

Pennsylvania Legislature.

In the Senate, on the 7th, the Judiciary Committee reported against the bill enabling illegitimate children to inherit the property of their mothers.

In the House, the bill repealing the sixth section of the act of 1847, prohibiting the use of the jails of the Commonwealth for the detention of fugitive slaves, was taken up and passed finally—yeas 59, nays 27.

In the Senate, on the 8th, the bill repealing the act providing for the registration of births, marriages and deaths, was negatively—yeas 13, nays 13.

In the House, the bill for the abolition of the death penalty, and substituting imprisonment of not less than fifteen and not more than fifty years in lieu thereof, passed finally—yeas 46, nays 42.

In the Senate, on the 9th, the Congressional apportionment bill from the House was taken up and made the special order of the day, for Monday next.

The bill increasing the capital stock of the Southwark Bank from $250,000, to $400,000, was taken up and passed finally—yeas 18, nays 13.

The bill incorporating the Bank of Potstown, Montgomery county, was taken up and lost by a tie vote.

The bill restoring the compulsory features of the inspection law, so far as regards beef and pork, was considered and passed finally—yeas 17, nays 16.

In the House, the Senate bill relative to the employment of counsel in the case of Elizabeth Parker, who, it is alleged, was forcibly abducted and sold into slavery, was considered and passed finally.

A bill was introduced, supplementary to the act regulating banks, which proposes to allow banks to discount the paper of directors.

The Senate, on the 14th, on motion of Mr. Paeker, took up and passed through second reading, the bill exonerating Wm. Furey, Treasurer of Centre county, from the payment into the State Treasury, of $1800 dollars, of which he was recently robbed by Slappy, alias Williams and Jack Gibson.

The Congressional Apportionment bill passed finally, with amendments, by a strict party vote, with the exceptions of Mr. Fraley, Democrat, and Mr. Hamilton, Native, who voted with the Whigs.

The bill to restrict the manufacture and sale of intoxicating drinks, which had passed the Senate, was taken up in the House on Wednesday last week. It passed Committee of the Whole without amendment.

The papers by the El Dorado and Daniel Webster furnish intelligence from various quarters of the world. The States from San Francisco to Hong-Kong to the 24th January, and from Oregon to the 11th of February. The close of the winter season in California has been marked with a flood, which has done considerable damage in Sacramento, which was overflowed two years ago, in the same manner.

The papers by the El Dorado and Daniel Webster furnish intelligence from various quarters of the world. The close of the winter season in California has been marked with a flood, which has done considerable damage in Sacramento, which was overflowed two years ago, in the same manner.

Along the led of the plain between the San Joaquin and the foot hills of the Sierra Nevada there are numerous channels which have been formed by the rains of successive winters, and which are dry in summer time. These have been completely filled, and their banks have ever overflowed to a greater extent than has been known; while the rivers Mokelumne, Calaveras and Stanislaus have risen at least 12 feet higher than they rose in the severe winter of 1849 and '50. The country on the Mokelumne was completely flooded, the crops are hidden from the sight, and in many places the houses have been swept away.

EXECUTION OF INDIANS.—Union Valley, it appears, was recently the scene of the execution of five Indians, who were found guilty of the murder of one American, and the wounding of another. No names are given, but the sufferers were from Nelson's Creek.

Passenger trains increase on the Panama railroad regularly as far as Buena Vista, to which point it was opened on the second inst.

NEWS FROM EUROPE IN FIVE DAYS.—The authorities of Newfoundland have granted to Mr. H. B. Tibbatts and his associates, of New York, the exclusive right to construct and use the magnetic telegraph across that island, for the period of thirty years.

An Unprecedented Display AT THE OLD CORNER.

GEORGE BLYMYER, in tendering his thanks to numerous friends and the public in general for the liberal patronage bestowed on his establishment, would take occasion to say that he has just returned from the city with an extensive stock of Dry Goods, Groceries, Hardware, Queensware, &c., that may well challenge comparison, comprising, as it does, a variety in all those branches probably not to be met with in any other town on the Juniata. It would be an endless task to enumerate even all the leading articles—he will therefore only mention that his shelves and racks contain an unequalled assortment of French, English, and American Blue, Black and fancy colors.

