We take the following from our exchanges. They exibit the enthusiasm with which Scott's nomination was welcomed by the people .all parts of the country.

BROOKLYN.-Last evening a salute of 100 Churubusco guns were fired from the Heights in honor of the nomination of Scott and Graham. The Whigs generally appear greatly rejoiced at the result.

JERSEY CITY .- Here the enthusiasm for Gen. Scott was of the right stamp, and the fires of Cerro Gordo were lighted in earnest. New Haven.-The Whigs of this city fired a national salute of thirty-one guns in honor of the Hero of Chippewa.

Boston.—The friends of the nominee fired 100 guns on the commons in honor of the nomination. SALEM .- A spontaneous meeting of the Whigs of this city was held this evening, at which the following resolution was passed unanimously:

Resolved, That the Whigs of Salem take this early occasion to ratify the nomination of Gen. Scott for the office of President of the United States, and to assure their Whig brethren throughout the country that they will bring to his support the full strength with which they swelled the majority of his predecessor in the glorious campaign of 1844. PORTLAND.—We are now firing one-hundred guns for Scott and Graham. The Whigs are in fine spirits, and are celebrating the occasion with rockets, fireworks, &c. Bangor.—The Whigs are giving evidence of the most hearty rejoicings at the nomination of Scott. One-hundred guns are now being fired, and the city is generally illuminated by the friends of the nominees.

Kingston.—The Whigs weke up the echoes of 1848 with a hundred guns for 'Old Chippewa' and his twin brother victory.

Albany.-Gen. Scott's nomination was received with great enthusiasm. The Whigs forthwith fired 158 guns, which strongly reminded the affrightened Locos of the storming of Chepultepec. The 'Democracy' are in-

DETROIT .- The greatest enthusiasm prevails one hour of the reception of the news of his to attend the consecration of the new Ceme immense assemblage. A ratification meeting will be held as soon as the nomination of Vice President is received.

CINCINNATI.—There was a great excitement among the politicians on Saturday, but the Whigs were most agreeably disappointed when Gen. Scott's nomination was announced yesterday, and the most evident satisfaction s manifested by the party here. The news was first received via Chicago, from New

RICHMOND, Va., June 22.—The nomination of Gen. Scott has given satisfaction to the Whigs of this city. The Whig heartily endorses the nominations, and predicts that the Whigs of the South will rally to the support of the ticket. Chambersburg, June 23.—The nomination of Gen. Winfield Scott was received here yesterday with the wildest enthusiasm. Bells were rung, and the most hearty cheers greeted us on all sides. An immense ratification meeting for our town was held last night, which was addressed by several of our most prominent speakers. Look out for the Har-rison times of 1840.

Worcester, June 22.—A ratification meeting was held here last evening, which was pretty largely attended. A salute of onehundred guns were fired.

Lynn, (Mass.) June 22.—The news of the nomination of Gen. Scott was received in this city with great enthusiasm. Salutes READING, June 22, 1852.—The nomination of Gen. Scott was received with the liveliest adopted by acclamation: applause. In less than half an hour after applause. In less than half an hour after the despatch was received, a detachment of in State Convention assembled, do now cording this was done. Of these Cerro Gordo first in order will pass, heart warming strains of 'Old Tippecanoe' surrounded through the streets. Many who would have voted for no other Whig candidate have declared themselves in favor of the hero of Mexico. The whigs now consider that they have the thing in their own hands, and will do their duty.

The Locos are completely chap-fallen. Their hopes were that either of the other candidates, or a new man, would be nominat- whom he has so often led to victory and ed. Not the least gratifying feature in the nomination of Gen. Scott, is the cordiality Res with which it was received by the supporters of the other distinguished candidates at Baltimore.

TRENTON, Monday, June 21.—The news of the nomination of General Scott was received here this afternoon, amidst the greatest enthusiasm of the Whigs and of all our citizens. Gen. Scott will carry New Jersey by a larger majority than either Clay or Taylor. You cannot imagine the degree of enthusiasm. New Jersey will show where she stands.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., June 29 .- The ratification meeting held by the Whigs, on Saturday night, at Memphis, is said to have been the largest and most enthusiastic ever held by the party in that city. The Tennessee papers received, say that greater enthusiasm has never been manifested than that now evinced by the Whigs of that State.

