FOR PRESIDENT, WINFIRLD SCOTT. FOR VICE PRESIDENT, WILLIAM A. GRAHAM, of North Carolina. JUDGE OF THE SUPREME COURT, JOSEPH BUFFINGTON, of Armstrong County. CANAL COMMISSIONER, JACOB HOFFMAN, of Berks County.

Grand Mass Meeting at Harrisburg.

Scott Leads the Column !-- Forward Whigs! The whig citizens of Pennsylvania are invited to meet in Council, AT HARRISBURG, ON FRIDAY, August 20th, to celebrate the" anniversary of the battle of Cherubusco.

Let it be an outpouring worthy of the day, the man, and the principles, which it is intended to commemorate. On that day five years ago, nine thousand American soldiers, led on by the great Republican Gen. WINFIELD SCOTT, achieved a victory over thirty-two thousand of the foe-a victory unsurpassed in the history of the

In honor of that memorable day, let the people of Pennsylvania TURN OUT IN THEIR MIGHT, and mingle their gratulations at the bright prospects that are before

From Lancaster, Allegheny, Philadelphia, Chester, Somerset, and distant Erie: —from counties where the Whig banner always floats in triumph-let the glad voices of men accustomed to victory be heard! From the far North and East, where the Whig fires burn dimly, let the brave watchers come, and reanimate their hearts at the enthusiasm of their more fortunate brothers! LET PENN-SYLVANIA'S VOICE BE HEARD speaking in thunder for HER CHOSEN CANDIDATE and her cherished principles!
Come with MUSIC and BANNERS! Come with the proud hearts of men who march onward to the fulfillment of a high and glorious duty! Come in the name of your Whig ancestors of the Revolution, and in the name of Right, Truth, and Liberty! Come for the sake of your country's most illustrious citizen, and show the world that American freemen know how to honor their good and great! Come for the sake of him who never fell or fainted on the field of battle; but who always led his men to glorious vic-

.... Gen. Quitman and Gen. Scott.

Several papers lately gave the substance of a conversation between General Quitman and another gentleman, in which the former heartily endorsed the nationality of General Scott. The truth thereof having been denied, General Quitman has published a card, affirming the truthfulness of the report of the conversation. He says:

1. In reply to various opinions expressed by others, I said in substance that the Southern Whigs, in their opposition to General cott, had done him injustice. That his opinions on the slavery question were less obnoxious than those heretofore expressed by Fillmore and Webster, and I would sooner trust him on that subject than either of those Scott should be preferred by them, because he openly declared for it before Fillmore's opinion was known.

2. A Whig gentleman present having remarked that the apprehension was that Scott would be controlled by Seward and politicians of his stripe :- I smiled and said :-You mistake the character of the man. The danger lies in the opposite extreme. Always accustomed to command, Gen. Scott prides himself especially upon the infallibility of his own judgement. He rarely asks or takes advice. He will be controlled by no man, not by the whole Whig party, against his own convictions."

3. That his Mexican campaign, from the first gun at Vera Cruz to the fall of the capital, was one of the most brilliant on military record. Its lustre was dimmed by some blemishes, about which I would not now speakbut that when the history of his victorious march, from the seaboard to the National Palace, shall be faithfully detailed and popularised, it will greatly add to the high military fame he at present enjoys, not only in America, but abroad.

ASSAULTS UPON GEN. SCOTT .- The New York Mirror, a paper which does not advo cate the election of the whig candidate, in reply to a very low and coarse attack of the Cleveland Plaindealer upon the military character of Gen. Scott, says: "We can say to democratic papers of the Cleveland Plaindealer stamp, that such stuff as the paragraph quoted above can only inspire indignation among the people, and lose hundreds and thousands to the democratic ranks. The dastard who-to vent his partizan would deny valor, heroism, and exalted military services to Gen. Scott, would rob American history of its glory, and the Father of his Country of honor, to serve political ends. Let the truth be confessed. Whatever the other merits of Scott, as a soldier and a hero, his name is blazoned with the splendor of a fixed star over the record of the two national wars. Ten pitched battles, equal to those of Cæsar, and all glorious victories over British and Mexican hosts, prove it. His stalwarth frame is seamed with battle sears, and the nation exults with just pride in his prowess. Yet, there is an American base enough to deny him the credit of a hero, and to link his name and claims with those of Arnold. Shame!

