

THE GAZETTE.

The present and ensuing month closes the year for a large number of subscribers. Those who wish to take advantage of the advance terms, had better send on their money, as a dollar will now pay for a year—a fact worth remembering.

Items of News.

The intensity of winter still prevails at the North. It is stated that on Friday last a heavily laden team, drawn by four horses, passed on the ice over Lake Champlain to Port Kent, a distance of twelve miles.

Mrs. Susanna Rittner, wife of ex-Governor Rittner, died at the residence of her husband, in West Pennsylvania township, Cumberland county, on the evening of February 23d, in the 51st year of her married life, and 70th year of her age. She was the daughter of Jacob Alter, Esq., for several years a member of the State Legislature, during the session of that body in Lancaster; and the granddaughter of Henry Landis, one of the first settlers and Mennonist ministers in the county of Lancaster.

THE CENTRAL RAILROAD.—Seven additional miles of the Pennsylvania Central Railroad were opened on the 1st instant. It is the first section of the mountain divisions and avoids the most serious obstructions on the Portage Road. The unfinished portion of the road is proceeding rapidly towards completion. In its present unfinished state, we see that the total receipt for March last exhibited an increase over the same month in the year previous of over one hundred and seventy-three thousand dollars.

SEICIDE.—Jacob W. Smith, of Selinsgrove, Union county, Pennsylvania, committed suicide, by hanging himself in the garret of his house, on that place, on Thursday afternoon last. For many years the deceased was engaged in mercantile pursuits in Selinsgrove, and was much esteemed as a citizen. Formerly he was a German Reformed Minister, and was pastor of a large congregation in that Borough. The cause of this rash act is unknown. Mr. Smith was about 50 years of age, and has left a wife and several children.

MURDERS IN ADAMS COUNTY.—The Gettysburg Star states that, on Wednesday last, Geo. Krebs, residing in Littlestown, Adams county, Pennsylvania, made an attack, with a large knife, on his son, when the latter seizing a club, inflicted a severe blow upon the father's head, which caused his death in a few hours after. The act seems to have been done in a fit of passion. On the following day, near Bendersville, a colored man, named Mars, was shot and killed by a man by the name of Green.

MEDICAL COMMENCEMENT.—The annual commencement of the medical department of the University of Pennsylvania, was held at noon on Saturday, at the Musical Fund Hall, with customary exercises. On Saturday morning it was discovered that Charles E. Maxwell, of Savannah, who had passed his examination, and it was expected would have graduated with the class, was dead. He was found in his bed, having died during the previous night. The circumstance occasioned a very marked sensation among the students, and threw a gloom over the proceedings. In memory of their associate the entire class wore badges of crape. The degree of Doctor of Medicine was conferred by the Rev. John Ludlow, D. D., upon 157 gentlemen; after which an address was delivered to the graduate class by Dr. Samuel Jackson, of the institute of medicine.—Daily News.

RUSSIA SHEET IRON.—In the U. S. Senate, last week, a memorial was presented from Messrs. Shoemaker, of Pittsburgh, and others, asking the grant of a patent to secure to them, for a limited period, the manufacture of the article known as Russia sheet iron, within the limits of the United States. The memorialists set forth that they have acquired the process of manufacturing Russia sheet iron, but that under the patent laws they cannot obtain a patent, as they are not the inventors, the mode being the same as that by which the article is manufactured in Russia. They represent that unless a special act of Congress secures to them, for a limited period, the exclusive manufacture of the article, rival establishments would spring up in the United States, and that the competition thereby engendered would prevent them from realizing the adequate remuneration for their labor and expense of procuring the process, &c. They contend that the manufacture in this country would greatly cheapen the article and bring it into general use.

THE DEPOSITION OF ROSAS.—Full accounts of the deposition of Rosas late Governor of Buenos Ayres, are received by the English papers, taken to England by the mail steamers. The fight between him and Gen. Urquiza was a sanguinary one; 4000 persons were slain. Rosas has taken refuge on board an English steamer, and Urquiza has invested the city of Buenos Ayres. It was the belief at Rio Janeiro, that General Urquiza would cause the Constitution to be respected, and that a popular election would take place for a new President. Urquiza had himself expressed a determination not to be a candidate, his desire being only to remain Governor of Entre Rios; but he would assist in the re-organization of affairs, and is stated to have expressed a wish that the British loan should be attended to, and that arrangements should be made to meet it punctually. Previously to his defeat, Rosas shipped a considerable amount of treasure, and it was supposed that he would go to England either in a British ship-of-war, or by the next mail steamer.