CINCINNATI, June 28 .- The Whigs of this city held a Scott, ratification meeting, last night, at which not less than 8000 persons were present. Sixth street and Market space was densely packed with the assembled mas-The Gazette Office was brilliantly illuminated, guns were fired, and musical performances added to the enthusiasm of the occasion. Boston, June 29 .- The Whigs of this city held a ratification meeting to-night, at Faneuil Hall. A large number of persons were present, and great enthusiasm prevailed .-Among the cheers given were three for Daniel Webster. Hon. R. C. Washington, June 28 .- The Whig ratification meeting. adjourned from last Wednesday evening, owing to the storm of rain, re-assem-bled to-night at the City Hall. The opening of the meeting was preceded by the firing of a salute of thirty-one guns in the City Hall square. The stand was occupied by the officers chosen at the last meeting, and about 8 o'clock the Whigs of the various wards ar-Demonstrations of this nature were made in rived in procession, with banners and transparencies, when the meeting was called to or-der by Ex-Mayor Lenox, the President, who opened it with an eloquent address, and introduced a series of resolutions complimentary to President Fillmore and Daniel Webster. warmly endorsing the nomination of Scott and Wm. A. Graham. The assemblage was then addressed by the Hon. J. W. Miller, of New Jersey, J. R. Chandler, of Pennsylvania, Morehead, of North Carolina, and Wm. Cullom, of Tennessee, in eloquent and happy remarks. The meeting was kept up to a late hour, and was decidedly the largest ever convened in this city. For the first time the City Hall was brilliantly illuminated, presenting a fine appearance. There were three bands of music in attendance, and to crown the whole, a large number of ladies graced the occasion with their presence. Throughout the city, bonfires were lighted, and in short, the greatest enthusiasm prevailed.

LOUISVILLE, June 28 .- The Whig Ratification Meeting held here on Saturday night was most enthusiastic, surpassing the campaign of 1840. Speeches were made by the Hon. Sherrard Williams, Hon. Thomas F. Marshall, Mr. Upton of Louisiana, and several others.

THE SCOTT FEELING IN MICHIGAN.—Gen. John R. Williams, one of the prominent op-position politicians, and for several years Mayor of Detroit, supports the election of Scott and Graham, and is one of the Vice-Presidents of the Detroit Scott Club. Major Jonathan Kearsley, of Detroit, who was badly wounded in the defence of his country, and a leader in the opposition party, is for These are important accessions to the Scott phalanx, and an indication of public sentiment in the North-west. Gen. Williams signalized himself in the Black Hawk War, and is an old resident of Detroit, possessed of much influence.

THE LADIES GOT WET .- About one thousand at the nomination of General Scott. Within ladies, who went to Dorchester, on Tuesday, nomination, three hundred guns were fired in this city, amid the most hearty cheers of an markable shower that raged at that time. A markable shower that raged at that time. A friend who was present describes them as most sorry looking creatures, straight, tall, slim, long-faced affairs, looking as though they were ready to enter the cemetery in another capacity than as spectators. It was utterly impossible for them to gain shelter, and thus for two long hours they were obliged to submit to the hydropathy of heaven. Beautiful bonnets, handsome silks, fastidiously starched muslins, new and rich de laines, all were oaked, undone, ruined. The sex-so brave in dress, so beautiful in color-in one short hour lost all its poetry, all its fine sentiment, all its delicious philosophy.—Boston Bee.

1000+ The N. H. Legislature has at last repealed the law "relating to personal liberty," which prohibited any person not an United States officer, from assisting in the arrest or detection of a Fugitive Slave.

A GENERAL FIRE ALARM .- In Boston, on Tuesday night, when the storm commenced, the lightning so acted on the wires of the Electric Fire Alarm, that all the bells throughout the city which are included in the circuit, struck as powerfully as when operated for an alarm.

Tuscarora Academy.

THIS flourishing institution is located in Tuscarora Valley, Juniata county, Pa., eight miles S. W. of Mifflintown, and six miles from the Perryville station, on the Pennsylvania Railroad. It has been in successful operation for more than fourteen years, and is believed o be equal to any Academy in the State, in affording facilities to young men for acquiring a thorough Aca-demical education, either for business or for college. There were present, during the last session, (previous to the fire,) more than one hundred students. Since then, the buildings have been entirely remodeled and greatly enlarged, so as to afford private rooms to all the students; an advantage not ordinarily found even in the best Institutions in the country. Being in the country, the students are removed from those temptations to idenees, dissipation, and vice, which are the bane of similar institutions in towns.