The whigs of Huntingdon have nominated Col. S. S. Wharton for the Legislature, Samuel Whigton of Franklin, for County Commissioner, John Brewster of Shirley for Director of the Poor, Ralph Crotzley of Cass for Auditor. Dr. Wintrode, Joseph Forest, and J. J. Cunningham, were appointed congressional conferees with instructions to support Dr. John McCulloch.

The Public Expenditures.

The Opposition Press having recently revived the complaint of extravagance in the expenditures of the present administration of the National Government, we disprove the charge by republishing from the National Intelligencer of the 31st of March the subjoined editorial article, in which its fallacy was at that time so conclusively demonstrated by evidence derived from the public record as at once to silence the cavilling of our political adversaries on this subject. But the complaint having now been renewed, we content ourselves for the present by reproducing the article:

FROM THE NATIONAL INTELLIGENCER OF MARCH

31 гт 1852. In the discussions which have taken place, in the newspapers and elsewhere, on the financial question, an attempt has been made to hold the present Administration responsible for an alleged large increase of the expenditures of the Government. With the growth of the Government, and the additional cost of governing newly-acquired and distant territories, it could not well be otherwise than that the expenses of the Government must be somewhat increased, but not to anylike the amount at which it has been stated; as, for example, in the 'Union' of a few days ago, in which the expenditures of Government were charged to have reached fifty-two millions of dollars, instead of thirtyeven millions which they had reached at one period of the Van Buren Administration,

Let us briefly analize this sweeping charge. It is not true, in the first place, that the expenditures of the Government last year amounted so high as fifty millions. In so large an expenditure, however, a few millions more or less would by some persons be thought to make little difference. But the actual payments during the year amounted to only forty-eight millions of dollars, instead of fifty-two millions, (or fifty millions, as estimated by others,) as will be seen by the following statement, made up from authentic gentlemen. That if there was any merit in collecting the revenues, &c., amounting to "compromise," which I did not admit, more than four millions of dollars, would, under former Administrations, according to the then existing laws, have been paid by and deducted from the revenue by collectors. Now every thing is paid into the Treasury and repaid to the employers, &c.

The items under the third division of the above statement are surely not 'ordinary expenses' of Government.

The revenues from the Ocean Mail Steamer not appearing in the receipts of the Treasury, the fourth item of the above should not be added to the expenses. .

The volunteers (comprising the fifth item) ought to have been paid years ago. Why then, does that hold a place in the account of ordinary expenses' of the Government.

A just computation of the 'ordinary' expenditures of the Government for the year 1851, is, therefore, by this analysis, reduced to little more than thirty-five millions of dollars, being a less annual amount, as before stated, than the Government had risen to be fore the Whigs had ever had any effective share in the administration of the General Government,

North Carolina Election.

RALEIGH, August 11 .- Returns from fiftyone counties present a Democratic gain of 43, over the vote received by Governor Reid in 1850,—There appears to have been a net | gislature? Whig gain of seven members of the House, more than sufficient to overbalance the former Democratic majority in that branch.

Iowa Election,

The Iowa Election for Governor and mem bers of Congress is still in doubt.

National Intelligencer, in announcing the death of the Hon, Robert Rantoul, one of the Representatives from Massachusetts, says, he was in his seat in the House, on Tuesday last. the 3d instant. At that time he appeared to be in usual health, with the exception of what he considered to be a small bile upon his forehead. On Wednesday morning the little sore was surrounded by erysipelatous inflammation, in consequence of which he was prevailed upon to remain in his room and procure medical advice, Thursday, the disease seemed entirely arrested, and on Friday morning he felt very much better, and spoke confidently of returning in a day or two to his duties in the House. On Friday evening he became much worse; the erysipelas spread over the entire face, and his brain was evidently affected. On Saturday evening the left side came paralytic, after which he sunk rapidly, and expired at about half-past ten o'clock

Mr. Rantoul was forty seven years M. of age. His remains have been taken to Massachusetts, escorted by Mr. Duncan and Mr, Goodrich, of Massachusetts, Mr. Cleveland, of Connecticut, and Mr. Eastman, of Wisconsin,

A large number of emigrants are almost daily passing over the Pennsylvania Railroad on their way westward.