CALIFORNIA EMIGRATION.—Some of the recent letters from California give accounts of that country, which are calculated to dampen the ardor of those who look upon it as a mine of wealth, which they have only to reach to pick up a fortune. There are, no doubt, some who do acquire considerable wealth, but it is generally those who have some capital to start upon when they reach there, and which they can invest in some of the many enterprises which must necessarily present themselves in a new country. The great mass of those who emigrate, however, are poor young men, having nothing but their labor to work upon, so that every occupation in which mere labor is required is overstocked. The Boston Traveler publishes an account, recently received, which gives the experience of thousands. Some three months since, a large company of mechanics, numbering some twenty-five persons, left Boston for California, to try their luck in the land of gold. By the last mail, letters have been received from nearly all the company, and they all concur in saying, that San Francisco and the other large cities in that section of the country are thronged with persons of every trade, unable to procure work of any kind. One man writes that he is fully satisfied with what he has already seen, and would, if he had the means, gladly return home. One of the party, a most excellent machinist, went to take a situation, where he was to receive something like $180 per month. When he arrived, he found that the firm for whom he was to work had failed, and at last accounts he had been unable to obtain work. With these facts before them, and that their number appears to be unusually large—should we well the prospects before them start, and leave certain and definite objects in view when they reach there. Those who go, trusting to chance for a favorable turn in their fortunes, will be likely to meet with sad disappointment.

The election in St. Louis on Monday last, resulted in the success of the Whig ticket. After the polls were closed, and whilst a crowd of the friends of the successful candidates were passing the corner of Seventh street and Park Avenue, five or six guns were fired upon the multitude, fatally wounding six persons, who died in a short time thereafter. Several others were carried off severely wounded. The excitement occasioned by the outrage was, of course, most intense, and the infuriated crowd rushed into the house and completely demolished its contents, and then set fire to the building. Two other buildings adjoining, inhabited by Germans, were also fired and destroyed by the mob.

MADISON, Indiana, April 3.—This afternoon, about half past 2 o'clock, as the steamer "Redstone," Capt. Tate, hence for Cincinnati, with about 70 persons on board, including crew, was backing out from Scott's Landing, about three miles above Carrollton, her boilers burst with tremendous force, instantly killing a large portion of those on board, and dreadfully mangled and maiming most of the rest. The boat being completely shattered, immediately sunk in deep water, and many of the passengers, who might otherwise have been saved, were drowned. Of the crew, only the captain and clerk were saved, and the former was so severely injured that it is thought he cannot recover. The boat having sunk, it was with difficulty that the bodies of those on board could be recovered. Up to 7 o'clock this evening, fifteen dead bodies were recovered, most of them so horribly mutilated as to baffie all attempts at identification. The names of the unfortunates have not been ascertained.

CINCINNATI, April 3.—The Chillicothe papers contain full particulars of the disastrous fire that occurred at that place on Thursday last. "Adams' Block," including the Clinton House, and the adjacent extensive warehouses, were burnt to the ground. In a few hours the entire portion of the city east of High and north of Second streets, was a mass of smouldering ruins. Included in the destruction, in addition to the block above mentioned, was the "Ross Block," the extensive row of elegant and spacious stores between that and the canal, the Madison House, business houses, &c. Of the wholesale establishments on Water street, east of Walnut street, every store to Mulberry street was destroyed. Also, many stores as far east as Bridge street. The merchants had just received their spring goods, and their stock was very large and valuable. The Post-office, the printing office of the Advertiser, and the lines of Telegraph passing this section of the city were also destroyed. The books and letters were removed from the Post-office in safety. The loss large.

Married.
On the 6th instant, by the Rev. Joshua Moore, T. A. WORRAL, M. D. and Miss ELIZABETH KERR, daughter of the Rev. Joshua Moore.

Died.
On Tuesday last, in Wayne township, HENRY MILLER, aged about 45 years.

On the 21st February, in Decatur township, Millin county, NANCY HOGUE, wife of William Hogue, Deacon of the Baptist Church, in Lewistown, aged 62 years, 9 months, and 1 day.

Mrs. Hough was baptised upon the profession of her faith in Christ, in the winter of 1842, and united with the Baptist Church in Lewistown, and maintained her profession and adorned the doctrine of God her Redeemer, until death, by a holy life and Christian conversation. She was a living epistle of modest virtue, shining brightest in the retirement of her family, where her worth was best known, and her loss will be deeply felt. During the last part of her life she passed through the furnace of affliction; but she glorified God even in the fires. She exercised strong faith in God, and indulged a cheerful hope of glory and allowed patience to have its perfect work, and in humble submission bowed to her Maker's will. And when the Messenger came to call her away, she was ready and willing to go, she was favored with the use of her senses to the last, and died in the triumph of the gospel of Christ. And could she speak from the eternal world to the beloved ones left behind we presume she would say, "Weep not for me—all tears are wiped away from all faces here by God's hand." D. W.

On the 5th February, at her residence, in Millin county, RACHEL JOHNSTON, aged 66 years, 7 months, and 20 days.

Mrs. Johnston was one of the constituents of the Lewistown Baptist Church when it was organized in the spring of 1842. She professed to be renewed by Divine Grace in the first protracted meeting that we ever held in that place, which was in the beginning of that year. And from the time of her baptism to her death, she lived the exemplary and devoted Christian. It was her lot in providence to live many years a widow, and also to be tried and trained in the school of affliction. During the last year of her life, she was bereaved of a much beloved daughter, an only child who died in the bright hope of eternal life, saying, "Come Lord Jesus—come quickly." And not long after this event her "beloved William," as she called him (a young man whom she had raised), was taken from her by death. And thus the ties which bound her to earth were unloosed in mercy by Heavenly Father's hand. And then she desired to depart and be with her God. While in her last lingering sickness, she enjoyed great peace of mind and a cheering sense of the presence of God, and she was resigned to his holy will. And having given herself to the cause of God while she lived, she did not forget her Pastor in her last will and testament. And having set her "house in order" and finished her work she fell asleep in Jesus. And her memory is blessed. D. W.