CLOTHS AND CASSIMERES; a great variety of SATINETTS; black and fancy Silk and Satin Vesting, with all the minor descriptions in pers; FLANNELS, all colors, in abundance; MUSLINS in cartons; CALICOES in stacks; and Bonnets, Ribbons, Laces, Edgings, Insertings, Gloves, Mitts, Crapes, Veils, Handkerchiefs, &c., by the bushel—in fact the Ladies, in anything they may want, whether in parlor or kitchen, from the finest Silk and Satins to low-priced domestic goods—from the elegant Cashmere, Broche, Ray State, or India to the common Cotton Shawl—form the rich and costly Bonnet to one costing next to nothing—from Cloth for Clerk or Riding Dress to a Neck Ribbon, CANNOT GO ASTRAY! the goods are all there, and the prices right!

His stock of GROCERIES consists of a large supply selected with great care, and comprises all kinds of the various articles in general use. His QUEENSWARE embraces a beautiful assortment, from which a choice cannot fail to be made. There is also an excellent stock of READY-MADE CLOTHING, BOOTS & SHOES, CEDAR WARE, &c., with Roll upon Roll of CARPETING, and a great many other matters, all of which go to show that the question is not "What has Blymyer got?" but "WHAT HAS HE NOT?" Lewistown, April 9, 1852—4f.

REGIMENTAL ORDERS. ATTENTION THE WHOLE! Forward March, by Sections of Eight, to the Melchre stand!

W M P. MILLIKEN has just received from the city a large and well selected stock of SPRING & SUMMER GOODS, which he is disposed to offer to customers at GREAT BARGAINS, the proof of which he respectfully invites the public to call and test for themselves. Among his stock will be found an elegant supply of LADIES' DRESS GOODS, embracing Silks, Cashmeres, De Laines, &c.; a fine stock of CALICOES of every shade and color, among them a number of new styles; and a large supply of all the articles in general use, which he is enabled to sell at prices that cannot fail to be satisfactory.

Also, a large assortment of goods suitable for Summer wear, as well as blue, black, green and brown CLOTHS; Cassimeres, Vestings, Cassimeres, Jeans, &c.; Muslins, brown and bleached; Ribbons, Laces, and Fringes; Shawls; Carpets, Carpet Chains, and a choice lot of bags.

In the Grocery Line, he has the best of Coffee, Tea, Sugar, Rice, Cheese, Molasses, &c. Boots and Shoes, Looking Glasses, Cedar Ware, Hardware, Nails, Fish and Salt, Tobacco and Cigars.

All kinds of Produce taken in store and forwarded to Philadelphia, or bought at cash prices. Ladies and gentlemen who desire to purchase Spring and Summer goods, are requested to call early, as they will unquestionably find a choice stock to select from. W. M. P. MILLIKEN, Lewistown, April 9, 1852.

VALUABLE HISTORICAL DISCOVERY! THE Problem Solved.

ROME had her Caesar, England her Cromwell, France her Napoleon Bonaparte, and Lewistown at last has a store where goods may be purchased at the most reasonable prices, as any one can be satisfied who will call on IMPROVED & BROTHER, who have just received a splendid lot of New Goods which are the admiration of all who have viewed them. They are cheap, too, and no mistake—not cheap just on one yard of the counter and dear over all the other, but from side to side, from front to rear, and from top to bottom, whether COTTON, LINEN, SILK, or anything else, you'll find our motto is "SMALL PROFITS AND QUICK SALES," with the ready John Davis down—the only way we desire to do business! Now we don't intend to enumerate what we have: we shall not say a word about our sleek CLOTHS and CASSIMERES; nor the ELEGANT SUPPLY we purchased for DRESSES for our LADY FRIENDS; nor about the SILKS, and SATINS, and RIBBONS, and ten thousand other matters that go to make up a tip-top assortment, because we do not intend to anticipate, but are sure, that all who expect to appear in unparallelled apparel, will come and see for themselves—judge for themselves, and buy for themselves (just as we do when we go to the city)—and now take our advice—Buy cheap while sluggards sleep, and you will have goods to wear and keep.

Boats Ready for the Canal! MERCHANTS, FARMERS, MILLERS, and others are informed that the subscriber, at his large and convenient Warehouse on the canal, has established a regular line of Boats for the purpose of carrying Grain, Flour, and Goods of all kinds, between Lewistown, Philadelphia, and Baltimore; and will have a boat leaving Philadelphia every Tuesday and Friday, also one leaving Lewistown every Tuesday and Friday, until the close of the season.