The locofocos of Huntingdon county met in convention on Tuesday last, and voted down a resolution to nominate a ticket.

Give them a call.

The Clinton county locofocos have recommended Mr. Gamble, a brother we think of the Canal Commissioner, as their candidate for Congress from the long-legged district. He'll do as well as anybody else, but has Mifflin county no candidate for eight dollars a day and stealings? Why not bring up some of the defunct candidates for the Le-

We are glad to learn that the conferees of Adams, Franklin, Bedford, Fulton, and Juniata counties, have nominated SAMUEL RUS-SELL, Esq., of Bedford, as the whig candidate for Congress in that district. THE KID TREASURE.—A queer story is told in the Mount Holly Mirror, about the discovery of some of Capt. Kid's treasure among the Pines. It is stated that a man dreamed for several nights successively that he should find this treasure, the place to be indicated by four iron bars projecting from the earth. He went and found his dream realized. Two hundred and forty thousand dollars had been discovered up to Monday night, buried in iron chests, and the people have the state of the with their pickaxes in farthe aren for the treasure. The utmost acatement is said to prevail in the machinened.

KUPINSKIE'S CONFESSION .- The Philadelchia papers publish a confession made by Matthias Skupinskie, hung there on Friday for the murder of the boy Lehman, to the Roman Catholic priests who were his spiritual advisers, and made public at his own desire. In this confession he denies the commission of any murders in this country or Europe, and alleges that his only participation in the murder of Lehman was the knowledge that Kaiser intended to take the boy's life, and the assisting him to dispose of the remains after the murder was committed, This is the third or fourth confession he has made, all varying, and of course little reliance can be placed on any of them.

Balloon Ascensions .- Mr. Wise, the most successful of American æronauts, is busy going up and coming down in Ohio, He has principal towns in our own State, and proses to make three from Cleveland during the Fair. At Portsmouth, he encountered a thunder storm in mid air, and had an exciting and perilous adventure. Wr. W. made an ascension at Mansfield, July 17th, rose to the height of 11,000 feet, and had a fine view of Lake Erie, and the towns and country around. On the 24th, he went up at Wooster, and at Massillon, on the 31st, made his 139th ascension, traveling over thirty miles. Mr. W. will make an ascension from Ravenna, August 14th,

A Second Sam Patch Leap.—A second Sam Patch leap came off on Monday last, into the middle of Niagara river. Some five hundred persons were present to witness the feat, In consequence of the strong unexpected current of air under the bridge, the gentleman's back, instead of the pedal extremities, was first introduced to the surface of the water. He was not so badly injured, however, but that he commenced swimming towards the shore and was soon taken into a small boat. He had an appointment to descend the precipice at the Falls, in a similar manner, but the result of his experiment has determined him to look to some other opening for notoriety and fame. We can see neither dexterity, wit nor reason in this senseless mania for jumping from high places. All the world knows that any donkey can go down; the only difficulty is in rising.—Lockport Journal.

Runaway Locomotive.-Sunday morning, while the locomotive "Weymouth" was stand ing upon the track of the Old Colony Railroad, at South Braintree, waiting the arrival of the steamboat train from Fall river, by some means the gear was thrown forward and the "throttle" thrown out, when off the ocomotive started at a rapid rate towards Boston. The engineer, who was standing near, in endeavoring to jump upon the machine, was thrown upon the track and narrowly escaped instant death. The locomotive continued its course onward without engineer or fireman. As soon as possible, the "Marlborough" was on the road after the runaway and succeeded in overtaking it near the West Hope Branch, Neponset. When the "Weymouth" was reached, it was totally in want of fire to generate steam .- Boston Herald.

Upon some public occasion lately, at Fairfield, Indiana, the proceedings were opened with prayer by the Rev. E. G. Wood, of that place, who, after praying for the general government, prayed for the Governor of the State, and thus for the Legislature: "And the Lord have mercy on our Legislators. Spare their lives until they may return to their homes, and then put it into the hearts of the people to keep them there, and return men of temperate habits and sentiments, who will do some good." A similar prayer might occasionally be put up in this State.