On the 23d inst., at the residence of his father Thomas C. Alexander, Esq., in Kishacoquillas Valley, in this county, THOMAS CLARK ALEXANDER, in the 26th year of his age.

The health of Mr. A. began to fail during the last summer, while engaged in a course of reading at Huntingdon with a view of entering upon the practice of medicine. Realizing that he was the marked victim of that insidious disease, consumption, and unable any longer to pursue his studies to advantage, he retired to the home of his childhood, where, receiving every attention that parental solicitude could bestow, and sustained by the sympathies of a large circle of relations and friends, he calmly awaited the issue. It was the privilege of the writer, as his patient frequently to visit him during this period, and seldom has he seen one so calm, so composed, so exhibiting more composure of mind, and there is good reason to believe that this composure was well founded. Much of his time was spent as well as his strength would allow it, in the prayerful perusal of the Holy Scriptures, and of valuable works on the subject of practical religion, so that when his increasing weakness forbade this, he was provided with abundant material for pleasant and profitable meditation. He retained his senses, and his composure of mind to the last, and just before his departure, referred to the language of the Christian poet, (which he had often before quoted,) as expressive of his view of himself, and of the only ground of his confidence.

"O guilty, weak, and helpless worm,
On thy kind arms I fall;
Be thou my strength and righteousness,
My Jesus, and my all."

On the 25th inst., he remains, attended by a large number of sorrowing relatives and friends, were committed to the tomb after a discourse had been delivered by his pastor from Acts VII. 9, "Lord Jesus receive my spirit." This is the first bereavement death has ever made in a family of nine children, and while his parents feel and mourn over their loss, they sorrow as others would who have no hope, believing that if Jesus died and rose again, even so, believe also that Jesus will, God being with him.

VALUABLE HISTORICAL DISCOVERY!
The Problem Solved.
ROME had her Caesar, England her Cromwell, France her Napoleon Bonaparte, and Lewistown at last has a store where goods may be purchased at the most reasonable prices, as any one can be satisfied who will call.
PIROVED & BROTHER, who have just received a splendid lot of New Goods which are the admiration of all who have viewed them. They are cheap, too, and no mistake—not cheap just on one yard of the counter and dear over all the other, but from side to side, from front to rear, and from top to bottom, whether COTTON, LINEN, SILK, or anything else, you'll find our motto is "SMALL PROFITS AND QUICK SALES," with the ready John Davis down—the only way we desire to do business! Now we don't intend to enumerate what we have; we shall not say a word about our stock CLOTHS and CASSIMERES; nor the ELEGANT SUPPLY we purchased for DRESSES for our LADY FRIENDS!
nor about the SILKS, and SATINS, and RIBBONS, and ten thousand other matters that go to make up a tip-top assortment, because we do not only anticipate, but are sure, that all who expect to appear in unparallelled apparel, will come and see for themselves—judge for themselves, and buy for themselves (just as we do when we go to the city.) And now take our advice—
"Buy cheap while sluggards sleep,
And you will have goods to wear and keep."

Lewistown Pottery.
THE undersigned respectfully inform their customers and the citizens generally of Millin, Huntingdon, Blair and Juniata counties, that they still continue to manufacture all kinds of EARTHENWARE of a very superior quality, and at prices suitable to the times.
Merchants may rely upon getting an article that cannot fail to please their customers, and such as will afford them a handsome profit.

NOTICE.
ALL those indebted to the undersigned, will please call and pay the same on or before the 1st day of March, as he intends going to the city for a supply of goods to suit the spring. It will be necessary for him to have all the money he can, and as he sells at small profits, he cannot give long credits—so he hopes this will be sufficient for all indebted to him to come in, be the amount large or small, and make payment, and by so doing enable him to purchase for cash, and then he will be able to sell so much cheaper—hence you will be profited by it, as well as himself. By attending to this notice, you will much oblige

Burning of Barnum's MUSEUM.
Wilders' Patent Safe again the Victor!
PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 1st, 1852.
The Salamander Safe which I purchased a few years since, and which was in use by Messrs. C. G. Henderson & Co., at the destruction of their store in the building known as "BARNUM'S MUSEUM," on 2nd street, has this morning been got at, and the interior work-work with some Stereotype plates which were in the safe during the fire (the books having been removed), are found to be UNHARMED. I have this day purchased from Mr. John Farrel another "Patent Salamander," and would confidently recommend these very known safes to all who wish security against accidental fires.
GEORGE S. APPLETON.
We fully concur in the above, and would also add that the large WALL FIRE-PROOF, near which the above safe stood, has also since been opened, and although the outside appearance is good, and the walls of the same still standing, the whole interior is charred to a cinder.
