display at Wheeling, Va., on Friday last, on the occasion of the reception of Dr. Kinkel, the German patriot.

Locofocoism in a Snarl.

Having accomplished the defeat of James Campbell for Supreme Judge, because, as the Pennsylvanian and its satellites repeatedly alleged, he was a Roman Catholic, the party has taken alarm at its own work of proscription, and is now endeavoring to soft-soap the Catholics by innuendoes that Campbell is a greater man than ever, and some even go so far as to say that higher honors await him! It is certainly somewhat unfortunate for locofocoism that they cannot charge this defeat to the whigs—as they do almost everything else that is unpopular—and hence, after professing to be the special friends of Catholicism, foreigners, &c. it is at once seen that unless some reparation is made, there is danger of losing votes at future elections. To prevent this dire calamity to the party of loaves and fishes, the papers in locations where Catholics reside in any number, "speak out in meeting" as they never spoke before. Hear, for instance, the Bellefonte Democrat:

"SECRETARY OF STATE.—A number of our exchanges are out in favor of the appointment of the Hon. GEORGE W. WOODWARD, as Secretary of the State under Gov. Bigler, but we understand that that gentleman is zealously urging the selection of Judge CAMPBELL to that high station, and his friends here are almost unanimously of the same opinion."

The same paper also has the following: "THE TENSING POINT.—We copy an article under the above caption from the Philadelphia Argus and endorse most heartily all it says of the men and the means by which Judge CAMPBELL has been defeated, and the course which must be pursued towards the traitorous crew to whose disorganizing efforts it is to be attributed. The democratic party must make up their minds either to drive them from their ranks or drive themselves into a hopeless minority for years to come."

We subjoin the article referred to from the Philadelphia Argus, with the remark that its assertion as to a bargain with the whigs by the "small band of reckless and profligate" democrats is a little ridiculous and extremely nonsensical:

"THE TENSING POINT.—Three times within six years the business of the Democratic party in Pennsylvania has been struck down by an organization within her own limits, and defeated by men who have held positions as democrats and now profess to act with them. In the first instance Geo. W. Woodward, the regular caucus nominee of the party for United States Senator, was defeated by Simon Cameron, aided by Whig and Native votes, and a few purchasable Democrats, whom he has always in his train in the State. Subsequent to that, William B. Foster was defeated by the same men after being the choice of a large majority of the Democrats of the State for Canal Commissioner; and now Judge Campbell is the victim of the identical gang of political assassins who hang on to the skirts of the Democracy like a pestilence. They are small in number, but enough when joined with the Whigs and aided by the columns that the pious leaders direct and the despotic hirelings circulate, to nullify the will of the majority and defeat their candidates. Their position in the party is made use of to deceive the honest position of the Democracy, who seeing their names in connection with the organization, naturally suppose that they are what they profess to be, and thus is the imposition commensurate. At the recent election thousands of Democrats were cheated out of their votes by these creatures, who, holding places under Democratic officers, took advantage of that fact to strike the ticket, and defeat a portion of the nominees.

These are briefly the facts of one, and the history of the causes that have produced the related disasters to the Democratic party in the State, and we now say the reasons, not the means, and the leaders of that faction must be denounced and driven from the party, or else the idea of holding delegate elections and conventions will in future be a mere farce. If today one man is to be sold to the opposition because he is in favor of a particular candidate for the Presidency; and to-morrow another, because he will not promise to appoint some favorite to an office under the Canal Board, and then another because he is of a different religious belief, what hope is there that a majority of the State can be kept steady in their devotion to the party? There is none, and the great majority of the democracy should see to it that a small band of reckless and profligate men are not suffered to break up the party, or introduce among us that spirit of religious bigotry which we have always contemned. This is their object, and this is what they have bargained with the Whigs to do. This is the first time in the history of the State of Pennsylvania that so bold a scheme against the will and wishes of the majority has been attempted, and if we do not mistake the tone and temper of the Democracy, it will be the last. They have conjured up the wind, let them beware of the tempest.

We again say to the steadfast Democracy of the State, the turning point has come, and the rules and organization of the party must be vindicated, or defeat will stare us in the face for years to come. Endurance has ceased to be a virtue, and the rank and file of the party are called—bold, firm and decided action. We mean no blustering menaces, but the cool, prudent, well-considered movement of men who have thought of the way to be cured and the proper remedy to be applied. In the early commencement, in that track lies the only escape from the impending ruin that hangs upon the footsteps of the Democracy, and lower like a storm cloud over their pathway. Men will not always be content to be trampled upon by this band of trading politicians in the State, who make merchandise of their political position as they do of their religion and their conscience. The last straw breaks the back of the overloaded beast, and this last attack upon the organization of the party has broken the bonds of the real Democracy of the State, and they now demand action with reference to the matter."

A number of other locofoco papers also come in to the aid of Campbell. The Berks County Free Press says: "The Hon. James Campbell is defeated, and Hon. Richard Coulter on the Whig ticket, elected to the Supreme Bench; he has the credit of being the only Whig elected to any State office in this election, and the triumph, if such it may be called, is due to treachery on the part of certain ambitious politicians, who have on other occasions betrayed the party, and who only hang upon its skirts to destroy the very cause which gave them the only prominence they possess."

In alluding to the same subject the Lancaster Intelligencer thus expresses itself:

"The defeat of Judge Campbell is the temporary triumph of an unprincipled faction as ever disgraced Pennsylvania. But James Campbell, although he is beaten, is not prostrated.—He now occupies a prouder position than ever before the people, and the Democracy of Pennsylvania will yet elevate him over the heads of all his enemies, and show by their action that so good and so pure a man cannot be crushed by proscription intolerance and faction."

Taken altogether, we infer that the locofocos have defeated Campbell for Supreme Judge in order to make him Secretary of State and Superintendent of Common Schools or something else that will soothe his wounds; but whether such a position would be more satisfactory to the party than the first named, we cannot say. As whigs, we must of course take whomsoever Mr. Bigler will give us, but as there is time for reflection and as serious objections might be urged against his appointment as Secretary of State, we incline to the belief that Campbell will be appointed Attorney General.

AVEN'S CHERRY PECTORAL.

—We call attention to the advertisement of this article now in our paper, and at this season of the year when colds and coughs are so prevalent, the information it contains will not be found unwelcome. The eminent names, lent to recommend it, are conclusive proof of its value. In addition to these we have been favored with the perusal of letters from many distinguished individuals as well as humble sufferers who acknowledge their indebtedness to this valuable medicine for the recovery of their health from painful and dangerous diseases. It is at once safe and pleasant to take, and is certainly very powerful to cure. Those afflicted with coughs, colds, asthma, bronchitis, hoarseness, or indeed any of the various affections of the lungs, will do well to try the Cherry Pectoral, and will have no cause to regret the experiment.

MR. EDITOR.—Having a leisure hour the other day, I concluded to take a stroll among your many stores in Lewistown. I found in no store a better assortment of goods, fresh and new, than at JOHN A. STERETT'S. His profit on every thing is small—so small that I cannot see how he can make a living. His made-up clothing, boots and shoes, and ladies' dress goods are surpassingly cheap and beautiful.
