For the Lewistown Gazette.

Mr. FRYSENER—Will you or some one else having information on the subject, have the kindness to inform the writer, through the Gazette, whether an Election Board, when they discover (as is almost invariably the case) that their labors, in consequence of the number of votes polled, are, of necessity, going to be extended far into the night, if not a considerable distance into the coming morning, may not adjourn at the time the polls are closed and defer the completion of their arduous or thankless labors, till the following day; or if not, may they not claim and exact an additional compensation, in proportion to the time they are engaged beyond the ordinary limits that circumscribe the laborer's day.

An answer to the above queries, would not only be a favor to the writer, but to many more, who are forced to complain, when they have to take a part in the duties of an election board, for one day only, which (except in certain localities) no definite limits, and that, for the paltry privilege of one dollar and fifty cents, and which, before it is obtained, is often earned a second time.

We will try and answer these questions next week.

Items of News.

DOWNTOWN, Feb. 11.—A young man, aged about 25 years, of dark complexion, shot himself at 3 o'clock this afternoon, under the following circumstances:—He stopped last night at a tavern in Fisherville, and said that he had been robbed in that neighborhood of $500. This morning he stated he had no money, and gave contradictory accounts of himself. He said he was from Trumbull county, Ohio, and had practiced as a physician. He had with him a horse and wagon, and a buffalo robe, but refused to sell any of the property. He watched his opportunity to get on the Easton stage, when he was followed to this place and detained, but not arrested. He asked the privilege of going to the water closet, where he unbuttoned his vest, and deliberately shot himself through the heart with a pistol. He was gently clothed, and wore a gold ring, with the initials C. M. K., and gave his name as Francis Savate.

The coroner held an inquest upon the body, when a verdict of self-destruction was rendered. The deceased had black hair and goatee, and was dressed in a black sack coat and black surtout, blue silk vest, and cross-barred cassimere pants. On his person were a pair of green spectacles, a double-barreled pistol, one barrel being still loaded with ball. He had also a dirk knife, plain silver watch, gold finger ring, with the initials C. F. R., a red port monnaie, with $1.75 in cash. In his valise was a lot of shoemaker's tools, several articles of wearing apparel, a white Jenny Lind shawl, and also a black oil cloth cap. The wagon that he left at Fisherville, where he put up last night, is a light rockaway, attached to which is a brown mare, 6 years old, with yellow plated harness, and the letters S. S. on the blinkers. It is supposed the horse and wagon had been either hired or stolen.

The deceased had stated that he lived for about two years at a place called Girard, in Ohio, and was on his way to Salem, New Jersey. The name of P. Seubane was written on the sleeve of his coat.

[It has since been ascertained that the deceased belonged to Bucks county—his name Joseph Secher.]

A YOUNG LADY KILLED BY A RAILROAD CAR.—A young lady, yesterday, standing on the Bath track, at Brunswick, waiting for the Kennebec train to pass, was killed immediately, by the Bath train backing over her. The whole train passed over her, except the engine. Her name was Lincoln, the daughter of widow Lincoln, of Brunswick, about eighteen years old, and very beautiful. Her body was horribly mangled. We are indebted to Mr. Daniel C. Mower, of the Eastern Express, for this sad information. There was another lady standing with Miss Lincoln, but she saw the train in time to escape. These repeated accidents should prove a lesson to people to keep off the railroad tracks.—Portland (Me.) Argus, 10th inst.

A Wife Killing Her Husband's Assistant.—A few days ago, a man named McKimmich went to the house of John R. Sisk, a neighbor, near Marietta, Ohio, and telling him he intended to kill him, snatched a pistol at his breast three times; and finding it would not go off, he threw him down and commenced beating him over the head with it. Sisk and his wife both cried murder, and finally Mrs. Sisk seized a chair and struck McKimmich over the head, fracturing his skull so bad that he died in a few minutes. The coroner's jury immediately acquitted her.

Mr. Hiram Wilcox, of Dayton, Ohio, in assisting about two weeks ago, to take a drunken loafer to jail, was bit by him, on one of his fingers. He paid but little attention to it, until a few days subsequent it became swollen and painful, with every appearance of erysipelas. The ordinary remedies in such cases were applied, but the inflammation spread rapidly from the hand to the arm, and finally to the body, growing worse and worse, until mortification put an end to his life.

EMIGRATION TO CALIFORNIA.—The California mania is apparently as great now as it was two or three years ago. The rush of passengers is so great that the steamers are engaged full, for more than two months ahead, and large numbers are preparing to go by sailing vessels around Cape Horn. Two ships have just been taken up to go in ballast, at $200 for first cabin, and 160 for second cabin passengers. A schooner had also been taken up, to carry out 40 passengers, without cargo.—N. Y. Mirror.

A horse thief named Clay, recently arrested in Tipton county, Miss., and who turned States' evidence against his associates in iniquity, revealed the fact that horse-stealing is now reduced to science, and the master, salesman, striker, and the thief, constitute the different degrees of order. In his disclosures, he confessed himself to belong to a gang of horse thieves, who operate from the Tombigbee, through Mississippi, Arkansas and Texas.

Charles Lenox, of Cambridge, Mass., a colored man, and for many years past, the porter at the Old Harvard, dropped down dead at his residence in Cambridge a few days since. He was about 60 years of age, and leaves to his family a fortune of about $20,000.

A man, by the name of Burlingame, a resident of McKean county, positively asserts that he saw Geo. W. Babb in Cincinnati, in December last, and had a long conversation with him. This is the person who disappeared from Clinton county some months since, and was supposed to have been murdered.

Accounts from Rome announce that a monster trial had recently taken place in that city, in which fifty-four prisoners were arraigned for crimes concerned in robbing the Assay-office three years ago. They were all condemned to the galleys for various periods.

ANOTHER SCIENTIFIC WONDER! Important to Dyspeptics.—Dr. J. S. HOUGHTON'S PEPsin, The True Digestive Fluid, or Gastric Juice, prepared from RENNET, or the Fourth Stomach of the Ox, after directions of BARON LIEBIG, the greatest Physiological Chemist, by J. S. HOUGHTON, M. D., Philadelphia. DR. HOOPLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.—That this medicine will cure liver-complaint and dyspepsia, no one can doubt after using it as directed. It acts specifically upon the stomach and liver; it is preferable to calomel in all bilious diseases; it acts as specifically upon the liver as calomel; calomel prostrates the system—the bitters strengthen and never prostrates the patient, and will give renewed life and health to the delicate invalid, and restore the liver to its functions, and give digestion and appetite in those severe cases wherein the ordinary medicines fail in producing any effect.
