From the Washington Republic.

Gen. Pierce and Slavery --- More Affidavits. We consider the testimony already adduced. touching the character of Gen. Pierce's speech at New Boston, perfectly conclusive. It proves that the General among his friends and neighbors in New Hampshire, expresses statements that are well calculated to arrest the "perfect gush of enthusiasm" with which nomination was hailed by Mr. Forsyth and Mr. Soule, and the Secessionists and Fireeaters generally. We have nothing to say in regard to those sentiments, except that the New Hampshire Democracy have very solemply affirmed on various occasions that they are such as the New Hampshire Democracy entertain. The admitted fact, which appears from the "Life of Pierce," published by the Democratic Central Committee, that Gen. Pierce averred at Manchester, on the 20th of November, 18:0, that "the men who would dissolve the Union did not hate or deplore slavery more than he did." This admitted fact renders the alleged New Boston speech a matter of less interest, except from the deni-als of Gen. Pierce and his friends, which are calculated to convey a false impression of the facts in the case. We have never entertained a doubt that the report of Mr. Foss of the General's remarks on slavery at New Boston was essentially and substantially correct

The most skeptical can entertain no doubt of its accuracy as to the immediate points in .

Mayor's Office.

MANCHESTER, August 14, 1852. Having been intimately acquainted with Rev. A. T. Foss, of this city, during the last seven years, I can most cheerfully state that he always has sustained an unblemished moral character, and is regarded in our community as a clergyman of ability, intelligence and piety. FREDERICK Satter, Mayor of Manchester, N. H.

GOFFSTOWN, N. H., August 9, 1852. This is to certify that Rev. Andrew T. Foss is a member of the Baptist church in Goffstown, N. H., in good and regular standing, and is a minister in regular standing in the Baptist denomination.

J. W. POWLAND, Pastor,

JESSE T. PLUMER, Ch. Clerk. We, Abraham Cochran, Solomon McCurdy and James McCurdy, citizens of New Boston, county of Hillsborough, and State of New Hampshire, depose and say, we were at a political meeting in this town on the second lay of January, 1852, at which General Pierce made a political speech ; and we fur-ther say, that we saw a report of said speech immediately after in the Manchester Democrat, and we then thought the report a faithful statement of Gen. Pierce's remarks on the slavery question; and our attention having been recently called to this subject, we say that, according to our best recollection, the report on the part relating to slavery and the fugitive slave law is correct. ABRAHAM COCHRAN, SOLOMON M. McCURDY.

JAMES McCURDY. State of New Hampshire, Hillsboroug

On this 27th day of July, A. D., 1852, personally appeared the above named Abraham Solomon McCurdy and James Mc-Cochran, Curdy, and made solemn oath that the foregoing affidavit by them subscribed is true. Before me, JOSEPH COCHRAN, JR.,

Justice of the Peace. I, Daniel Andrews, of New Boston, in the county of Hillsborough, and State of New Hampshire, depose and say, that I was present at a political meeting holden in this town second day of January, 1852, which on the was addressed by General Franklin Pierec: and I further say, that I saw the report of said speech made by A. T. Foss, and I then believed the report to be a true and correct report of said speech, and spoke of it as being such at the time ; and I never heard any person say that they doubted the correctness of the report until it became necessary to contradict it to save General Pierce's credit with his Southern friends.

meeting holden in this town on the second day of January, 1852, at which meeting Gen. Franklin Pierce made a political speech, and know to be the best receipt extant for making I distinctly recollect that he spoke of slavery and the Fugitive Slave law as a moral wrong and revolting to his feelings.

NATHAN HALL. Let us see if Mr. Norris and Mr. Hibbard will undertake to impeach the veracity of these witnesses.

We take it for granted that the deponents entertain precisely the same feelings with regard to slavery that have been so repeatedly exhibited, in a marked public and official manner, by both Mr. Hibbard and Mr. Norris; but we do not think that on this account they are not to be believed upon oath. Of what value are general certificates, vague and sweeping disclaimers, against the positive and specific averments on oath of men of unimeached truth?

