In the city;
In the village, in the town,
Men are wandering up and down,
Through the valleys, o'er the hills, Selling notions, vending pills, And his land the farmer tills, All for money, That is funny!

What a funny world is ours, Very funny! Full of thorns and full of flowers, Full of money;
Money, Money, is the rage,
All are striving,

All are striving.
In this truly GOLDEN age,
To be thriving.
Concert singers travel round,
Murdering all harmonious sound,
Dandies undertake to preach, Rustics leave their plows to teach, Statesmen oft will make a speech, All for money. That is funny!

What a funny world is ours, Very funny!
Full of sweets and full of sours, Full of money; Men for money toil and slave,

Ceasing never, From the cradle to the grave, Striving ever.
Priests and coblers take their tools,
Blessing, PATCHING UP OUR SOULS, Doctors either "cure or kill," Clerks will rob the merchant's till, Tailors bring a WICKED BILL, All for money, That is funny!

What a funny world is this, Very funny!
Full of misery, full of bliss,
Full of money,
Magic money! Passing strange

Is thy power;
Men will change, but for CHANGE
Every hour.
Editors and printers toil,

Writers, sense and grammar spoil, Teachers learn our boys to read, Many men will shape their creed, Lovers, lawyers, lie and plead, All for money, That is funny!

Scientifie Discourse.

Delivered before Wolffstown Hoecake Association. BY CUFFEY MINOR, F. R. S. (Fellow of the Rhyming Society.)

BENITED FELLER SITTYZANS-I draw de subjec ob my lectur dis evenin frum de animal kingdum kum and I tend to interduce to you one of your oldest frens whose name when you har it will make your blud tingle wid delite and your lips smoke wid joy. You will no doubt recomlect scenes in your past life, while huntin dis crittur, dat will sharpen your appetite like de grinestone; you muss all know by dis time dat I mean to 'lucidate de manners and kustums ob DE Possum.

De Possum am a animal de same as frum man am de trick ob stayin out all nite, for you muss noe, dat Mr. Possum sleeps moss all day, and den loafs 'bout in de nite time, derefore, dat am de reason dat dey am hunted in de middle ob de nite, iis like de ole koon.

De Possum am a kurious kind ob crittur, 'bout de size ob a koon only not half so sassy. His skin fits wid bout de same titeness and grace as a bed quilt would an empty barrel of flower. He hab got pockets under each arm in he fur skin obercoat, whar he carries his young children, and it am a beautiful site to see de ole one pretendin to be sleep and de little ones all playin round, some wid deir heds jis out ob de pockets, and odders climbin all ober him, den if you want to see fun, jist wissel fur a 'maginary dog and see de way dese little rat looking fellers will scramble in de pockets, and see de ole one make tracks for de tallest tree he can find, whar he am sure ob safety. De Possum aint gof no feet, de hole four extremities am hans; he back foots am hans an so am he fore foots; which enable him to crawl up a small twine wid de same ease and quickness dat he clime up a tree. His tale am ob de greates use to him, jis like Boz's tales am to him for he can hang by it and slepe all day, way out on de end ob a limb, whar de han ob sarchin darkey kant moless him.

You hab all heard, no doubt, ob de long Yankee who hab such a big nose he cood hang it to de lim ob a cherry tree and pick wid boff hans, but my stingy hearers, de possum kan do more, he kan hang by his tale, eat and flie wid all fore ob his hans; derefore, de possum have de 'vantage ob de Yankee.

Dar am a kurious ting conneckted wid de mouf ob dis animal. It am shaped a good deel like de little pig, but dat aint nushin; he got ears too like de pig, dat aint nuffin; but de kurious part ob de mouf am dis; on he lower jaw he got jis twenty-five teef, and on he upper one he only got two dozen and one, which I tink fully 'counts for de bitin an scratchin

De Possum 'semble de darky in some things. He lubs young chickens jis like de darkey, and in order to 'dulge de appetite, he will steel dem jis like de darkey. In size dis animal am 'tween de rackoon and de tomcat, in color Don Dorety Gray, in specy possum, in disposition womany.

I hab dus far spoken only ob de crittur while he am alibe, but he is one ob dem animals dat de deader he am de more useful he am to mankind. De poet and de auther are more 'preciated artur dey am dead, and so am a hen, a hog, de bullock, and de possum. Who in dis vast assemblage hab not luxuriated on de fat ob dis chap till he face shine all over like a glass bottle, and his nose git so greasy dat it coodent be blowed wid out de aid ob ashes on de fingers? My Vegetable Anti-Dyspepsia Bitters.

This Medicine is a certain cure for Dyspepsia in its very worst forms. Thousands of cases have been completely cured by it within the last year, which have been entirely despaired of by the regular family physicians. We do not recommend it to cure everything—we recommend it to cure everything—we recommend it to cure Dyspepsia, and the diseases originating from it, and that it will cure in almost every case, and it is recommended for nothing else. In many instances, even the worst of cases have been completely cured in two and three months, but it depends somewhat npon the constitution of the patient. We would say to all who are afflicted with Dyspensia, give this medicin a fair trial, and if it fails to do good, your money will be returned.

ALSO, My Vegetable Worm Powders.

This is the most wonderful Worm Destroyer ever known, and at the same time, so pleasant to take, that almost every child will be fond of it, and many instances have been known of children crying for more after once

This medicine is in the form of a powder, the only medicine ever used in that form, and it operates on a principle entirely different from any other medicine ever administered by any other physician. It is the only medicine which has no Worm-seed Oil or Turpentine combined with it, which is believed by all other physicians, to be the only two things which will destroy worms, and these two things combined, together with medicines, which eactive principles of all other worm medicines, which every person who has ever tasted or smelled, knows to be the most nauseous of all nauseous medicines, and on account of which, there is generally nething added to destroy this nauseous tast order to do this, it must be something stronger than the medicine itself, and therefore, it must necessarily destroy some of its medicinal properties. These powders are simple and so harmless, that a child may eat a whole box at once, and it will not be hurt, while at the same time, the principle upon which it acts being different from anything else ever used, it will destroy all kinds of Wor with a certainty never equaled. It will not only destroy the seat worms, or Ascarides, and long, round worms, or Teres, but is the most effectual medicine for the destru tion of the Tape Worm ever known. Ten doses have brought as many as FIVE Tape Worms from one person. If your children have any symptoms of worms, try these powders, and in nine cases out of ten, you will nev

These medicines are all separate, and one for each disease, and each for only one disease. They are not re commended, as many other medicines are, to cure some fifteen or twenty diseases, and all of different natures, but they are each to cure but one disease, and that they will do in ninety nine cases out of every hundred, and where they have a fair trial and fail in all cases, the
