'local' should be taken out of the bill, and that the force should be perambulatory—not con-fined to England, Ireland and Scotland merely, but to be sent to any part of the kingdom it might be required.

On this proposal the ministers joined issue, and were defeated by a vote of 96 to 125, upon which Lord John Russell intimated that, having lost the confidence of the House, he could no longer consent to hold office.

The event was quite unexpected, seeing that on the previous evening the Ministers had a 55a56 cents for yellow. British Legation at Washington.

France.—The only incident attracting notice in this country was the arrest of M. Baroche, one of the trustees of the Orleans property, on a charge of circulating seditious publications.

The alleged protest of the Autocrat of Russia, addressed to Napoleon, is supposed to be without foundation.

Active negotiations were said to be going on to induce the Duchess of Orleans to consent that the Count de Paris shall waive his right to the throne of France in favor of the Duc de Bordeaux.

The demand of France for the destruction of the Waterloo Monuments, had created an intense excitement in Belgium. Much energy was manifested in levying recruits for the year, and in exercising the military force.

Diplomatic relations between Belgium and

And further, they grant and agree unto the said Burgess and Town Council, the use of water at all the said fire plugs that are now or may hereafter be erected in said borough, for the pur-pose of extinguishing fire, and for the washing of hose, hose house, engines or hose carriage, and for trying engines, free of all charges or rents forever; and to charge no rent on fire plugs for any previous use of water. The said Lewistown Water Company further covenants and agrees that the said Burgess and Town Council may hereafter put up and erect any number of additional fire plugs that they, the said Burgess and Town Council, may from time to time think necessary for the better extinguish-ing of fires, under the supervision of the said Water Company. The Water Company aforesaid further agrees to extend the pipes for conveying the water on Third street, from their western termination to the main pipe on the turnpike, as soon as the said Burgess and Town Council shall build a culvert over the run at the west end of Third street, upon which the said Water Company can with safety lay their pipes below frost. The said Water Company further covenants and covenants and agrees to use all due diligence from time to time, and at all times hereafter, to keep a sufficient supply of water in their basin or basins for the purposes herin mentioned.

In consideration whereof, the said Burgess and Town Council hereby covenant, promise and agree to pay to the Lewistown Water Company aforesaid, upon the execution of this article, the sum of two hundred and twenty-six dollars and eighty cents; and on the first day of May next, eighty cents; and on the first day of May next, the further sum of three hundred dollars; and on the first day of August next the further sum of ninety-seven dollars and seventy cents; mak-ing in all the sum of six hundred and twentyfour dollars and fifty cents-and to put up. at the expense of said Burgess and Town Cor as many fire plugs as may in their judgment from time to time become necessary for the extinguishing of fires in said borqueh, under the supervision of said Water Company, and to use such pipes as the Water Company, for the mu-tual benefit of the parties, shall approve of. And the Burgess and Town Council further agree to keep in repair the fire plugs that are now erected, as well as those that may hereaf-ter be erected, and to discontinue the suit now pending in the Common Pleas of Millin county, brought by the Burgess and Town Council against said Water Company. Each of the abovenamed parties to pay the one-half the expense of recording this article in the Recorder's office of Millin county.