General Pierce's own repudiation of Mr. Foss's report amounts to nothing. It is in Gen. Pierce's power, if he can do so consistently with truth, to deny specifically the language on the slavery question attributed to him at New Boston, and to state as well as he can recollect the precise words which he really employed on that occasion. He owed it to himself and his party -- if he took any notice of the report-to disclaim it in such a manner that his disclaimers would "stick." He contents himself with saying that the "pre tended report" is an "entire misrepresenta-Now we know from a dozen quarters, indeed it is admitted, that a large part of the report is not a misrepresentation. On some points all the witnesses on both sides agree. But Gen. Pierce says it is an "entire misrepresentation."

This state of the case makes it necessary for General Pierce to write a letter in which he shall correct his testimony in such a maner that it shall not conflict with that of all the other witnesses. General Pierce has undertaken to impeach controversy after reading the affidavits which the correctness of a report made at the time, it if it does not cure you, nothing will. [a13 and now sworn to, by a Baptist elergyman in good standing: and that report now confirmed by several other witnesses. We have still other affidavits, which we shall publish at our convenience. Meanwhile, will the Union fur-nish us with one of the several letters which it has seen from General Pierce denying the "calumny" under his own signature? It may be more specific and distinct to the points in controversy.

New York Daily Times of Saturday : GRAIN AND FLOUR-ENGLISH HARVEST. The operations in Flour and Grain in this Market, since the last English steamer, are restrained by considerable caution on the part of buyers, and by some distrust in the result of the crops on the other side. Prices to-day gave way under enhanced supplies, and the unwillingness of speculators to move freely in advance of the actual orders reved from abroad. Flour is quoted 121 to 19 cents the barrel below the extreme rates of the week, and Wheat from 3 to 5 cents the bushel less. The export demand, however, has been decisive enough to sensibly help the shipping interests, and freights have recovered from their previous low rates.

Pierce Against the Pensioners.

In looking over an old volume of the Journals of Congress, we find Pierce voting against the old revolutionary soldiers, indian fighters and widows. On page 130, House Journal for Dec., 1833, the following resolution appears :

Resolved, That a select committee be appointed, whose duty it shall be to inquire into the expediency of so extending the provisions of the act of Congress, passed 7th June, 1832, granting pensions to certain classes of troops therein named, as to embrace in its provisions those who were engaged in the wars against the indians subsequent to the close of the revolutionary war.

This resolution was debated for eleven days, at different times, and on the 11th of February, 1834, Mr. Chilton Allen demanded the previous question, the call was sustained, and the main question was put, and the resolution adopted by a vote of 120 yeas to 86 nays-FRANKLIN PIERCE voting against the resolution ! Among those who voted for the resolution are the names of the following gentlemen-John Quincy Adams, Chilton Allen, Rufus Choate, Thomas Corwin, Edward Everett, Richard M. Johnson, Millard Fillmore -and the following from Tennessee: John Bell, John Blair, David Crocket, David W. Dickinson, John B. Forester, Cave Johnson, Luke Lea, James K. Polk, James Standifer, Samuel Bunch, and William M. Inge. The Committee reported a bill-that bill provided for the widows of officers and soldiers, and PIERCE voted against it! In 1841, the House revived the measure, passed the bill; it went to the Senate, there it met with the same FRANK PIERCE again, who spoke and voted against it! See Congressional Globe, 27th Congress, page 117, good dem-oeratic authority. The bill of 1841, proposed to extend the benefits of half pay to the wi-dows and orphans of deceased officers, &c., and he voted against that !- Knoxville Whig.

The Last Question discussed before the Shagerag Debating Society was: ' Where does a candle go to when it goes out?"

The caution of our home speculators is scarcely to be regretted. Nothing is more uncertain than English harvest weather and no definite opinion of the result can be form-ed for some weeks to come, while nothing is so hurtful to regulate trade as a premature movement in sending forward supplies on American account, not likely to be taken in London and Liverpool, except at a loss, in case the harvest should prove a good one. The chances are we think, that the partial short-coming of the Wheat Crop, on the other side, will justify from $4.50 to $5.50 for Flour in the course of the Fall months; it is almost certain the Potatoe disease will be the means of keeping up an active shipping demand for Indian Corn. The crops of Cotton in the United States, as we have before had occasion to remark, are unusually large and promising, and the country will be able to spare, at moderate prices, more than double-and if need be, quadruple the quantity sent forward last season.
