John D. Barr advertises a stray bull.
Information is wanted of Joseph Barrs, who left Lewistown a few years ago.
Billy Johnson wants funds, and Clark and Co. have answered.
The McClellan property will be sold on the 30th Sept.
Attention is invited to the advertisements of CARL GIESE & CO., BROTHERS; BAILY & BROTHER, Philadelphia; G. L. MILLER & CO., do.; S. WOODWARD & CO., do.; and C. FRENCH & CO., do.

Whig Delegate Elections and County Convention.

Our readers will bear in mind that the whig delegate elections will be held on Saturday afternoon, 4th September, when two delegates are to be chosen in each election district for the purpose of meeting in council on the Monday following at this place. As matters of much importance will come before the convention, we hope reliable men, having the interest of the party at heart, will be chosen, and that the future course of the whigs will be duly weighed and decided upon so far as respects the nomination of candidates for the legislature and county officers. Upon this matter there is some difference of opinion, but not of so strenuous a character as to prevent a general acquiescence in whatever course the convention may recommend.

Taken altogether, we believe the ticket nominated by our opponents is not one of much strength. Against the men, as individuals, we have nothing to say—knowing but little against them and but little in their favor—all of them being of that class which can be found without much hunting. There is one feature however to which we intend to call public attention, namely, that both stripes of locofocoism profess to be satisfied with them. As "he who is not for me is against me" must be the natural result of antagonism such as is known to exist among the democracy here, it is evident that one or the other will find itself in a tight place, should the people see fit to elect the offspring of the discordant elements that recently assembled in the Town Hall. Both factions have views and interests of their own, vastly paramount to the public good, and hence a legislator must mould himself to one or the other, volens volens, or content himself to be consigned to one term and oblivion thereafter.

We shall next week give some authority from New-Hampshire respecting Pierce's anti-fugitive slave law speech, that will clinch a nail or two.

Locofoco State Convention.

Our naturalized citizens will no doubt be gratified to learn that the Locofoco State Convention yesterday nominated that distinguished Native American who proposed to disfranchise them in convention some years ago) GEORGE W. WOODWARD, for Judge of the Supreme Court.
For Canal Commissioner, the Convention nominated Wm. F. HOPKINS, of Washington county, a considerable improvement on some of their late nominations; but still the people will desire to know how he stands in relation to "contracts," before they will endorse him at the polls.

Foreign News.

We have had several foreign arrivals since our last, but the news is not of much importance politically. Flour and grain had slightly advanced, the former being quoted at 21s 6d a 22s, which is about the price extra flour is selling for in Lewistown. It is stated that a special Minister is about being sent from England to this country for the purpose of settling the fishery difficulties—that several vessels of war are about sailing from England to reinforce Admiral Seymour on the coast of North America—and that the marriage of Louis Napoleon had been indefinitely postponed.

Our neighbor of the Democrat has a great deal to say about the finality of the compromise. Can he point out any part of the democratic platform where the compromise is recognised as a finality? If he can we should like to see it, and some of his readers are equally curious, for they have never been able to find it; nor have they ever got sight of a letter from Gen. Pierce in answer to one Captain Scott, in which he was asked to pledge himself to veto any alteration of the fugitive slave law.

The locofocos of Juniata county have nominated Joseph Bell, of Lack township, for Sheriff; Thomas I. Milliken, of Turbett, for Commissioner; Wm. Christy, of Fermanagh, Auditor. Dr. Wallace, of Richfield, was recommended for Assembly. Messrs. A. P. Lusk, Dr. J. W. Crawford, and A. J. Ferguson, were appointed Congressional Conferees, and instructed to support the nomination of Col. Samuel E. Hensch for Congress.

Stand Firm.

The adversaries of Gen. Scott, says the New-York Tribune, hope to secure his defeat by persuading the more timid and lukewarm Whigs that his election is impossible—that the triumph of Pierce and King is a "fixed fact." They know that, as between Pierce and Scott, a majority of American Freemen would decidedly prefer the latter for next President; but they say to themselves, "If we can convince all the trimmers that Pierce's election is certain, they will rally to his support; and if we can make the fainting Whigs believe Scott has next to no chance they will neither work nor vote; so let us brag high, claim everything, offer bets to every one whose principles condemn betting, and we shall probably carry our man."