He will receive and forward all kinds of freight on reasonable terms. ALFRED MARKS, Lewistown, March 5, 1852—4f

Burning of Bannum's MUSEUM. Wilder's Patent Safe again the Victor! THE Salamander Safe which I purchased a few years since, and which was in use by Messrs. C. G. Henderson & Co. at the destruction of their store in the building known as BANNUM'S MUSEUM, on the 20th inst., has this morning been got at, and the interior wood-work, with some Stereotype plates which were in the safe during the fire (the books having been removed), are found to be UNHARMED! I have this day purchased from Mr. JOHN FARRELL another "Patent Salamander," and would cordially recommend these well known safes to all who wish security against accidental fires.

GEORGE S. APPLETON, We fully call attention to the above, and would also add that the large W.A.L. FIRE-PROOF, near which the above safe stood, has also just been opened, and although the outside appearance is good, and the walls of the same still standing, the whole interior is charred to a cinder. C. G. HENDERSON & CO., Late Seventh and Chestnut streets. THE genuine "WILDER'S" (Wilder's Patent) SALAMANDER'S, which received the Prize Medal at the great World's Fair, and are universally acknowledged to be the most perfect security against fire now known, can be obtained of the only authorized Agent in this State, JOHN FARRELL, 21 Walnut street, Philadelphia.

85—86 of all other kinds, having been taken in part by "Huntress," will be sold at very low prices. Philadelphia, Jan. 20, 1852—3m

THE HISTORY.—In the first and grand plan are exhibited three large groups of the principal officers, who were present at the transaction, with a faithful likeness of each.

In the first group is seen General Washington, General Rochambeau, General Lincoln, Colonel Hamilton, an old Farmer eager to contemplate the scene, Billy the servant, and the horse of General Washington. In the second group are American and French Officers; General Knox, Secretary Wilson, the Duke de Luzaux, and the Marquis de La Fayette. The third group is descriptive of the British surrendering their arms. Lord Cornwallis, General O'Hara, Commodore Simons, Colonel Tarleton, with two fingers cut off Lieutenant Colonel Ralph Abercrombie, Lieutenant Colonel Dundas, Lord Clonewell, &c. Lord Cornwallis appears presenting his sword to the first General Officer he meets, but General Washington is pointed out to him as the only person to whom he is to surrender his sword. On the heights and in the distance are the different armies and crowds of spectators. The House of Secretary Wilson, occupied by Lord Cornwallis and his staff, which was bombarded and pierced with balls; the Marquis de La Fayette having recovered from the wounds he had received for the dinner of Lord Cornwallis, signed leave of General Washington to serve him a dish of his own cooking, and immediately after several bombshells fell through the roof on the table, and wounded some, and dispersed the party.

On the left is erected a monument in honor of those illustrious heroes who sacrificed their lives and fortunes to insure to their citizens, the Liberty and Independence they now enjoy. Published at $2 by WM. B. LANE, Philadelphia, and to be had at the office of the "American Courier," No. 141 Chestnut street, Philadelphia, as premiums to that paper.

EXPLANATION. THE HISTORY.—In the first and grand plan are exhibited three large groups of the principal officers, who were present at the transaction, with a faithful likeness of each. In the first group is seen General Washington, General Rochambeau, General Lincoln, Colonel Hamilton, an old Farmer eager to contemplate the scene, Billy the servant, and the horse of General Washington. In the second group are American and French Officers; General Knox, Secretary Wilson, the Duke de Luzaux, and the Marquis de La Fayette. The third group is descriptive of the British surrendering their arms. Lord Cornwallis, General O'Hara, Commodore Simons, Colonel Tarleton, with two fingers cut off Lieutenant Colonel Ralph Abercrombie, Lieutenant Colonel Dundas, Lord Clonewell, &c. Lord Cornwallis appears presenting his sword to the first General Officer he meets, but General Washington is pointed out to him as the only person to whom he is to surrender his sword. On the heights and in the distance are the different armies and crowds of spectators. The House of Secretary Wilson, occupied by Lord Cornwallis and his staff, which was bombarded and pierced with balls; the Marquis de La Fayette having recovered from the wounds he had received for the dinner of Lord Cornwallis, signed leave of General Washington to serve him a dish of his own cooking, and immediately after several bombshells fell through the roof on the table, and wounded some, and dispersed the party.

On the left is erected a monument in honor of those illustrious heroes who sacrificed their lives and fortunes to insure to their citizens, the Liberty and Independence they now enjoy. Published at $2 by WM. B. LANE, Philadelphia, and to be had at the office of the "American Courier," No. 141 Chestnut street, Philadelphia, as premiums to that paper.
