GEN. CASS AND COM. STOCKTON .- The Macon (Ga.) Telegraph, a democratic paper of much influence, has commenced a "Gallery of Living Fogies." opens with portraits of Gen. Cass and Commodore Stockton, and, as our readers may wish to see how a democratic artist (evidently of the "Young America" party) treats his subjects, we give the following as a specimen of his ability:

"Gen. Cass, is, par excellence, the Old Fogy of the American Senate. After him, but im-measurably behind him, comes Commodore Stockton, having, though inferior developement, many of those qualities which have gained for the Michigan Senator the title of 'His most unapproachable Foginess.' Like Gen. Cass, Com. Stockton is unimpeachably 'respectable' and venerably stupid-garrulous beyond precedent, and gentle without doubt. In-debted for his position solely to his wealth, pampered by a long course of flattery and good ers, a great man in a small neighborhood, he has all the elements of prosiness, dignity and duliness 'so mixed in him that nature may stand up and say to all the world, this is a-Fogy.