This game does not always win.
In 1848, the friends of Cass were sure of electing him in the early stages of the canvass, and would have bet any amount on it. They ridiculed the idea of Gen. Taylor, who had spent all his life in the backwoods as an Army officer, beating a scholar, civilian and diplomatist, like Gen. Cass. They paraded estimates, giving Gen. Taylor but half a dozen States, and challenged bets on them. When Pennsylvania elected Johnston Governor in October, by only 302 majority over an unpopular rival, and at the same time chose the Cass Canal Commissioner by 2,634, they scouted the idea of Gen. Taylor's carrying the State. Johnston they say had been elected by Free-Soil votes, which would go for Van Buren in November; when 1st November showed a majority for Taylor over both Cass and Van Buren—though Cass's vote was heavier than his party had ever before thrown in the State. And so with Connecticut, New-Jersey, Maryland, Tennessee, North Carolina and other States which, on the strength of local contests, they had claimed as likely or certain to vote for Cass.

There are Two or Three Hundred Thousand Voters in the Union whom nothing short of a Presidential contest can bring to the polls—we regret the fact, and they ought to be ashamed of it—but it is a fact, nevertheless. Of these voters, nine-tenths are Whigs. The only way to beat Gen. Scott is to persuade them that their votes can avail nothing this Fall, and to persuade our five Whigs that it is fruitless to make the necessary effort to bring them out. If this impression can be diffused, and Whig apathy shall open the way to the polling of illegal votes in the strong Pierce districts, they may beat us. And this is what they are now working for.

WHIGS! STAND FIRM! They who shout over the loss of half their usual majority, half their Congressional delegation, and more than half their Legislative majority, in Iowa, and who are delighted with the choice of only two Whigs to Congress from Missouri, where we carried none in the Taylor year, will of course find a pretext for shouting in nearly every Election between this and November. They will add together the Rum votes for Chandler, and the Whig Temperance votes for Hubbard in Maine, and show a vast majority against us in that State; and so, doubtless, with regard to the State Elections in Maryland, Indiana, &c., where they have extraordinary elements of strength in the State contests. In each of these States there are thousands who will vote for Scott, who cannot be counted on to vote the Whig local tickets in October. Our adversaries of course will shout! They will profess a strong desire to bet—let them seek gamblers among those to whom gambling is congenial. Let us go straight along, putting facts and documents into every one's hands, quietly organizing and preparing to bring out the legal voters and keep out illegal votes, and we shall silence their bragging effectually on the second of November. Then we can shout, and exult, and fire cannon, if we have a taste for such amusements; but let us postpone playing till our work is done. We may then cheer with a good conscience, and without a fear of waking up the wrong passenger. Put out the Documents and push on the organization now: Leave huzzing till the proper time. The Chinese warfare of our antagonists will alarm none but very timid children, and need not terrify even them.—Old Chippewa has faced a heavier fire on many a field, and never thought of quailing; let his friends profit by his example.

A Slight Mistake.—The Democrat's correspondent Juniata says that Hillsboro, the residence of Pierce, gave 87 majority in favor of abolishing the religious test. This is not the fact. The vote in that town stood as follows:
Yeas 15
Nays 101
Majority against abolishing test, 86
If Juniata can make a majority of 87 out of 15 yeas, he must be an expert hand at figures, and ought to have an office on the canal at once.

School Warrants Issued.

The Harrisburg Keystone says:—School warrants have been issued to all the districts in the State which have reported to the Department according to law, for their share of appropriation. The circulars in which they are enclosed were directed to the district Treasurers, as the law requires, and as has been done for several years past. Last year many of the Treasurers did not call at their post offices until after the circulars containing the warrants had been sent to Washington as dead letters. This always creates confusion, delay and expense. It is hoped the Treasurers will be more prompt in calling for their letters the present year.—The districts which have not yet reported, are urged to do so at once. If they delay too long they will not receive their share of the State appropriation, which will hardly be agreeable to them, or desirable in any quarter.

