The present and ensuing month closes the year for a large number of subscribers. Those who wish to take advantage of the advance terms, had better send on their money, as a dollar will now pay for a year—a fact worth remembering.

English Luxury.

Few persons are aware of the wealth and splendor that surround many of the English nobles in their princely residences. The following are specimens:

THE EARL OF SPENCER. The Earl of Spencer's homestead, about sixty miles from London, comprises ten thousand acres, tastefully divided in parks, meadows, pastures, woods and gardens. His library, called the finest private library in the world, contains fifty thousand volumes. Extensive and elegant stables, green houses and conservatories, game-keepers' houses, dairy houses, kennels, porter's lodge, and farm houses without number, go to complete the establishment. Hundreds of sheep and cattle graze in the parks about the house.

THE DUKE OF RICHMOND. The Duke of Richmond's home farm, at Greenwood, sixty miles from London, consists of twenty-three thousand acres, or over sixty-five square miles. And this is in crowded England, which has a population of sixteen millions, and an area of fifty thousand square miles, or just thirty-two millions of acres, giving, were the land divided, but two acres to each inhabitant. The residence of the Duke is a perfect palace. One extensive hall is covered with yellow silk, and pictures in the richest and most costly tapestry. The dishes and plates upon the table are all of porcelain, silver and gold. Twenty-five race horses stand in the stable, each being assigned to the care of a special groom. A grove near the house, the ladies spent six years in adorning. An aviary is supplied with almost every variety of elegant birds. Large herds of cattle, sheep and deer, are spread over the immense lawns.

THE DUKE OF DEVONSHIRE. The Duke of Devonshire's palace, at Chatsworth, is said to excel in magnificence any other in the kingdom. The income of the Duke is one million of dollars a year, and he is said to spend it all. In the grounds about the house are kept four hundred head of cattle, and four hundred deer. The kitchen garden contains twelve acres, and is filled with almost every species of fruit and vegetables. A vast arboretum, connected with the establishment, is designed to contain a sample of every tree that grows. There is also a glass conservatory, three hundred and eighty-seven feet in length, one hundred and twelve in breadth, sixty-seven in height, covered by seventy-six thousand square feet of glass, and warmed by seven miles of pipe conveying hot water. One plant was obtained from India by a special messenger, and is valued at ten thousand dollars. One of the fountains near the house plays two hundred and seventy-six feet high—said to be the highest jet in the world. Chatsworth contains thirty-five hundred acres; but the Duke owns ninety-six thousand acres in Derbyshire. Within, the entire is one vast scene of painting, sculpture, and masonic work, carved wainscoting, and all the elegancies and luxuries within the reach of almost boundless wealth and highly refined taste.

A LARGE GOLD STORY.—A correspondent of the Newport News, writing from San Francisco, relates the following incident: Two common looking persons entered the hotel this morning, just from the mines—a man and wife. The male individual looked for all the world like a day laborer, and the female bore a close resemblance to an Irish scullion. She wore coarse, vulgar brogans, and to her girlish was attached a gold watch and chain, valued at least at two hundred dollars. The husband left the hotel for half an hour, and returned with a receipt for one hundred and fifteen thousand dollars, the value of the dust which he had just consigned for transportation to New York. This sum has been gained by digging. The husband dug while the wife washed, assisted by her little son, aged about ten years.

A Horse Shoe that is put on without nails, has been invented by Herr Driesbach.

Protection from Lightning.

THE subscribers are now manufacturing in Lewistown and Bellefonte their celebrated PATENT LIGHTNING RODS, warranted superior to any in use. These spiral twisted carbonized Rods are light half inch in ten feet lengths, perfectly screwed together, with brass sockets, and put up through glass insulators in a most substantial manner—the whole mounted with a solid silver plated copper point, that will remain bright as long as the Rod stands. In this connection we would simply remark that a rusty steel or iron point will not use on a Lightning Rod, for the plain reason that they answer no end that would not be accomplished simply by sharpening the end of the Rod. One of the proprietors being himself a practical Chemist and Electrician, would assure the public that these improved Rods are manufactured and put up on scientific principles. We deem the important fact that over six hundred thousand feet of these celebrated Rods have been sold in one season, a sufficient recommendation; nevertheless we have numerous certificates from prominent persons, speaking in the highest terms of their utility.

Our teams are traversing all parts of the country with all the necessary apparatus for putting up Rods at once.

We can be seen at Hauser's Hotel, in Lewistown. Peddlars will find it greatly to their interest to call on us, as we are prepared to sell them on accommodating terms.
