THE GAZETTE.

Foreign News. The steamship Canada arrived at New York on Wednesday morning, with Liverpool dates to the 31st ultimo.

The market is steady for breadstuffs, but without much buoyancy, and extreme prices are scarcely maintained. There is however, no disposition to give way, either in flour or wheat. Indian corn is 3d. to 6d. cheaper.

The anticipation that France will issue decrees for the prohibition of the exportation of coin, as the Emperor of Russia has done by an imperial ukase, is causing considerable excitement in the commercial cities of Europe.

A fresh reconstruction of the Danish ministry has taken place, and it is considered certain that M. Bluhme, who remains, will re-compose the cabinet from the Conservative party.

In spite of the opposition in Austria, the Hanoverian Chambers, by a large majority, have ratified the commercial treaty of the 7th September between Hanover and Prussia.

The Austrians continue to provoke the Sardinian Government, which has issued a notification forbidding the Austrian steamers on the Lake Maggiore from approaching the Piedmontese coast.

The Radical party in Switzerland, especially at Berne, are again in a state of agitation, and it is said, that they will succeed in obtaining a majority for the revocation of the Grand Council, and thus obtain the reforms they demand.

The French Government declare solemnly that, in the late attack on Morocco, they have obtained complete satisfaction, either in corporal chastisement or in money for the grievances they complained of at Tangiers.

ENGLAND.—The political intelligence from England is devoid of interest. The only event of moment was the approaching opening of Parliament, fixed for the 24 of February.

The London Times says the principle of the new Reform Bill will be neither disfranchisement nor enfranchisement, but only a general enlargement of the existing constituencies.

A meeting was held at Newcastle upon-Tyne, on the 30th ult., for the purpose of adopting measures for the formation of a volunteer rifle corps to aid in repelling the expected invasion of the French.

The Royal Artillery at Woolwich, had been medically inspected on the 30th, and were to enter on a course of field duty in a few days, with a view to secure their effectiveness in need.

Regiments quartered at Portsmouth Garrison, had received orders to send out additional recruiting parties. Guns of a larger calibre than those at present in use, are being mounted at Fort Moncton, on the Anglesey shore.

The London Chronicle speaks lightly of the fears expressed elsewhere of a foreign invasion of England.

PARIS, Jan. 30.—The President gave a grand dinner yesterday, to the English Minister, and expressed his regret at the prevalence of a belief in England that it was his intention to make war upon that country. He said he had lived in England long enough to acquire respect for its people and institutions, and he still had a great many friends there.

The internal condition of France continued agitated by another Orleanist decree, and the public reprobation of these measures was expressed as loudly as the reign of terror permitted.

It was represented in some quarters, that although the President would not rescind or modify the decree, he had promised an indemnity to the Orleans family, but the prevalent belief was that they would never be executed to the extent threatened.

The testamentary executors of Louis Philippe have issued an opinion, signed by the most eminent members of the bar, declaring the decrees illegal.

Marshal Gerard has written a most indignant letter to the President of the Republic, in reference to the measures taken against the Orleans family, and declaring that he would not disgrace himself by accepting a seat in the Senate, (as a Marshal of France he is Senator ex-officio) or any other dignity under a Government guilty of so atrocious an act of injustice. The Duke de Pasquier, who has lately been frequently at the Elysee, on learning that the estates were not only sequestrated, but confiscated, wrote to the President, to say that he would never have entered the Elysee if he had been aware of the atrocity about to be committed.

The news received from the departments is very sad. Every day adds to the number of persons arrested in the South of France. The prisons are crowded to excess. M. Lepelletier d'Aunay, the President of the Court of Appeal, stated yesterday that at the present moment there were upwards of 30,000 persons in prison in France for political offences. It is to be feared that Cayenne will not do its work with sufficient rapidity. Hints begin to be given that the law which abolished death has fallen with the Constitution.

Letters from Marseilles state that the number of the arrested is so great that the cultivation of the fields is neglected. The greater part of the insurgents were field laborers, who were generally employed in the heaviest work, and whom it is difficult to replace. In many places the olives rot on the trees for want of hands to collect them. 2000 political transports will be shipped in a few days to Algeria.

Burning of Barnum's MUSEUM.

Wilders Patent Safe again the Victor! PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 1st, 1852.

The Salamander Safe which I purchased five years since, and which was in use by Messrs. C. G. Henderson & Co. At the destruction of their store in the building known as "BARNUM'S MUSEUM," on the 20th ult., has this morning been got out, and the interior work-work, with some Stoves and other articles, are found to be UNHARMED. I have this day purchased from Mr. John Parrel another "Patent Salamander," and would confidently recommend these well known safes to all who wish security against accidental fires.

GEORGE S. APPELTON. We fully concur in the above, and would also add that the large WALL FIRE-PROOF, near which the above safe stood, has also since been opened, and although the outside appearance is good, and the walls of the same still standing, the whole interior is cleared to a sand.

C. G. HENDERSON & CO., Late Seventh and Chestnut streets. The genuine "HERRING'S" (Wilders Patent) SALAMANDER SAFES, which received the First Medal at the great World's Fair, and are universally acknowledged to be the most perfect security against fire now known, can be obtained of the only authorized Agent in the State,

JOHN FARREL, 31 Walnut street, Philadelphia. Safes of all other kinds, having been taken in part by "HERRING'S," will be sold at very low prices. Philadelphia, Jan. 30, 1852--2m.