Pierce and the Religious Test.

The moment Gen. Pierce was nominated for the Presidency, George M. Dallas of Philadelphia, and Charles O'Connor of New York, exerted themselves to make and then refute charges against their own candidate. Among the objections which they well knew would rise up in judgment against their nominee, was the disgraceful and anti-republican provision in the constitution of New Hampshire making the holding of an office dependent on a religious test. To forestall the record, these unscrupulous partisans at once announced that their leader had made strong efforts to have the test abolished, and had even descended from the chair of the presiding officer to make a speech in favor of erasing this blot from the constitution. This statement at once went the rounds of the locofoco press, and many were no doubt gulled by it, but there were others who thought the one-sided proceeding of making and refuting charges within a few hours of the nomination a little suspicious. Accordingly Mr. Wm. E. Robinson, a prominent citizen of New York, made a visit to New Hampshire, examined the records of the proceedings of the Convention called to amend the constitution of that State, and made inquiries at Concord into the fountains of democracy. He has returned, and given the result of his investigations in a speech at the North American Hotel in New York, to the Scott and Graham Clubs of the fourth, tenth, sixth and fourteenth wards. Among the assertions made by Mr. Robinson are the following, for the truth of which he pledged himself, challenged the most thorough investigation, and announced that he would deposit in the hands of Simeon Draper one hundred dollars, to be forfeited and given up to any one, who will prove that in one of the propositions he misstated the facts; the decision to be left to Robert Emmet:

1. Franklin Pierce did not speak at all in favor of Catholic Emancipation during the whole time the Catholic test was before the Convention.
2. He had nothing to do with "bringing forward" the subject. The resolution abolishing the test was drawn by Mr. Parker, of Nashua, a Whig, and was "brought forward" by Mr. Parker, November 14, when it was discussed in Convention.
3. It was known throughout New Hampshire, that Catholic Emancipation was finally defeated by an overwhelming vote some eight or ten weeks before Mr. O'Connor spoke in Tammany Hall.
4. When Religious Liberty needed a champion Gen. Pierce was found—wanting.—Though after Catholic Emancipation was carried in Convention he found time, while making a speech on the Property Qualification, to excuse and apologize for the test bigotry, by saying it was a dead letter and blank, which was simply stating that Catholics would perjure themselves to get into office, by swearing to support a Constitution which expressly shut them out from office.
5. That so far from all his "antecedents" being right, his father, Benjamin Pierce, voted to put the anti-Catholic clause into the Constitution, and voted for the Alien and Sedition laws of old John Adams!
6. That so far from Catholic Emancipation falling into for want of a two-thirds vote, it had not one-fifth of the votes cast throughout the State at the same election for Governor, and did not come near a simple majority of the small vote cast on this question.
7. That in place of there being any high confidence in New Hampshire of Catholic Emancipation being carried, the general opinion is, that unless we draw a line around New Hampshire, saying that while the plague spot is on her, and the ship is unperfumed, no man, captain or crew, shall land, and thus by the defeat of Gen. Pierce, bring his bigoted party to their senses, the Catholics in that State stand no chance of being emancipated for half a century.
8. And in a word, in fine, that the father, Benjamin Pierce, was a red hot enemy of the Catholics, and a supporter of the Alien and Sedition acts; and that Franklin Pierce, the young chicken, learned to crow seditiously from the old one, that he raised not a voice in favor of abolishing his father's bigotry during the whole time the subject was under discussion in a Convention of which he was a leading member and President.

The New York correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer says:—"Quite a number of the men who have been hard workers around Tammany hall are now found advocating the cause of Gen. Scott. These are in most instances men who served under Gen. S. in Mexico. One of them, Capt. Garret, of the Sixth District Police, was violently assaulted a few evenings ago by Isaiah Rynders, the President of the Empire Club, for no other reason than because he intends to exercise his privilege of voting for whom he pleases."

