Reception of Granville John Penn.

On the 2nd inst., the interesting ceremony of receiving and welcoming Granville John Penn, great grandson of William Penn, to the city and State founded by his great progenitor, took place at Old Independence Hall, in Philadelphia, in accordance with resolutions previously adopted by the City Councils.

The members of the Select and Common Councils, with the Presidents, Clerks, and Messengers of those bodies, headed by the Mayor and Recorder, being assembled in the Hall, at 12 o'clock the honored guest was introduced by a Committee and received by Mayor Gilpin, in a very neat and appropriate address, tendering to him a cordial welcome and the hospitalities of the city.

Mr. Penn, who is represented by the Bulletin, as an exceedingly pleasant English gentleman, apparently about fifty years of age, replied to the Mayor in a very pretty and feeling address. He returned his sincere thanks for the distinguished reception extended to him, as the lineal representative of the founder of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and, the original designer of the city of Philadelphia, and expressed the deep gratification he felt at the hearty welcome he received—a welcome conveyed to him with so much feeling, and with such high respect.

Mr. Penn referred, in an appropriate manner, to the wise and just principles upon which the foundation of our great State had been laid, and hailed the success that had attended the holy experiment. He spoke most handsomely of our beautiful and rapidly growing metropolis, which he seemed to take the greatest delight in terming the "City of Brotherly Love;" a city which, he said, was eminent for its learning and commerce, and was daily extending its facilities for accommodating a fast increasing population.

He said that the future prosperity of Philadelphia and the continued happiness of her citizens, should ever be the chief wish of his life. The guest of the city was then introduced to a large number of citizens who were in attendance to pay him their respects, and altogether the occasion was one of peculiar interest.

Foreign News.

BY THE NIAGARA.

AFFAIRS IN FRANCE.—The Monitor has published the new constitution, as indicated in the proclamation, by which the President is to be responsible Governor for ten years. Justice is to be dispensed in the President's name. He has the initiative of laws and the right of pardoning. He presents an annual message, commands the land and sea forces, declares war, makes treaties, and appoints to all functions. I swear obedience to the constitution, and fidelity to the President," is the oath required from all functionaries.

In case of the President's death the Senate convokes the nation for a new election. The President is entitled, by a secret decree, to designate a citizen as meriting the confidence of the people. The correspondent of the London Globe states that Louis Napoleon styles himself Prince President, and that the restoration of titles is considered extremely probable. On the same authority it is stated that the new constitution has not given entire satisfaction to even the friends of the President. It is announced in the London Times, that Louis Napoleon is about to strengthen his position by a matrimonial alliance with a princess of Sweden, a daughter of Oscar, and grand-daughter, on the mother's side, of Eugene Beauharnais. She is said to be in her 22d year, and may be considered to be French in her descent from both father and mother.

AUSTRIA—Advices from Vienna, to Jan. 12, state that the Emperor has ordered, that in all imperial decrees, he is to be styled "His Imperial Apostolic Majesty."

PRUSSIA.—We learn from Berlin, that the old Council of State, after having been many years in abeyance, was again revived, by a royal decree, on the 13th ult.

BY THE EUROPA.

In France, a new Ministry had been formed, styled the Ministry of State. By a decree the Orleans family are compelled to sell their property within a year, and Louis Philippe's donations to his children are cancelled and appropriated to other purposes. General Cavaignac has been placed upon the retired list of the army. The ex-representatives, not comprised in the decree of banishment, are authorized to return home. The great bodies of State are to wear a particular dress. It is said a second, if not a third, attempt on Louis Napoleon's life had been made; that an officer had snatched his pistol at him as his carriage was coming out of the Carrousel, and that the wife of an ex-prefect had attempted to poison him.

In England everything is quiet. In Spain stringent measures have been taken to destroy the liberty of the press. Efforts were made in Prussia to abrogate the Constitution, but they have thus far failed. A penal colony has been established in Hungary, notwithstanding the remonstrances of the Hungarians. Austria needs a new loan, and is taking steps to procure one. Louis Napoleon has written to Vienna, assuring the Court of his friendly feelings.

A DEN OF COUNTERFEITERS.—Extraordinary developments.—An engraver of Cincinnati, says the Times of that city, having occasion to execute a fine piece of work, took up his abode at the engraving establishment of one Robert Neil, a lithographer and steel plate printer, at Mount Carmel, about fourteen miles from the city.

One day, during the absence of Neil, he observed an impression of a bank note upon one of the press boards in Neil's printing room. His suspicions were aroused, knowing well that Neil had no authority to print bank notes, and he immediately came to the city and communicated the information to the President of one of our banks, who advised him to return and institute further investigations, which he did. After returning, he got into conversation with an ignorant German, who had been in the employ of Neil for three years, and learning that he got but $13 per month, he told him he could give him a situation in the city at a salary of $13 per week; but, adds the gentleman, "you cannot print bank notes, can you?" "Oh, yes," says the German, "but you must not tell Neil, as I am sworn not to say anything about it by Mr. Neil, who says he prints for the State." He was then told that he had been making counterfeit money, and was liable to imprisonment in the Penitentiary. The German became alarmed, hurried off to Neil, and refused to work any more, and informed him what he had been told. The gentleman immediately came to the city with the German, and the information was imparted to the officers. U. S. Deputy Marshal, S. B. Hayman, accompanied by other officers, immediately proceeded to Mr. Neil's residence, but the bird had not only fled, but destroyed everything which could be brought against him as evidence.

The German states that over $400,000 in counterfeit money had been made by Neil during the past two years. The notes were 50's, 20's, 10's and 5's upon the State Banks of Ohio and Indiana, and 20's, 10's and 5's upon the Northern Bank of Kentucky. Mr. Hayman followed him to New York, but losing all trace of him there, it is supposed that he has fled to Europe. Many things have been elicited since the discovery, implicating persons of high standing in the vicinity of Cincinnati. It is supposed that his establishment has furnished nearly all the counterfeit money on the above banks, that has flooded the country for two years past.

FREE NEGROES IN MARYLAND.—In the House of Delegates on the 2d instant, an order was adopted requiring the committee on colored population to inquire into the expediency of reporting a bill to compel all free negroes to hire themselves out by the year. This order was adopted with but two negative votes.

JENNY LIND'S MARRIAGE.—The Springfield Republican says:—"Nobody thought Jenny Lind was going to marry Mr. Goldschmidt, yet it was natural that she should be smit mit Mr. Goldschmidt, and that Mr. Goldschmidt should be goldsmit mit Jenny Lind."
