CONSUMPTION.

THIS remedy is offered to the community with the con-This term we feel in an article which seldom fails to re-alize the happiest effects that can be desired. So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous the cases of its cures, that almost every section of the country a-bounds in persons, publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs, by its use. When once tried, its superfority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the publi no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the dis-tressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary or-gans, which are incident to our climate. And not only in the formidable attacks upon the lungs, but for the in the formulation attacks upon the image, but for the milder varieties of Colds, Coughs, Hoarseness, &c., and CHILDREN it is the pleasantest and snlest medicine that can be obtained. No family should be without it, and those who have used it, never will. Read the opinion of the following gentlemen, who will be recognized in the various sections of country where they are located-each and all as merchants of the first class and of the highest character-as the oldest and most extensive Wholesale Dealers in Medicine, with an experience unlimited on the subject of which they speak. there is any value in the judgment of experience, see

THIS CERTIFICATE.

We the undersigned, Wholesale Druggists, having been long acquainted with Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, here-by certify our belief that it is the best and most effectual remedy for Pulmonary Complaints ever offered to the American people. And we would, from our knowledge 30 36 of its composition, and extensive usefulness, cordially commend it to the atflicted as worthy of their best confi-dence, and with the firm conviction that it will do for their relief all that medicine can do. 75 Henshaw, Edmands & Co., Boston, Mass

Case of X. X. Kauman, E.q. Kean what we sups i LANCASTER, April 20, 1850. Respected Sir : I have been for a series of years afflict-ed with Dyspepsia, Inactivity of the Liver, and Nervous Debility. My mental powers have been so reduced as to render me quite unfit for the transaction of any kind of business. After consulting many eminent physicians, and using their prescriptions, and after using the most bonular temedias of the day, sunnased to be applicable to popular remedies of the day, supposed to be applicable to my case, 1 always failed to have permanent relief. A friend, with much persuasion, induced me to try a bottle of your celebrated Bitters. I have used one bottle, and this day commenced the second. I can with cheerful ness state that it has happily improved me. My appe ness state that it has nappily improved me. My appe-tite and spirits have astonishingly improved, and I begin to feel as though I had grown (suddenly) ten years younger, and really, I am almost prepared to say that I now consider myself calculated for any business, while, ten days ago, I would have as soon undertaken to square

a circle as to have attempted it. Yours respectfully, A. A. KAUFMAN To Dr. C. M. Jackson,