CHOLERA.—At Gilboa, Ohio, on the 11th inst., six deaths from cholera occurred, and the next morning two more, including Dr. Thajie. The place was nearly deserted. At Sandusky, during six days ending Aug. 13th, there were thirty-six deaths of cholera.

At Millintown, there will be a grand rally of the friends of Old Chippewa, on Monday evening, Sept. 6th. Samuel L. Russell, Esq., the Whig nominee for Congress, Col. A. G. Curtin and Wm. H. Irvin, will address the meeting.

The Phoenixville Nail Works, carried on by an association of practical nailors and operatives in the mill, has ceased operations, after sinking a heavy portion of the capital paid in. They made one of the best articles found in the market; but it would not do—the enterprise was not profitable.

DEATH ON THE RAILROAD.—During the progress of the Philadelphia train towards Baltimore city, on Saturday night, the cow-catcher of the locomotive, in the vicinity of Steamer's run, came in contact with a man, standing on the track, and his body was pierced through by the prongs of the instrument, and dashed into a ditch beside the railroad. He died next morning. His name was not known.

On Wednesday afternoon, a woman, residing at No. 51 Hudson avenue, New York, missed one of her children, and thinking it had taken into the eastern in the yard, leaped down in search of it, and was nearly drowned. She was fished out with some difficulty by the neighbors, and was rejoiced to find that her "darling" was safe in the house.

EDITORIAL OLLA PODRIDA.

The Huntingdon county locofocos have adopted a resolution in favor of renominating the present Auditor General, Ephraim Banks.

The locofocos of Centre county have put up Henry S. Gross for Congress, Wm. H. Blair for Senator, Charles R. Foster for Assembly, John Baird for Commissioner, and Wm. Allison for Auditor.

If a small meeting is evidence of an unpopular ticket, the Millin county ratification meeting, which numbered about two dozen and a half, must have given the nominees little hope of success.

The Miltonian states that a most diabolical act upon the person of a female was attempted in that borough last week by an unknown scoundrel. Her cries however saved her, but the villain escaped.

John Jacob Myers, a porter at the Mountain House, was arrested last week on a charge of robbing a traveller. He is a German lad who had heretofore borne a good reputation.

Thos. H. Clay, the son of Henry Clay, whom the locofoco papers have been parading as opposed to Gen. Scott, has come out in a letter denying that he ever gave room for any such supposition, and says "if alive, I vote for Scott and Graham."

The Aurora, in noticing the resignation of David McClure as mail agent, to which post he was appointed a few weeks since, asks "Is our neighbor of the Gazette satisfied now?" The interrogation is both Greek and Hebrew to us.

Bingham & Dock, it is said by the President of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, have offered to sell out their monopoly of the Columbia Railroad for $100,000! There are believed to be two partners in the concern, and had the company acceded to this proposition, each partner would have realized $100,000.

We have tried Schlessingers gutta serena coated Pens, with platinum points, which are warranted not to corrode, and find them an excellent article, much superior to the steel pens heretofore used. The article is for sale only by H. W. JENKIN, at his Jewelry store in Market street.

A few weeks ago the locofocos had got up the expenses of Government to fifty millions—now they have raised to sixty, and next month we suppose they will reach seventy or eighty. Can any of them figure out how much the canal costs the taxpayers of Pennsylvania?

The London (British) Times will be published as a Pierce and King campaign paper until the election. As it is only a few years since the "democracy" of Millin county left the democratic doctrine of protection for the British doctrine of low duties, a goodly list ought to be made up in this county.

The locofoco papers are endeavoring to understate the whig mass meeting held at Harrisburg last week, but unfortunately differ in their statements a mile or two. From the short notice given, we did not expect to hear of a very large gathering, but that the meeting was respectable in numbers, and most enthusiastic, is true beyond a doubt.

Several cows have been killed in Blair county by the locomotives within the last few weeks, and in one instance the baggage car and a passenger car were thrown off, and the track injured for sixty or seventy feet; fortunately no injury was sustained by the passengers. It is a hard case to lose animals of this description, but on the other hand it is still harder for travelers to run the risk of broken limbs by their getting on railroad tracks. The track and the cows ought both to be fenced in.

"If you want a good paper," said a farmer in the valley lately to a neighbor, "take the Lewistown Gazette—it is always readable, is issued with regularity, and contains more real news than city papers of twice its size. For my part I would not be without it for double its cost." That recommendation alone has already procured us several subscribers, for the neighbor came and subscribed, and was so well pleased that he induced others to follow his example. We have room for more, and shall be glad to see a hundred or so in the next month or two.

Although near the close of the session, Congress is still engaged in all the petty schemes that unprincipled demagogues can invent or corrupt swindlers conceive. Even the Senate—once a body of enlightened statesmen—is fast degenerating into a horde of bar-room politicians, while the House is gradually losing the little character it had left, by suffering a set of brawlers, who are either constantly drunk or crazy, to monopolize the time and create disgraceful disturbances. If these things continue, the time is not distant when a decent man will consider it no honor to be sent to Washington.

Public opinion has already driven the Canal Commissioners into an alteration of the schemes of the monopolists, by which passengers are now left off at Dillerville, instead of being compelled to leave the cars at Lancaster or go on to Columbia; but to make up for this, they have again increased the rates of charge to that place to 3 cents a mile. These proceedings are rapidly driving western passengers to other routes, and the railroad company will probably soon abandon the state road altogether, and construct a new road from Harrisburg to connect with the Reading at Phoenixville. This, with an alteration of the road here to the Lewistown side of the Juniata, and a machine shop or two near the Water Company's reservoir, Major Elbow (who is looking over our shoulder as we write this) thinks would play the d-1 and wake any quantity of snakes.

Camp Meeting commences to-day near the ground occupied last year, about 9 miles west of this place.

Ner Middleswarth has been nominated for Congress in the Union, Dauphin and Lebanon district.

Ten persons were drowned at Albany on Sunday last by the upsetting of a boat in the river.

The steamer Franklin No. 2 burst a boiler near St. Louis on Monday last, killing nine persons and scalding thirty others; six are also missing.

A young lady named Mabec, aged 18 years, committed suicide at Baltimore on Tuesday by throwing herself into the basin at Light street wharf.

HAVE YOU THE FEVER AND AGUE?—If so, then be persuaded to try Dr. J. W. Cooper's Vegetable Compound Fever and Ague Pills, as they will positively perform a perfect cure in three days time. We ourselves know of a number of cases in which they have been used, and we never knew them to fail; therefore we conscientiously recommend them to our friends as being the very best medicine ever discovered for the cure of this distressing disease. These pills are for sale by F. J. HOFFMAN, of this place. Price $1 per box. He has also constantly on hand a supply of Dr. J. W. Cooper's Vegetable Worm Powders for the destruction of Worms, and from the many applications of our friends to give notice through the press of the wonderful benefits their children have derived from the use of them, we have no doubt they are really a superior article; they are also pleasant for children to take.—Also for sale by the same, Dr. J. W. Cooper's Vegetable Cough or Consumptive Syrup. We ourselves can testify to the great superiority of this medicine in the cure of a stubborn and obstinate cough of several years standing. If you have a cough, try this syrup, and our word for it if it does not cure you, nothing will. [a13]

ANOTHER SCIENTIFIC WONDER! Important to Dyspeptics.—Dr. J. S. Houghton's PEPSIN, The True Digestive Fluid or Gastric Juice, prepared from the PANCREAS of FRESH STOMACHS OF PURE OX, after direct use of Byron Liebig, the greatest Physiological Chemist, by J. S. Houghton M. D., Philadelphia. This is truly a wonderful remedy for indigestion, Dyspepsia, Jaundice, Liver Complaint, Consumption and Debility, curing after 30 days' use, such cases as others' do not cure. The Gastric Juice. Pamphlet, containing Scientific Evidence of its value, furnished by agents gratis. See notice among the medical advertisements.

EVERYBODY that wants good Coffees, Sugars, Teas, Molasses, Vinegar, &c., can always find them very low, for cash, at F. J. HOFFMAN'S.
